Freedom Class, Archangel Michael

Akasha: Integration and assimilation, you will find, will come with greater and greater ease the more you open, the more you unify. ... we wish you to be conscious ...and thank all of the blessed students who have opened their hearts to allow themselves to receive the blessings that come from many others of the Ascended Host; and we greet all of you students around the world.

We are asking all of you to consider yourselves no longer children of earth, no longer children of Light, We consider you Divine Beings Becoming and wholly unified now and able to use the seven garments...of your life being on earth; those being your mind and heart, soul and spirit, vision, feelings and body. And may you hold all of those open. May you open now the seven sacred expressions; the seven sacred bodies or garments of your being to receive the piercing Cosmic Blue Flame of Archangel Michael. I ask you to also know and recognize that He is the first amongst Archangels.Archangel Michael has the authority of the second, third, all the way to the thirteenth...for every other ray, including dear heart the crystal - the crystal platinum ray... Perhaps you will come to realize...how powerful a force it is when you combine the crystal platinum flame and ray and you project a laser like blue ray through the crystal ray...what can be accomplished!The properties of the crystal ray loving and supporting the blue laser-like beam within allows a delivery of cosmic activities that can cause all the major primary and secondary electronic centers of your bodies to be assisted here today. ...if you are willing to receive a tune up...to fire up, so to speak the electron, to quicken the electron within each of the primary and secondary areas of your body, in the seven major centers of your physical body, yes? Indeed.

There are seven electrons, seven major centers within each of your seven garments. Ah dear hearts when you light up! When you light up and all the wiring is reconnected again you will be able to see why it is that the further along the path; the ease and the grace and the seamlessness of assimilation and integration takes place. All that you might speculate as the most difficult and the hardest is really all in the past now.

I will step aside and I thank each of you for your presence here today. And know, always that I seek to enfold each of you in the Rose Pink Flame of my Love, Will and Grace. And the more you accept it, the more you remember it, the more you use the authority that I require to intensify my love, my will and my grace around each of you. And God Bless you my dear hearts.

Archangel Michael

I AM Michael and grateful to come to you in service today. It is that I may offer you what I have asked myself may most prepare you and support you in what you have now clearly come to understand and I trust accept that you are in whole new beginnings in your world. And the gift that I come to offer each of you is the Spirit of Adventure! And I feel that it is a gift. As it is realized into the seven sacred centers of your earthly garment, I trust that the Spirit of Adventure will be realized as a feeling that is growing, as a sense of anticipation of all that is coming that is your future. That your days may be thought of, as every day, as Christ mass day, every day more gifts unfolding, every day greater and higher and more constructive use of the seven garments of your earth life, as Nada and Mother Akasha have invoked into your knowing recently. And I offer you my Spirit of Adventure. I hope that you will accept it and that you will contemplate it, for contemplation is the active use of your internal being that allows all that you contemplate upon to find, through realization, the reality of said contemplation into manifest experience and form itself. This is my first gift that I offer you today.

I am very well aware that the mass consciousness, through times of dire situations, are aware in some small way of the existence of the Angelic Host. It helps yet it is not sufficient... yet...acceptance does not come with a lively comprehension. It does not come with a lively knowledge of our existence and it does not come therefore with a lively cooperation and a lively invitation by humanity for our Legions of the Angelic Host to walk consciously and visibly with humankind.

As I come to you today, I wish you to increase your acceptance that there are, stepping onto the outer world, whole Legions of the Angelic Host, who are and who can make you a Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame that each and every one of them are to humanity. There are ever-present dangers that yet exist in the outer world. In one way it is like walking in a minefield. And you who have won your achievements thus far must, who are yet in your own honesty, prone to have a human moment once in a while I'm sure, you must concede, if you want to continue the great achievements that you have already accomplished, to hold within yourself the necessity that the Legions of the Angelic Host who are the guarding presence of humanity, be allowed to form such a Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of Angelic Protection around each of you. Will you consider this?

A certain quality of the sacred fire already exists in your lower atmosphere, but human beings don't know how to activate that. And until you have become proficient in using and directing great light rays out of your own threefold flame, then even yourselves are not proficient in activating the sacred fire that has been placed in your lower atmosphere by my Angelic Host. Yet it is there. And it's because the sacred fire is everywhere in your lower atmosphere, because it already exists; if the Angelic Host whose numbers are increasing every single day can be made to create a Sun's Presence of their Guarding Love to Life around you, then this does become a dome of Golden Radiant Light. And when that has been created around your forms, that dome of light is instant access to the sacred fire that is in your lower atmosphere. And if you were in a wrong place at a wrong time, and if you were to be attacked; if you had a Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of Angelic Protection around you and if you came under attack, that Sun's Presence of the Angel's Guarding Love would immediately cause the sacred fire that already exists in the lower atmosphere to instantly flash the moment trouble was seeking to come at you. And I assure you that the sacred fire in a Golden Sun's Presence can flash much quicker than any destructive activity that tries to direct itself at you, whether it be a person or whether it be a weapon makes absolutely no difference to us, to the Sun's Presence and the Sacred Fire.

