And the Great Heart of each one here continues to beat its great pulsating rhythmic Love unto Life, and your heart that I commune with precious ones, is a heart that knows my Presence, Harmony. As I greet you this day through messenger number two it is with great delight in my Ascended Master Realm, for I am in the fifth dimension with the Great Goddess of Harmony; there do we work together to pour from our Great Ascended Master Temple upon the etheric belt around your Physical Sun our Great Harmony that the people of Earth and the great blessings of the powers of nature and the forces of the elements may come together once again and live in the greater harmony that existed in the first two Golden Ages upon this planet Earth.

Dear ones as I open with you, I ask each of you, for I will begin that which the Goddess of Harmony will finish when she comes to you this afternoon after I have been with you, and that is to weave my harmony that is my Ascended Master's Gift to Life through your feeling side of life now. Just visualize Great Green and Pink Light Rays of Harmony beginning to pour through messenger number two as I am standing directly above his life stream, and pouring forth those Great Light Rays of Harmony and the Goddess of Harmony will pour the Love Rays of Harmony, and they will culminate together sealing thee in the fullness of the Light and Love of the Great Harmony that we are.

Your power of visualization will greatly assist me in what I am achieving and striving to accomplish within each of you, for the great path of Resurrection that you are beginning to live is one that will demand of you the great harmony of life in your mental body, in your feeling body and in your physical garments. The atmosphere around you cannot be charged with enough harmony precious ones. I invite you this very moment to see in your heart, the golden letters that form the word "Harmony." Visualize and do your best to see the light of the golden letters "Harmony" that that radiance of the Sun that I am pouring forth to each of you may be absorbed deep within your cells. Because this will show and prove to you the power that you have as Creator Beings to focus with your attention upon anything that you choose to focus upon and become One with that stream of energy, for I say to you when you step into a great stream of energy regardless of what is pouring forth through that stream, be it constructive or destructive, you are connecting yourselves to it.

Just the simplicity of this; follow me as you imagine stepping into a river of water that is flowing through you, are you dear ones taking on the qualities of that stream of water that you have stepped into. If it is polluted, the pollution, the vibration, the energy is being absorbed into yourselves. If it is a river that has been untouched by the impurities of human kind's selfishness and discord then you will absorb that purity into yourselves. Your clothing gets wet, your physical garments get wet, your pores absorb that water in the stream and the qualities that there abide within. Do you follow?

So this you take and you use to your benefit, to your great assistance that as you walk this journey, you are great in your conscious awareness of the streams of energy that you are connecting yourself to, for it is said that when you connect with your I AM Presence you are opening the door for your Blessed I AM Presence to release into yourselves and into your life its almighty blessings and gifts that you may be the miracle of your own blessed I AM on Earth.

Now I wish to expand my voice and this collar is quite tight. There, that is much better. Harmony enjoys a relaxed fit. (Laughter-applause) and dear ones I say to you this is of great importance as well, that you do dress yourselves with garments, adorn your physical garments, your bodies, with garments that are a feeling of lightness and ease and comfort that support the environment of your own physicality, that allow you to feel good in your physical bodies. Precious ones this is very important because the more comfortable, the more relaxed you are, the more easy it is for you to embody your own Presence and to go forth and to shine your Light and your Love and live your Divine Purpose on Earth in life with no interference.

I say to you that I offer my gift of Harmony, the Cosmic Harmony of the I AM Miracle Music of the Higher Spheres, for you have often related harmony with music, yet I say to you that Harmony is the perfection of the Presence and in your acceptance of that Presence, the Great Harmony of your Beloved I AM becomes the foundation of everything that you seek to achieve, to create, to build in your lives.

Now I say that there is music in the higher spheres that the human ear has not yet heard, there is music that is the harmony of life that sees to it that all the planets in your solar system, the physical sun that these planets revolve around, it is this Music of the Higher Spheres that maintains and sustains the perfect Divine Pattern that all planets travel upon. And so it is that each of you as Creator Beings have the ability to call to your I AM Presence, to call to myself and to the Angels of the Music of the Higher spheres to release the harmony of the I AM Miracle Music of the Spheres into your lives that upon your Resurrection your own inner and outer hearing will be raised to hear those Sacred Sounds, a place of ecstasy supreme where you in any moment are out and about, or in your own living quarters and you simply connect with the great Unfed Flame in your heart and you say, with all sincerity, with authenticity and a genuine yearning and desire to hear and to experience the harmony of the I AM Miracle Music of the Spheres in your life. And you build a momentum of this, you are consistent, you are constant and continuous in your effort and you have a knowingness in yourself that "If I do what the Master has come and offered me I know that it is the law that it must come to me and I will experience it."

