Freedom Class, Master Jesus

Usa: Good evening everybody, and I thank you for your presence here, and welcome to the weekly transmissions of our Beloved Ascended Akasha and Asun and the newly formatted Wednesday evening that include sacred journeys, healing frequencies, guided meditations, prayer calls, invocation decrees and the evening is complete with a ten to fifteen-minute message from an Ascended Master guest. So let's take a deep breath and let's prepare ourselves to receive all the Love our Beloved Akasha and Asun come to offer this day as we begin our gathering with a sacred meditation.

Take a deep breath together...and let us begin a gentle journey of turning our attention inwards to the centre of the chest cavity and together let us visualize and feel a Golden Sun's Presence that fills the chest area that is a Source when recognized, when acknowledged, when accepted, a Source of Greater Love Wisdom and Power in our earthly lives. So take this moment and drop your attention into your spiritual centre; visualize and feel that Golden Sun's Presence within and imagine that the Greater Love Wisdom and Power of that great spiritual centre within you responds to your loving attention, your loving acceptance as that Sun's Presence within releases waves of radiance of its Love Wisdom and Power throughout your physical garment your mind and feelings. Visualize rippling waves one after the other sent out from that spiritual centre until there forms a golden halo all about you; visualize and feel it. Invocation to Life communing inwardly and quietly,

“With a heart of gratitude I enter into the throne room of my Divinity and I greet my Essential Self the I AM that I AM whose Magic Presence abides within and above me.

My Beloved Great Cosmic Self my Beloved I AM that I AM, through your Presence within I greet you, so grateful for the gift of Life and I love to acknowledge your Presence inside me as the knower the giver and the doer. And through the power of my attention upon thee I say 'yes' to Life, 'yes' to becoming your Presence the Great I AM that I AM on Earth. 'yes' to all the glory all the grace all that is your greater Love and Light, joy, beauty and perfection, and your abundance expressing in our lives on Earth. We just love and bless you our Beloved I AM Presence, and through you we extend that Love to all the Angelic and the Ascended Host and our own Beloved Akasha and Asun who come to us the Rose Pink Flames and Rays of Divine Love Will and Grace.

And to assist us to receive their Love do we welcome into our gathering and into the homes of all who consciously turn towards the Light, blessed Angels come. Although yet invisible to the outer sight we accept the Presence of Angels and the Ascended Host into our lives. Beloved Angels, Guardian Angels, Healing Angels, Angels of the Sacred Fire, the Great Cherubim the Love Angels, the Seraphim the Light Angels, Angels of the Music of the Higher Spheres, and the Angels of the Great Central Sun of the Immortal Flames of Cosmic Christ Love; blessed Angels come and as you release your own heart flames' blessings to Life we command our minds our feelings open and receive the Great Miracle Presence of the Angels and the Ascended Host whose blessings we welcome into our lives that each of us may go forth a blessing to all life on Earth." Deep breath.

"And at this time Beloved Mother Akasha invites us to hold a higher vision for four to five individuals in your life, friends, family, and she asks each of us to bring to mind the names or images of those people in your life and know that we as one are holding a vision for continuously unfolding miracle-making moments in their lives. We as One are acknowledging God within their hearts. We're calling the Angels and the Ascended Ones to come and assist them. So together in the silence for the next moment bring to mind the names or images of four to five loved ones and know that we as a group all around the world are calling forth continuously unfolding miracle-making moments into their lives, and we are grateful to serve. And then, hold the silence in anticipation of our Beloved Akasha's Presence with us this day. Deep breath.

Akasha:

And let us take a deep breath together...and in the fullness of the Presence I AM I am with you beloved hearts. Akasha is here and greets you through the life stream of the messenger and I thank each of you for your presence here this day. May the Great Presence that abides within each of you, may the Great Presence that is growing and making each of you such a Golden Sun's Presence of Light to the world, may that Presence that abides within you be such a blessing to all your families to all your loved ones, and be a Presence that leaves its Light everywhere you walk upon this Earth. God bless you my dear hearts.