Now, you can have this. There is a relationship between the great cosmic light that forms as a Mighty Focus of a Sun's Presence to the existence of the Sacred Fire. A Glorious Sun's Presence has instant access to Sacred Fire and that's why it's important for you to have this Glorious Golden Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of Angelic Host around you. It's free, it's there, you must make the call. And you must accept that we have weapons in our Cosmic Christ arsenal the world has not even seen. An angel's arsenal of weapons can undo any weapon including a nuclear weapon. Yet we must have more authority. You have heard countless and countless times, because the need for you to hear it was obviously there, that you are the authority in your world and our presence and our authority and our gifts must be desired by you, must be invited by you. And it is probably a good thing for a little while longer that the lower nature of the optic nerve does not allow you to visibly see these great gifts of Sacred Fire Power that can flash the moment something destructive is coming towards you and create a barrier that is impenetrable, as if that moving bullet or knife or person came right up against a steel impenetrable wall. Such is the force of the Cosmic Sacred Fire Power when it flashes.

Now, in order for a flame to flash, then there must be what is referred to as the all-Christ Lightning which is the flashing activity of the Cosmic Blue Flame. Therefore there must be a group of angels that are capable of creating these Cosmic Activities. You already know they exist. I come to remind you of those legions of the angelics that represent the Cosmic Christ Blue Lightning that can flash in an instant all the protection you should ever require. As you make these your friends, most importantly as you take it into your consciousness that such cosmic activities exist, then your own consciousness interfacing with the Sun's Presence that has been formed around the upper half of your earthly garments; as that interfaces with the Sacred Fire that is everywhere now, will cause that Sacred Fire to flash in an instant and give you the protection that is required, not only from destructive individuals, but protection from nature when nature is compelled by human beings to seem to take on a destructive element. You have got to have the protection.

You of the light, you of the family of Sacred Fire Presence, you are amongst nine organizations in the world of a spiritual nature whose progress is measured greater than we thought possible at this time. You have already heard this. Now I'm going to tell you why I say this again. Because those spiritual groups around the world who do not believe that they need the Sacred Fire, they have gone as far as they will go. And they will go no further in their advancement. How can they possibly go any further if they are not releasing any activity that can purify their history, purify their bodies and harmoniously raise their bodies to take residence of what naturally becomes the incoming Christ Consciousness. It's just not possible! So those ones will stay where they are until they have realized that they are no longer advancing spiritually. When they ask you, say to them, you turned down the Sacred Fire! You can say with love and kindness, it's never too late to take up the Great Holy Flame.

The more you use our flames, the more your inner flame jumps with joy and the more your own inner flame grows and grows and grows and begins to form the Golden Sun's Presence that you see in St. Germain's Chart, around the upper half of the human garment. Now, also to realize that when you have, as that is demonstrated in the Chart, the upper half of the body in a Golden Sun's Presence, then you too access the Sacred Fire wherever it is. Clearly it is not there – when your Golden Suns Presence of your own heart’s flame is around you, you will see it! Because it must pass through the seven sacred bodies of your being and since vision is one of your bodies, it must pass through that and raise it. You are advised today that the time will come sooner, and you might as well get used to it, you might as well prepare yourself for it and you might as well start thinking about what you’re going to say and what you’re going to do and how you’re going to be careful because sooner rather than later you will see the light. You will see people’s auras. You will see the radiance of heart flames. And you’re going to have to get accustomed to it. This is very sacred activity; very sacred activity. And you will walk amongst hundreds and millions who do not see. And that’s going to make a difference.

Every day there are 28 new Legions (of 144,000 angels) coming onto the earth, and it’s not enough yet. And every week I appear before the Great Council of Karma in Saturn and appeal that the numbers increase. And my dear hearts, we reveal to these great beings the increasing love, the increasing light that is taking place in all of you and millions like you around the world who know of the Presence, who know of the Sacred Fire, who know Angelic and Ascended and Cosmic Beings exist. It’s like going to a bank, and like asking for a bigger mortgage, going back the next week and asking for more and more, and they say to us, just like your banker would say to you ‘Where’s the collateral, show us the collateral.’ And we show them the light that’s in your hearts. We show them the effort that you’re making to live a good life, an upward life. We show them that your love of our God that created all of us is growing. We show them your faith in the light. And we get a pay cheque. And we use that to increase the numbers of Legions that are stepping onto the earth, every one of them compelled, compelled, to carry a shield of invisibility around them. And I say what a shame! Not a shame for me, what a shame for the human race that so much energy – a shield of invisibility is energy – and that energy could have been used in other places for the advancement, the ascension of this glorious planet. Have you thought about that? So there is just so much to consider, that we are watching over for the protection of the planet, the protection of human beings when we can, the protection of the Divine Plan. (01 09:01) ...

