

Jesus Christ Emanuel speaks at the opening of the Ascending Hearts Conclave 2010

This document is a transcription of an original audio file.

© Radiant Rose Academy Inc.

Beloved Family of Life, I AM Emanuel and as I return to you in your conclave gathering does the Christ I AM, greet the Christ I AM within each of you that is no longer bound by the chains of all that has occurred on your planet. 80 years have passed since the Sacred Violet Seal of your planet had been opened by my father, the one who was Joseph in my time, the Mighty Saint Germain.

In the unfolding preparations of the Divine Plan, 37,000 years have passed since the Great Mother's Presence from the Central Sun came on to your planet and into your world, hidden away from the mass of the people in the ancient lands of Delphi where she, our Beloved Akasha, began to fan the Magnet's Presence of the Mother's Love through the first biological heart that she took on in her embodiment in Delphi. And by that great magnetic love were those of you counted upon, those of you who have felt the absence of the Mother's Love, as the deepest sorrow of your beings, and knew to ready yourselves for her coming. And when she came to Delphi 37,000 years ago did you come and did you come in those embodiments to greet the Mother's Presence that for centuries of time to follow, would yet be denied amongst human kind, a Presence so buried and so deepened with the human heart, the absence of that Love creating a void within human consciousness and the scattering of the Light of your Beings.

As I Emanuel greet you, and perhaps you have heard that I have entered onto your world and have taken residence in my ancient retreat in Arabia where I am meeting with others and the Higher Mental Bodies, the Christed Selves of each of you in the great preparations that are to unfold.

Tens of thousands of years, seven of them, seven tens of thousands of years have passed since the Prince of Venus, the Mighty Sanat Kumara had come to me in my own system of worlds and had shown me what was occurring upon this Earth and called me to serve, to respond and I said "Yes." And in the time line that has been re-evaluated and adjusted due to delays, you are now only a small matter of time in which great windows of paradise open between your world and the Ascended Realms, and those who will inhale the Great Sunshine of the Eternal Heavens will be those who have awakened and begun the great path of Divine Restoration and Resurrection for humanity and the Earth.

When I came amongst you some 2000 years ago like others who came to answer the call, did we set aside our Ascended Souls and did we agree to take on the human soul and the human experience and allow the forgetfulness to come over ourselves, for if we were to be of any service to you, we had to become like those who seemed in a dream to have fallen from Grace.

Some of you have now heard a different version of the events of my life as Jeshu ben Joseph and have come to understand that it was the Great Avatar from the Central Sun, the Mighty Lord Maitreya that came to my parents Mary and Joseph when I was 12 years old. And of course it was the Great Archangel Gabriel who came to my grandmother Anna and the one who would be my Earth mother, Mary, and prepared them to start receiving the greater love that our beloved Akasha would pour to them from the Great Central Sun where she had returned after Her ascension of serving and being amongst you in that time period of Delphi.

I am so grateful that you have awakened, I am so grateful that you understand today the greater powers, the greater resources that are here for each of you to use and those precious moments each day in which you value your attention and through your prayers, your calls, your meditations, do you place your attention upon the Great God Presence Individualized that has remained hidden within your hearts, that Presence for a long time honouring the free will of the human to experience itself as separate from God.

In an unsightly dream of such darkness in which in the capacity as Creator Beings, you infused your physical realities, your physical garments, with that dream of separation and darkness, and from this you have awakened. And yet, I come to you the revelation, for you, you have come to understand the perception that Christians have made in personalizing The Christ. And I hope you have come to understand dear hearts that in my journey onto your planet, the service that I gave in taking on the Soul named ben Joseph, Jeshu, that you have the understanding today, that in my sacred hour of Gethsemane when my first journey of resurrection was complete, when my journey of becoming that I graduated... for in my service, two resurrections occurred, and in that moment of Gethsemane where it is recorded that the Roman soldiers seized my embodiment, it is that each of you are called to know and understand that Jeshu ben Joseph the Rabi, no longer existed. It was in that moment that the little self had disappeared and in all my training, as you are being trained in the wonderful activity of the Sacred Fire and those Ascended and Angelic Beings, did my service to life culminate in that transfiguration in which that little sense of self, that Jeshu raised by Mary and Joseph, that Jeshu called through India, Tibet, into the heart of the Himalayan mountain range where a secret and ancient order of Ascended Beings began to disclose to me the Great God Presence that abides within every human, disappeared.