And I say to you dear ones this is the truth, it is the truth! Accept this and you will do yourselves a great favour. Set aside that doubt, set aside that fear into the Sacred Fires of Immortal Purity and empty yourselves of the ridiculous nonsense of the human and become that empty crystal cup that opens wide to receive The Greater, the perfection of Life, for in this place that you move unto quickly and rapidly, and with ease and grace as Akasha pours her Love upon your path, I say in all the fullness of the God Harmony that I AM you will hear and you will see manifestations of this Great Music of the Spheres that is the pure harmony that uplifts and raises all life.

There are music works that have come in times past that yet are listened to by many and are continuously being played throughout the world; great orchestras, great symphonies of those Great Renaissance Masters who through Divine Intervention had the way to their Soul opened. And I see many in this room who have listened to some of these works of great composers of the past and I can see the tears that have flowed from your eyes when you have connected with this music, because it goes beyond any human perception, it goes way beyond that and deep into the Soul of the Mother. And it is from that Soul of the Mother's Presence that that music was composed from; the mind was completely out of the way and the heart was in charge the entire way.

These composers' minds were silenced, opening the channel that the Love could flow through and the genius of these works brought forth. Many of these amazing pieces of music have survived and many have been destroyed by acts of the sinister force. So I say with all the Love of the God I AM that may you treasure those works that have been protected by the Ascended Ones and may you now yourselves open to the love of your own Soul that the music that wishes to come forth through each of you may find its expression whether that be through poetry, through writing, through songs, or singing beloved ones. It can come in many forms, many ways, many shapes.

Remember as Creator Beings what you can conceive you can achieve, do not limit yourselves to the power that you have to create. Do not allow the outer world to say to you that you cannot do something that you know is wholly good and constructive because we will be at your side and stand your ground with you if you are willing to stand your own ground in the fullness of your Mighty I AM Presence.

Now, Consciousness; there have been many discourses on consciousness yet have you considered that consciousness without the power of attention that you have as Creator Beings, could be static and still? It is through the power of your attention that consciousness moves freely flowing throughout the entire universe, that if you desired to connect with something across the entire universe you have the power to do it. By what? Through the use of your attention.

Follow me closely that you may use this as this path of Resurrection comes upon you. You will treasure the power of your attention, and you will use your attention to bring about the quickening of your own Resurrection and perhaps the visible tangible Presence of ourselves and the Angels and the Elemental Beings, and see the Great Rhythmic Waves of the Music of the Higher Spheres that flows throughout creation and your atmosphere. And into the powers of nature does this great Music of the Great Higher Spheres flow with ease and grace yet go unacknowledged by the mass of human kind, awaiting those such as yourselves to reveal unto them what they can do, and how the higher music can heal any appearance or condition, music that in hearing can assist you in releasing everything that you have taken on in your life that is of limitation.

Oh Beloved Ones when I came through in the beginning of this transmission I took the opportunity with your Higher Mental Bodies to unleash and release the great song in your hearts, because I say to you that there are moments where you can be perfectly still and your heart sings; the Light in your heart sings, the Love in your heart sings, and you have your mouth closed yet you feel it and those around you can feel it. It is my great desire that each of you in your lives can be out in the world doing what you love doing, and those of the mass will come up to you and ask you “How do you do it? How can you be in such a place of harmony, such a state of peace and relaxation and confidence amidst all this chaos? How do you do it?” How will you respond beloved hearts, because the Great I AM in those moments will speak through you and respond perfectly I assure you.

No in-harmony in the outer world can ever connect with you if you do not give it your attention. Many people blame others when they become disturbed and thrown out of balance, when in reality it is that one who is blaming others, whose fault it is, because you are Master of your own Self and you cannot when you are willing and being obedient to thine own Self, you cannot be disturbed, you cannot be thrown out of balance and you cannot be taken into any place of disharmony dear ones. So I urge you to own this and to take the responsibility upon yourselves to say that, “I am not going to allow myself to be distracted, disturbed or thrown off by someone in the masses who are prancing about and acting their insane egos and all the discord and nonsense that they have become. I am larger than Life and I know this to be true and so I am exercising the power that is the privilege of my own.”

This dear ones I feel will be a great gift that you can give to yourselves in proving to yourself that you are truly the Master over all creation for if the door was open and it was granted in this instant that myself and those Great Cosmic Beings who direct the Sacred Fires and the Harmony of the Music of the Higher Spheres were allowed by the Cosmic Law to release that this very instant, then I say to you all discord and imperfection that has been miss-created by humankind would cease to exist this instant. (Applause) But that is not the case dear ones and it is why we lean on you and ask you to lean on us.