Well this Wednesday begins the first of our new Wednesday classes, and Asun and I will be with you in the first half of these classes and we are certain in holding that sacred space in which the second half of the Wednesday transmissions will be lively, will be experiential and will be hosted. I am truly grateful that in two weeks messenger number two will step forth and host the second part of the Wednesday evenings, and we know he has many things that are planned for you as he is over-lighted by us and others of the Ascended Host. And the later part of the Wednesday evening may include prayer calls, decrees, invocations, they may from time to time be a Wednesday evening releasing tremendous healing transmissions, they may be deep meditation to loosen more of the Great God Presence in you. Many of you have come to already experience messenger number two has an amazing way of taking you inside into the garden of your consciousness and taking you on amazing journey that becomes a wonderful manifestation of Love in your outer life, and so he has lots planned for you dear hearts. And of course the evening will complete with an Ascended Master guest who will come in for a closing message, and this evening and next week Usa, messenger number one will host the second part of the evening and then our Beloved Jayde messenger number two will take it from there. And, our special guest to close the evening is the world teacher the Mighty Kuthumi, so dear hearts I truly thank you for your presence.

This day also represents that we are beginning our autumn curriculum, our autumn classes with you. And I wish to take this moment to welcome you, after centuries and perhaps thousands of years of coming out of the great scattering that happened to the human in this world experience, after centuries of time you have awakened and I know that each of you may feel more or less the awakening yet I encourage each of you to know without any judgement against yourself that whether you are fully enlightened or partially awakened I say to you, you are awakened enough to begin the next great journey that I have been speaking of for two years and that is the journey of Resurrection, the journey of becoming your True Self I AM that you have discovered yourself to be in the great path of awakening, yes?

And so it feels only appropriate dear hearts that this day as we begin the autumn curriculum that you know me well enough that I feel it appropriate to review some of the fundamentals that came into your awareness in your great awakening yes, so that these fundamentals can deepen and expand within your consciousness so that as you take up the mantle of becoming the Great I AM that each of you are, you deepen the foundation which is so necessary for the great rising up, the resurrection into the Christ aspect of your I AM Presence on Earth.

So let us begin with a general review of the fundamentals yes? In that which is termed The Lost Knowledge or the Ascended Master Teachings, I first wish to extend my deep gratitude to the Mighty Saint Germain. You have heard us say that in the Ascended Masters' Octave we always give credit where credit is due and there would be no outer manifestation of the Ascended Master Teachings if it was not for the great brother, the Great Ascended Master Saint Germain the Violet Ray to the Earth, if he had not found a way in 1930, if he did not find an open door in America, then the opportunity to bring forth the lost knowledge would still only be available in the ancient mystery schools within the great Himalayan Valley, yes? So we just love and bless the Great Master Saint Germain. And I am truly grateful that my dispensation to the Earth continues to not only provide the dispensation of the Rose Pink Flames and Rays of Divine Love Will and Grace to the Earth, also to provide the continuing Ascended Master Teachings.

In your great awakening you discovered the great mystery behind the words, "I AM that I AM." You discovered a deeper meaning behind these words, you discovered that God's name is I AM, that this is the Infinite I AM that governs this universe from the centre of the universe that we refer to as the Great Central Sun. You also discovered that there is a kinder and gentler and more sane understanding of God, that the God that you find presented in the religions of the world is a God that has come under the spell, or rather the understanding that God has come under the spell the illusion the duality and that this is according to religion is presented as a figure that decides, determines whether you go to heaven or hell, and the Ascended Master Teachings reveal to all of you that that is all nonsense and that our beloved creator that is also a Heavenly Mother as much as a Heavenly Father are all Love, all Light and have never cast judgement upon that which is their children in all the trillions of systems of worlds that exist within our universe, they have never cast judgement on any of their intelligent life, yes?

And so, let us review again; I AM is the name of God, I AM is God in action, I AM is the means given to each of you to acknowledge your own existence and I AM is the way provided to you to draw forth into experience manifestation and evolution all that you desire and require by placing beyond those words "I AM" in thought, feeling, image, spoken word and action all that you wish to decree through Life, yes?

In this you understand that you and I, all of us, we are all individualizations of the Great Presence I AM, you've come to understand that I AM is the Infinite Creator and that you have your own I AM Presence that is your True Self that is the Individualized I AM. More recently in August of this year the opportunity came for myself to present to you the third aspect that completes the trinity behind those mystical words "I AM that I AM," that third aspect being the Impersonal I AM which is common to all life. It provides a greater understanding and when the experience comes, deep comprehension of what the Buddha refers to suggesting that God is everywhere, in all life, in a tree, a meadow, a blade of grass, a stone, in all atmosphere, throughout interstellar space there is the Impersonal I AM.