I say to you that self, Jeshu ben Joseph who went off to school, who studied in the Himalayas, greeted the Ascended Ones, discovered the Sacred Fire, compelled to love God more than the things that little 12 and 15 year old boys would love. I say to you, that was my first resurrection completed in Gethsemane. What Christians do not understand, is that Jeshu ben Joseph was not seized in the garden of Gethsemane, God was seized in the garden of Gethsemane, and this only because it was allowed to happen. For my hour of transmutation, transformation and the transfiguration, the only thing yet not complete, saved for the day that I would pass through the tomb, was my transfiguration into the seamless garment.

That is the only aspect of my first resurrection that was not complete, yet I say to you that being who was seized was not Jeshu ben Joseph, that being that was seized was an Individualized Being just like you who had offered a service to love the world, and to begin the great journey of loving this world free of the darkness that has been. Jeshu ben Joseph had disappeared. Jeshu was transformed into the Glorious Christ Being hidden deep within the heart and now had become the Divine personality, and such is your destiny. Yet I will say, those who knew me back then, knew I yet had personality and great and charismatic personality.

In the Himalayas my teacher the Great Maitreya taught me how to love. Maitreya would come into my room unannounced and say to me, "Jeshu you do not love that which I have revealed is hidden in your heart; you will not eat for three days. If I must make you love God then I will make you love God." Ah, there was discipline my dear hearts.

Yet I want dear hearts, it is the great desire in my heart this weekend to accomplish much. My greatest challenge in the Himalayan valley which I did not achieve until my 18th year in the garment, already in the Himalaya mystery schools for some six years, six years! And in the hands of such great Ascended Beings, was my initiation I was to face in my 18th year. I was faced to come to understand that even though I had come to love God and acknowledge God as the Life within my heart, Maitreya came to me seventeen years six months, and said to me, "You yet betray him." "Betray who do you say great teacher?" "You betray the Great God Presence." "Such nonsense," I would claim, "I am your finest of students." Maitreya would say, "I see you are still hiding. You come before God in your mind but what comes before God is nothing more than the reflection that you see in a mirror device. You are still hiding, and somewhere between 1500 and 2500 years you will stand before the people of this world and you will say to them, 'Stop hiding from God.'"

And it is here that Maitreya gave me the great understanding of the deep inner meaning, the meaning in many of the metaphors of that story of Adam and Eve, and helped me to understand that when it is suggested that Adam and Eve discovered they were naked and covered themselves, rushed to cover themselves over, I came to understand the deeper meaning in which they understood that nakedness. Change the word dear hearts, innocence. When they discovered their innocence and thought they had compromised themselves by infusing their spirit into form by eating the apple and thinking they had compromised themselves, they sought to cover over and tried to protect their nakedness, their innocence. They knew the jewel of their life was the innocence that Mother/Father had created, and thinking as perception was born, thinking they had compromised themselves in the change that had come over them; a moment previous celestial, angelic, and a moment later feeling the flesh and the physical body, feeling the structure the biological forms that had been provided to them, when only a moment previous did they feel disconnected from their bodies and all connected to God, Angels and all that is heavenly. And when God came,

"Hmm two million years have passed; you are like when I first made you, you are very etheric, very celestial. I did not make you in the order of Angels. Why do you hold yourself back? You are in these physical bodies but I see these cells are void of your Spirit, your Presence. So enough!"