And so I leave you with the blessing of my own Soul’s Gift to Life that you may bathe and bask in the Great Harmony of Life and you will walk your path of Resurrection in the fullness of that Harmony and blaze that Harmony unto all Life that nothing can touch you and those you love. (Applause) Thank you dear ones; I will take this energy up and amplify it with your Mother Akasha.

And I finish with this, that as you lean upon your heart, upon your Presence and upon those of us in the Ascended Master Realms, I ask you do not forget the Great Central Sun that you all come from, remember your home of homes, remember the Infinite I AM Mother and Father that gave us all Life. Remember them always; I commend you to that precious hearts. And I will be with you in continuing to weave my Rays of Harmony of the Great Light that I AM and the precious Goddess of Harmony will bring the Love of her Harmony and seal that when her time is ready. I thank you dear students of the Light.

*

We thank you and love you Beloved God of Harmony, we are so grateful for your Presence with us this day and the mighty blessings that you have released unto us; may we go forth and carry these in our lives and express them forever, forever and forever. (Applause)

Jayde:

And now through the Beloved I AM Presence do we greet the Great Goddess of Harmony to be with us.

Goddess of Harmony:

Beloved precious hearts I Goddess of Harmony come to you this evening and I invite each of you to just be that open door that loves to feel and breathe and live the almighty harmonious activity of your own Beloved I AM Presence each and every moment of your life. Now I say with all of my heart that it does me great joy and great pleasure to be with you and to see that even before I come to you through messenger number two, that I am here as you were singing your songs and the great amplification of your own voices sent the power of the Music of the Higher Spheres far across this province, this country and beyond. You do not realize this so it is great that I can bring it to your awareness that you can begin to accept and to realize that when you give voice to your Presence and you give voice to that which is The Greater, that goes out beyond your own recognition at times and to those ones who most require that assistance.

The melodies that the Angels carry throughout the atmosphere of the Earth, and the Angels carry those melodies unto all life, you might see when you awaken in the morning and if you are an early riser you can experience the beauty of the mornings, for I say to you in the mornings these are the precious times of the day. Why is that so? Because during the night time in the indigo sky, the blessed Angels and the elemental beings come from within the Earth and from the higher stratospheres, the octaves of freedom, and enter into your Earth's atmosphere and pour their own heart flames and the Sacred Fires of Purification through the powers of nature and the forces of the elements to consume part of the discord that was generated during the previous day by the masses of the human kind. And it is we ask you who acknowledge and accept, to invite these ones into greater action. It is there that these ones then can release more of their mighty bountiful gifts to the great powers of nature, to the beloved elementals of your Earth and unto your own physical garments dear ones.

You may have discovered that in the early mornings you find there is freshness in the air, there is purity about the plant life and those of the elemental and the animal kingdoms. There are the birds that sing in the morning, there are the great trees that commune with each other and are talking to your hearts and to your own I AM Presence, but the outer intellect sometimes, well actually quite often finds this almost too good to be true or insane. But I say to you who are awake and on the path of becoming your I AM Presence... you know this to be true.

And it is with great love in my heart that I wish to strengthen each of you that you can more easily accept this mighty truth into your being and your consciousness that therein can unfold the mightiest revelations and miracles in your lives in the outer world beloved ones. Because, it only takes a fragment of doubt to get in to your consciousness, and it can stifle and it can stymie your own great growth and expansion of the higher powers of life that are all around you every single moment, but go unnoticed by the majority of life upon this planet.

I say it must do yourselves a great blessing to take the moments that you do to acknowledge these mighty blessings and gifts that are all around you. I say dear ones you do not give yourselves enough credit for all that you have done in your lives and all that you have accomplished, and all that unfolds now. Because it is in this deep gratitude of thanksgiving to your own self and that self you know to be the I AM and not the human self, the outer self. Let us be clear on that, that your own I AM will release through you and into you more of these mighty blessings that you may begin to experience these things, that they're not just a fragment of someone's imagination or figment of their imagination but the real actuality of All That Is.

Precious hearts you yet do not realize the mighty friends that you have in the Ascended Master Realms. Let me just lay out a few points. Let's just say that you took it upon yourself that you were ready to buckle down and be 100% serious in your great obedience to your Beloved I AM Presence, and say you were to offer that obedience through your Presence to the Great Divine Director. Do you know the blessings that this Great One could release into your lives? You cannot even imagine the possibilities that are yours precious ones. What if the Mighty Victory called unto you and you were willing to give 100% obedience to him? You know don't you that you could not fail. But if you were willing to be disobedient, then those mighty blessings cannot be poured to you and they cannot do for you what you require.

So it is with my Harmonious Presence that I offer to help you back to the place where you find the great strength, and the obedient nature of your true self, that you will be true to your self, you will be true to your loved ones, and true to that which you come to do that no longer you put yourself through any suffering and pain, and begin to experience joy and happiness continuously, always expanding, and not having to return to the deep places of despondency or despair and unhappiness.