You have the understanding you are the thinking individualized consciousness I AM and this third aspect the Impersonal I AM is the love and intelligence within all Life that loves to respond; it is the Responding Consciousness and responds perfectly when the Intelligent I AM Consciousness that each of you are knows who you are and have begun to become who you are. Even in the awakened state you can say, "I AM that I AM, I AM an individualization of God Source, perfection, infinity, omniscience, omnipresence, omnipotence, this is all the nature, the God Nature of my Being." However the understanding is not sufficient to get the Impersonal I AM to respond perfectly to you.

You have completed the awakening to these great activities. Next must become that by your effort that intervention, that intervention where you begin to become the I AM that you have discovered yourself to be. In all the effort that you make to become the I AM that you've discovered you are, you begin to carry that Mighty Presence, that spiritual identity, you loosen that spiritual nature throughout your minds your hearts, you radiate Light and Love. And in your understanding of the greater powers of this universe that you can call forth from your own Presence, from Angels and Ascended Ones who have come to assist you in your path to freedom, have you discovered that you can draw forth the greatest powers in creation, the power that is behind every other power, the power that is behind all Sources of Light, all Sources of Love, the greatest power of creation that being the Sacred Fire. And you have discovered in your awakening how to draw the greater powers of creation, the Sacred Fire and its various activities in and around yourself.

And this next path that you've all come to walk, the big difference dear hearts is that you begin to generate, you begin to send forth these Greater Powers that you've all come to walk, the big difference dear hearts is that you begin to generate, you begin to send forth these Greater Powers that you are calling in and around yourself, you begin sending those Greater Powers out into all life around you, you begin sending those Greater Powers into every activity that you're involved in, your work places, your loved ones, your homes and all activities that you involve yourselves in.

And this is the huge difference; in the path of awakening you have discovered the existence of various activities of the Sacred Fire, the most important ones at this time being the Violet Flame that offers love mercy forgiveness purity peace and harmony, the Golden Flame that offers illumination into the mental and feeling side of Life, that Cosmic Christ Blue Flame that offers greater purity and greater protection when it is required, and finally my Rose Pink Flames of Divine Love Will and Grace. As you find acknowledgement understanding and make effort to draw the great powers of the Sacred Fire into yourselves you ready yourselves where your awakening is sufficient to then step onto the great path that is the Divine Plan that all of you and the Ascended Host through the Mighty Being from Venus, Sanat Kumarah and your Ascended Host have written for the raising of human kind and this Earth back into Divine Destiny fulfilled.

The great difference that is upon you now is that in your use, in your call to the Sacred Fire, as you draw that in and around yourselves, is to then take a moment and start sending the power of that Sacred Fire into everyone and everything that you make contact with. It is the gathering of the greatest powers of the universe in and around yourselves and now in the Path of Becoming it is the sending forth of those great powers into all conditions that you walk within that you live within that you work within.

It is this that loosens and expands the I AM Presence inside you. The more you are carrying more of the Presence of your Divinity in your physical body that we refer to as your physical garment, and you are releasing the I AM Presence and its Wisdom and Light through your mind, its Love, its Will through your heart and feelings, and the purity of the Violet Flame opens the way for transformation within your physical garments, it is here that each of you start carrying and expressing more of your Divinity, the Christ aspect of your I AM Presence Self.

As you come to experience this through prayer, through meditation, through active life, through relationship, then dear hearts it is in this experience of your Presence where you experience your own Presence your own Divinity, it is here dear hearts that the Impersonal I AM that which is the Responding Consciousness that is in all life, a tree, a flower, a stone, it is where that Responding Impersonal I AM Consciousness recognizes you, because you are becoming less of the human living by the spell of duality, and you are becoming more of the True I AM that you are. As you become more of your Presence the Impersonal I AM that is in every flower every tree recognizes you and this is where life becomes very interesting.

Dear hearts it may just amaze you that the Responding Impersonal I AM Consciousness that's within all Life it knows of its own existence, it knows of its own true nature more than you have known of your own true nature for more than twelve million years, because of the fall from Grace. Life, the Impersonal I AM, what the Buddha calls Spirit, God that is everywhere and all around you has always known that it is the Responding I AM Consciousness that is there; Life is everywhere just waiting to respond. But it cannot respond to you until you know that you are the Individualized I AM and have begun the journey of becoming that, experiencing this and radiating it, yes? And it is to this great journey that I am so grateful that you understand the fundamentals of this and that you have begun to realize.

There is much talk and there is much nonsense in the new age community and you know well dear heart we have never considered our activity part of the new age community because unfortunately like every other community there is that selfishness and darkness and those charlatans that get into those communities and present half-truths, and half-truths are very dangerous truths yes dear hearts? Do you understand?