And did the Great I AM breathe its Presence into the cells of their biological forms. The enormity of that moment is one in which a seeming error occurred, and those ones perceived in feeling their flesh, in feeling their physical garments in a way they had never felt them before, and in that almost same moment overwhelmed by the sensations, I am sure some of the sensations you have had in your physical garments have overwhelmed you. And being so overwhelmed did a seeming error come about in their consciousness that they had somehow separated themselves from Source and an urgency to cover themselves over, to protect their innocence. Yet no disconnect was made, it was only a wrong idea. And then it is said when God came that Adam and Eve went and hid and shame and guilt was set into their consciousness.

And I say to you, this is the first veil. I say to you even though you have found some strength and illumination and you have re-discovered in your awakening your Great God Nature, I say to you when you pray, when you meditate, when you call to that Presence, when you consider what I know is the full stature of your God Being, then I say to you, the you that shows up and meets God in your heart, the you that shows up and meditates upon the Presence is not any greater than the reflection that looks back at you in the mirror, and it is because the first veil still exists in your consciousness.

You are still hiding from God. Perhaps you think that Emanuel is being hard on you. In the surface of your mind, you may think you have faced God, processed your emotions, processed your feelings of unworthiness, yet I ask that you would trust Emanuel here because I know deep in the core of your being that you are still hiding, you are hiding from the Glory of the Father and the Grace of the Mother, you are hiding behind the bushes. Oh yes, you're peering out, you're looking, you're trying to find your strength. But I say to you my children, you must come out from behind the bush, those moments when you feel less-than. You ought to be perfectly capable dear heart of making a mistake, after all that's generally the way things happen down here, you should be quite accustomed to making a mistake without generating guilt and shame about it, yes?

So where does that come from? You're still hiding; you are still hiding from God, thinking you have done something wrong. You didn't do anything wrong, it was a dream dear heart. But you are Creator Beings and you have the power to make your dreams your reality that feeds back into your experience. You are your own validators of consequences that you set into motion by all you perceive. Will you conceive this weekend that you can stop hiding, that you will come out from behind the bush, you will stand before the Glory of God and no longer hide yourself and claim your innocence? (Yes!) Then we will accomplish much to get you upon this great path of Resurrection. (Cheers and applause) Indeed!

And so now I say to you, you are safe, you are amongst your own. Do not go out into the street to preach, you don't want to have happen to you what happened to Emanuel, that is not your higher purpose, yet you are safe here beloved. And so its time to start practicing, start practicing, come out from behind the bush and stand before the Glory of God and say to that Presence,

"I hide not from you, I don't have the ability to change that which you made me, I come before you in the innocence of the I AM that I AM."

And you do not have to wait because I say to you, any one of you right now in the next moment could stand and greet the Glory of God that abides in the heart, right now could stand, yes, right now! You could stand and face someone and you could say, I've said enough words, you know the intention, you could stand and face the individual and you could talk to that person as if they were God Almighty, because you know they are the individualization of God and you could stand and look in someone's eyes and say,

"I don't hide from you God any more, I stand before your Glory and I stand in my innocence and I greet you and I'm not hiding anymore and I AM worthy."

Now do this dear hearts. Greet each other, stand before the Glory, and recognize God in the other. God bless you dear son, it is in this and I will be here all throughout this weekend and I know Mother Akasha will stay with this. But this is the last veil and it's the toughest one. But I will hold your hand, I will be the Light and Mother Akasha will be the Love and Saint Germain will be the Sacred Fire, and together we can do this. The only human beings who have pierced this veil are those who ascended in the Himalaya Valleys and I say the numbers are not great. (We will do it!!!) Then do it! (Applause) And I will be with you this weekend dear hearts. And dear hearts if you can just start saying this to yourself and when you're in the company of Light-hearted, like minded, when you're in the company of your own just find a way of saying,

"I'm not hiding any more. I claim the innocence that Mother/Father made me and I'm not hiding from God anymore."

This will be the beginning of great work, great activity we will accomplish in your Ascending Hearts Conclave. (Applause) Shalom, Namaste. Peace be with you dear hearts. This is my first gift, I have more!

*