You have all been going to school for a very long time and some of you have failed to attend some classes. That is alright yet I say to you that the experiences that show up in your life are experiences that will compel you to face your own Beloved I AM Presence and the Great Angelic and Ascended Master Realms and call unto them to lift you and raise you to the great place that you have all longed for because you have chosen the path of Resurrection and you have chosen to come forth under Akasha's dispensation. You have chosen the greatest and you might say difficult journey that anyone could take upon this Earth. But the reward at the end of the day sees you standing victorious in the fullness of your glorious I AM Presence enfolded in the blazing love of Akasha, pillars of the Rose Pink Flames of Divine Love Will and Grace that the rest of the world will seek to drink of your Divine outpouring.

They will thirst of you and you precious ones will be the ultimate outpouring of that Eternal Fountain of Love that nothing can dry it up, nothing can return you to the deserts of desolation, no thing, no appearance, no man, for your love will be so great that it will consume any condition or appearance that would try to do that which is not love, which is not perfect precious ones. Take that ownership upon yourselves and expand the glorious I AM within you.

Now I invite you to move into the garden with me as I wish to seal you with the God of Harmony in our Harmonious Presence that sees to it you are sealed for your path of Resurrection in our Great Harmony that no thing will ever disturb you. And as I do this I will weave my Love of Harmony with the God of Harmony's Light of Harmony through your feeling side of life and bring about the completion of that which he began.

There we stand upon a great Crystal Sphere of Light that is anchored into the Earth. See yourself as you currently are in this embodiment and there I stand in my golden robe. And as you look into my eyes connect Soul to Soul as I see your Gift to Life, your Soul sees my Gift to Life. Your Soul knows my gift and asks to bring it forth into expression in your life.

I take my hand and place it, my right one on your forehead the pituitary gland and my left one upon your heart and there I begin to transfer my Miracle Waves of Harmony to anchor them deep into your physical embodiment, as I begin to attune the great harps, the harp of strings of life that is on either side of your spinal column and anchoring my Harmony deep within you. Feel it pass into every point of light, your garment becoming lighter and lighter. As the light expands within you, see your physical embodiment begin to shed the aging as you are lifting and raising.

The Great Goddess of Purity, my sister joins us and releases from her Ascended Master Heart's Flame the Great Sacred Purity of the Mighty Fire of her heart to consume the last discord and that which has registered upon your cells of the atomic structure. See the Sacred Fires burn away and the wind blows the ashes in to the sea of eternal forgetfulness and the youth is fully restored. And there you stand before me and my sister. Feel the longevity and the energy coursing through your veins, the lightness of your physical garment. Dance and play, move in the garden upon this Mighty Crystal Sphere of Light that we are upon and see around us the Angels, and see the Music of the Higher Spheres playing through the atmosphere.

The waters are glistening alive as the sun reflects upon it its great Light rays. Go and drink of these Mighty Waters of Pure Life. Notice the purity of your garden, hear the sacred sounds, smell the sacred fragrances, bathe in this youth that is the Harmony of our Love for you and your own Mighty I AM Presence.

Now hold out your hand before me as I place my hand atop of your hand; feel the Love of my Harmony pour through you, and now feel your ability to generate that Harmony and pour it back to me. We are practicing as I pour to you and you receive, and when you have received enough of my Harmony I will stop and allow you to pour back to me the Harmony that you have discovered to generate on your own. See the Light transfer back and forth weaving its way beautifully and perfectly. All is natural, nothing is forced. The willingness to let go and surrender and allow it to flow is your great victory my dear heart.

I take my hand and place it over my heart and I take my other hand and hold it out and watch as I produce a Rose of Harmony that is golden-white with a touch of pink, and as I precipitate this Rose I take it and hand it to you, a gift from myself that you whenever confronted or faced with some disturbance you will return your awareness to this precious rose and smell of its sweet fragrance and feel the softness of the petals knowing it is Eternal and Immortally Sustained as I have decreed it so for each of you.

You may return your awareness to the outer room as I seal each and every one of you with the Great God of Harmony. As you take forth upon this path of Resurrection your feeling bodies are strengthened, you are held in the harmonious I AM Miracle Music of the Spheres of the Great Ones. I seal you for eternity in this Great Harmony, my gift to you.

*

We thank you and love you Beloved Goddess of Harmony for your Great Presence with us and sealing all of us in your Eternal Harmony that assists us in going forth and being the Miracle of the Mighty I AM of this Great Resurrection Journey with no interference and no disturbance. We accept this great gift and offer our eternal love and gratitude unto thee.