And so it is I am so grateful to each of you that in your awakening this awakening included the knowledge of the Sacred Fire, for how there is much talk in our own great activity and there is much talk in the new age activity about the raising into Christ Consciousness yes? Yet how will you do this? Certainly a choice is required but what power, what power will you use? It's not going to happen abracadabra; there must be some power that you're going to use to raise yourself up and out of the limiting duality human consciousness into The Greater, yes? And the power that comes to you for your use is the power of the Sacred Fire, and so I am truly grateful dear hearts that you have come to know the Sacred Fire, that you will study it and enter into it.

So I will leave you now and open the way for Asun to be with you yet let me leave you making this call, and if you would like to make the call in your hearts quietly, then so be it;

“Beloved I AM that I AM thy Great Presence abides within me and I have come to embody your Presence on Earth. I am so grateful for the knowledge of the Sacred Fire and I recognize the effort and the free will I must make to draw that into my life. Therefore I call forth to you my own Beloved Presence to the Mighty Saint Germain, blaze up in through and around me the great purity the great healing frequencies, the Love Mercy and Forgiveness of the Violet Consuming Flames of Divine Love. Pass those Violet Flames through my mind, my feelings, my physical garment, into all the energy of my life and world. Silence dissolve and consume all discord, fear and doubt and the human consciousness of duality that has ever registered in my beings and world and replace all of it with the Ascended Masters' Cosmic Light Substance of Light Love Purity and Perfection, and hold your dominion my Beloved I AM within me now.

To the Ascended Jesus Christ I pour my love to you and I call upon you to project your Golden Flames of All Christ Illumination into my mental and feeling side of Life that releases the Cosmic Light that is so necessary at this time.

And through you my Beloved Presence I greet Akasha and I call upon Akasha to project your Rose Pink Flames of Divine Love Will and Grace into my feeling side of life to build that strong foundation of the Greater Love that is the fuel that raises me to my Resurrection.

And finally with my attention upon the Great Archangel Beloved Michael I thank you for your service and I call upon you Beloved Michael to enfold me in a wall of Cosmic Blue Flames as added protection until I am free in the Resurrection and the Ascension, and I thank you.”

And so it is dear hearts it is your prayer call to these beings who come to you to offer you the Sacred Fire that as you draw that in and around yourselves and build such a momentum of it, that it is you dear hearts who will be empowered to send these Sacred Flames into all conditions around you.

And what's the difference dear heart? When you send the Sacred Fire into all conditions around you, you are compelling those conditions to throw off duality and discord and open the way for perfection.

I AM Akasha and I thank each of you dear hearts and will open the way for Asun to greet you. I leave you in the fullness of Love's Eternal Presence; namaste beloved.

Asun:

God bless you our dear family, it is Asun, nice to be with you. God bless you. Well, I love this new format as long as Akasha doesn't go overtime too much, I should have a few moments to be with you and as I come to each of you I greet that Great Presence that abides within you.

Oh dear hearts don't wait until you know everything, just love to greet that Presence, a Golden Sun's Presence that abides within you and remember one of the first spiritual formulas that I brought forth into your attention, and that is, acknowledge, accept and invoke. This is the power that is yours when you discover the greater powers of the universe, when you discover the greater powers of your own Divine Presence, when you discover that there is a sleeping splendour that abides within you, all that you have to do if you choose to be free is to begin to acknowledge and accept The Greater and then with your attention upon The Greater invite it to come forth in you and through you and as you, yes? This is a very powerful spiritual formula dear hearts.

And I will also remind you this day that one of the greatest human resources that you have, you don't have to sit in a cave and meditate 30 years to loosen and activate this human resource you use it every day. And the mass of the people use it dangerously, carelessly and what might you think I'm speaking of? The power, yes, the power of your attention; let us remember the universal truth, "Where I place my attention there I AM. What I place my attention upon that I become." Add continuity, add momentum, you see how powerful your attention is dear hearts.

And so when you are asked when you make the effort to awaken and now you take the journey of Resurrection, the power of your attention and being vitaly and critically aware of what you're placing your attention upon becomes even more important at this time. And setting aside some time each day to enter into your spiritual protocol and your daily spiritual protocol is what you determine is required if, if, if you choose freedom, if you choose the Path of Resurrection, the Path of Becoming.

And I will qualify again when you hear an Ascended Being say you must do this or must do that, don't come after us because we've already qualified and shared with you the universal truth, there is no force no intelligence anywhere in this universe that can tell you what you do with your life; you are free will beings; use your life given to you constructively and the path of freedom opens to you; use the life you are given destructively and the path of karma can be crippling and one that creates great suffering, yes?