The Divine Plan is constantly being adjusted. And that in itself takes, dear heart, 144 legions of 144,000 angels to watch over the Divine Plan as instituted, as unfolding and as you came forth and the last of the advanced souls who are destined to come in the next 27 months, completing the arrival of all advanced souls onto the earth. So have I offered you an idea, have I offered you a feeling that there is just a myriad, a myriad of activities that the angelic and ascended host are up to for the protection, for the general welfare of humanity and the earth. These angels that are stepping in are stepping in for the protection of humanity and to cause the numbers who wish to destroy humanity to diminish every day. What about the forces of the Deva? What about the forces of Angelics who pertain to planetary worlds, whose love of nature, whose love of the elements and whose love of intelligent life within a planet come to groom a planet and ready her for her continued evolution and ascension?

Our work is what we love to do. I only wish to increase your awareness that the forces of the Angelic Host, whether it seems so or otherwise, are increasing greatly every few days on this earth. And I just do not know why the entire human race does not sense them. There must be some stubbornness to the human spirit, not to see, not to sense, not to feel our presence and the numbers of angelics that are walking in the outer world. That just goes to show, if you don't want to see, then you won't. And you don't have to see anything you don't want to see.

Akasha has invoked the presence of honour. She has requested within you a desire for one hour of honesty in allowing yourself to know that you are a God-Being and allowing every web of deceit to be caused to erase. "It is not true that there exists that which could oppose love, I am love." It takes a lot of honesty to realize 'I am not a limited being, I am a God-Being ordained of the greatest and highest and I am willing to be as I am, as I always was and will be for eternity.'

And so, there are many of us. There are hundreds of millions of angels walking in the outer world today and if you will just love to be held, you desire, you want it, you command it, that in your recognition that the angelics are everywhere now. They are everywhere. I want to make this irresistible to you. What can you do to make yourself not forget that the work of the Angelic Host, the work of the Seven Mighty Elohim and that which is the original work in creating this world produced enough, and continues to produce enough Sacred Fire that's everywhere in your atmosphere lower or higher, what can you do to remember that? That's up to you to answer that.

And secondly, to realize even the Sacred Fire that's all around you is not available to you unless you get a Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of the Angelic Host around you. And you have hundreds of millions of angels who are willing to answer the call. You know we will not protect anything that is not constructive. And you who try to live constructive lives, you who embrace Love, Mercy and Forgiveness of the Violet Flame so there is no excuse for you not to give yourself this gift. Have I convinced you today of how important it is and how available to each of you if you ask for it? Bless the angels, and then call forth the angels to build a Glorious Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of the Angelic Host around you so that you have that constant insulation from destructive forces, that constant protection from destructive individuals, the constant protection and even the lifting ability if you find yourself in impending danger. It is yours for the asking. Your inner lights are magnificent, no angel will turn you down. Yet even our Cosmic Activity wanes, because it's coming into your world, not our world. So even a Sun's Presence that could be built up around you, if you do not give it your attention tomorrow and the day after, it will lessen and lessen it's impact. That's why you keep the call up once a day, demanding, after you send your love to the angelics, that you be lovingly held in the Sun's Presence of the Guarding Flame of the Angelics' Protection. It's not so difficult is it? It's one of those things that you keep the call up so that you keep it in your consciousness. And then the angels will do the rest. And then you are free from any destruction. You are free from the forces of terror and murder and crime and hatred that are yet unleashing themselves in this world. And most importantly you are safe for when the hour of the final cleanse comes and takes place on earth. If you wish to survive the hour of cleanse that comes.

You've got jobs to do, lives to live, much to accomplish. Go on about your lives, thrilled about the resurrection, thrilled about the great new civilization that is coming, but walk this world a wise individual. You know that you walk in a world of ever-present danger and because of it you don't assume, ever – a conscious being never assumes! A conscious being knows, because he or she has already set into motion what s/he knows. And if you call forth to the angelics every day to enfold you in a Sun's Presence of our Guarding Flame of our Angelic Presence then you know, and there is no reason for you to assume, that you have that protection around you!

You have gained much and we do not want any of you to be caught in a moment. If you still think that with all the advancements you have made and the wonderful glorious journey that Akasha and Asun do everything in their power to help you look forward to, if you think it's okay to go a day without taking thirty seconds and through your Presence to send love and gratitude to the angels and call upon them to enfold a Glorious Sun's Presence of their Guarding Flame of Angelic Protection around you, well all I can say is you're wiser than me, and God speed in the light of the Eternal One. In the Holy Blue Flame I am Michael, always yours, always available, always instantly with you by your call, even though you yet question and doubt it. I am always there when you ask me to be there.