So when we say you've got to do this that and the other thing dear heart we've qualified already, if you want your freedom, if you desire to become your True Self on Earth, if you desire to loosen the powers of your Great God Being that have been a sleeping splendour for centuries of time, then here is what you must do, alright, have I qualified again? (Yes) God bless you dear hearts.

And of course one of the things that you must do and that is make sure you're setting aside some time each day pulling back from the demands of the outer world, entering into time of prayers and calls and meditations, placing your attention upon The Greater so that The Greater can come inside you and you can make the transformation and live a great path of freedom. This is your Spiritual Protocol and in the path of awakening you've discovered there is something much more dynamic than prayer to an abstract understanding of God. In the Ascended Master Teachings you have discovered there is a higher aspect of your True Self called the I AM Presence; on the one hand you have a Presence on the other hand you are that Presence, however, only living a fragment of that Presence because you all fell asleep to the Greater Truth of your Being, yes?

And so it is dear hearts as you awaken to the True Great God Nature, prayer for you becomes something much more dynamic. It's setting aside some time, it's talking to this Glorious Perfect Presence that is your true spiritual nature that abides within your heart and above you. Prayer is talking to your Presence, the Angels, the Ascended Host because you discover the greater power of your own life stream is held in the heart of your Presence an Angel or an Ascended Being, and it is only on your attention upon those Greater Powers that you're going to loosen into yourself and then begin expressing into your outer world that Greater Power.

And you discovered in your awakening that Light is the masculine side of Life, Light is the mind, Light is intelligence. You discovered Love is the feminine aspect of Life, it is the feeling, it is the heart, it is the Soul. You have also discovered that we do not respect the human condition because as Ascended Beings the human is a state of consciousness that has been covered by a veil, a belief in duality, a belief in two powers that has set aside your omniscient infinitely intelligent God nature.

Why would you continue to respect something that has limited you for millions of years and has set aside your all-knowing God nature? Why would you respect that? Do you think the Ascended Host respects the human? Not at all; we respect human beings who have forgotten who they are but we do not respect the human consciousness, the human condition, the duality, and you ought not to respect it either because the path of raising into your Christ Consciousness is the path of breaking the spell, finally, having the Sacred Fire clear the spell out of your consciousness, creating the bridge to your Higher Christ Mind and beginning to express that Light, opening all the chambers of your heart, cleansing the feeling side of all hurts and discord so that the 144 qualities of Divine Love in your feelings can begin to be fully active with everything that you are thinking.

Therefore dear hearts my presence with you today is to urge each of you to remind yourselves that you are leaving behind the consciousness of duality and you are availing yourself of the Christ Consciousness, and the Christ Consciousness knows only perfection, it knows only One Presence, One Power, One Intelligence that is a state of glory a state of grace a state of beauty, absolute power and perfection every single moment. This is the great consciousness that you have returned to live again upon this Earth, and that is why you set aside time each day to engage your spiritual nature, to let go, connect inwardly, embrace your Divinity, engage your spiritual nature so that more of it is loosened into full expression through your lives on Earth.

The time is short. Life will change dramatically upon this planet in the years ahead. No human being can be raised into their full Christ consciousness without Divine intervention. If you think you can do it you are fooling yourself, if you think you can be raised into your glorious Christ Beings as you were when you arrived on the Earth 14 ½ million years ago without the intervention without the hand of an Angel without turning to the Ascended Host who can project the greater powers into you so that you can use those greater powers; if you think that you are kidding yourself.

And this is why we are all here; we are not here to lead the way, you are here to lead the way, we are here only to assist. We do not provide you with spiritual path, you have all found and created your own spiritual path. We are here to offer you the great assistance from heights of creation, we are here to let you know of the Greater Light and Love that is all around you that you may make these things active in your life.

And so I Asun say to you we are truly looking forward to this schedule throughout the rest of this year, for this is a time in which we begin the great path of becoming, and as you gather the greater powers in and around yourself, as you begin to direct those powers into every condition that is in your outer lives, you will see that those conditions will give up their imperfections and transform into a state of perfection, and isn't that a great reflection dear hearts. (Applause) So God bless you.....well thank you, yes, it was my ascension anniversary only a moment ago. God bless you dear hearts in the fullness of the Presence I AM I am always with you. Namaste, namaste. (namaste)

We love and bless you Akasha and Asun, we are so grateful for your love and mentoring. Deep breath everyone.
