Usa, Akasha and Asun

Lady Quan Yin

Good morning everybody and welcome to Akasha and Asun's Freedom Class, their special Guest today the Great Ascended Master Quan Yin. Let's take a deep breath together, and together let us prepare for Akasha and Asun and Quan Yin's presence and all the blessings they seek to offer us today as we take a moment for gentle meditation and invocation. Turning our attention inwards as we give loving acknowledgement and acceptance of the great spiritual centre that is growing and expanding within each of us, as we begin to align with the Great Flame of Divine Love, the Unfed Flame in the centre of the chest cavity; visualize and feel your own Mighty Great God Flame and visualize the golden light of its love fill the chest cavity, remembering this inner flame a threefold activity of love of wisdom and the power of the Presence I AM. Visualize and feel it. And would you join me in our morning invocation,

"Through the Great Unfed Flame within I enter the inner sanctum of my being and greet that Magic Presence I AM that abides within me and above me. My Beloved Great Cosmic Self, Mighty I AM Presence, I love you, I bless you, I thank you for the Gift of Life and from out of your Unfed Flame I call forth a continuous ray of love ascending back up into your heart completing that divine current, and I offer the love of my life for the life you give me each day and I call upon you Mighty I AM Presence come forth in me and through me and as me and expand your Great Unfed Flame within and make of me an All-Christ outpouring of your love, your light and your perfection.

"And through you our Beloved Presence we greet Akasha and Asun, we greet that glorious Master Quan Yin and all the Ascended and Angelic Host. We thank them for coming closer to humanity and the Earth and we love to offer ourselves up to them in service to their divine plan for humanity and the world, and we are so grateful, so grateful, so grateful.

"Our Beloved Mighty I AM Presence and Great Ascended and Angelic Host that we may serve the Greater Divine Plan and fulfill our resurrection and ascension we come to you each day our Beloved Presence and turn our attention towards the Angels of the Violet Flame and the Mighty Saint Germain as we ask them to continue to blaze the great Love, Mercy and Forgiveness of the Violet Consuming Flames and their Purifying Presence up in through and around us. Fill our minds, our bodies, our feeling side of life with your great Violet Flames in all their silencing activity that dissolves all discord and fear that tries to register in our being and world. And through the Violet Flames rising up in through and around us that we may open to receive more of our Higher Mental Bodies in our earthly selves. We love and bless the Violet Flame and we call that Violet Flame to keep passing through us every moment of every day.” Visualize and feel the great pillar of the Violet Flames in through and around us. Deep breath.

“Our Beloved I AM Presence and Great Ascended Host enfold us each day in your Mighty Magic Tube of Ascended Masters’ Light Substance, your Great Armour of Light drawn down and around us and below us that makes us invisible, invincible to the discord that is yet in this world, a great Armour of Light that makes us more sensitive to the golden voice of God that speaks through our hearts. A great Armour of Light that makes us more sensitive to the Light Love and all the activities of the Sacred Fire. We thank you.” Visualize and feel it.

“Our Beloved I AM Presence as we open our hearts to the blessings and all that is offered from our Ascended Akasha and Asun and Beloved Quan Yin, we welcome the Presence of Angels amongst us, Angels of the Rose Pink Ray of Divine Love Will and Grace, Angels of the Sacred Fire, Angels Mighty Cherubim and Seraphim, Angels of Healing, Angels of the Immortal Flames of Cosmic Christ Love, Angels of the Music of the Higher Spheres; descend, descend, descend into our gathering today and into the homes of all who turn towards the Light as we open our hearts and feelings to all the great gifts of the Angelic Host that each of us may fulfill our higher purpose and the divine plan of our lives on Earth. We love and bless the Angels and we thank them for their Presence with us today.” Deep breath.

“Our Beloved I AM Presence, Mighty I AM Presence of all human kind, and Great Ascended Host, Great Cosmic Beings, Great Angelic Host, for our beloved world and planet do we reach up and call forth oceans and oceans and oceans of the Great Central Sun’s Mightiest Violet Flame Miracles of Eternity descending into the atmosphere of the Earth, into the powers of nature, the forces of the elements, the water and food of the land, beloved oceans of Violet Flame Love and Purity, limitless legions of the Angels of the Violet Flame. Come, come, come and release your purifying presence of Violet Flame Love, Purity and Power into the kingdoms of Earth, the gas belts, into nature and all her elements that forces the purification of all discord imposed upon nature, and then release your Great Cosmic Light Substance into all that has been purified and cleansed that offers the freedom of the elements. We thank you, we thank you, we thank you.

“And our Beloved Mighty I AM Presence, Mighty I AM Presence of every human being, take up our calls to the Great Ascended and Angelic Realms, Great Cosmic Beings and Great Central Sun. Again we call forth oceans and oceans and oceans of the Great Central Sun’s Mightiest Violet Flame Miracles of Eternity descending into the atmosphere of Earth and into the mental and feeling side of all human life that stops all that is the destructive use of human free will and brings about the restoration and resurrection of higher purpose and divine plan and the return to love within every human being on Earth. We thank you, we thank you, we thank you.” Deep breath.

Akasha:

And let us take a deep breath together...and a glorious good morning to each of you, Akasha greets you through the life stream of your brother and I welcome you again to Freedom's Class. And I wish to extend to you the divine remembrance of these Ascended Master Classes today in the moments that I have before our Beloved Lady Quan Yin offers her love, her radiance and all that she seeks to speak into today yes?

I would remind you that these classes first formed and named as the Ascended Master Classes were given great intention to open the way to more of the Ascended Host who are working with each other, with myself and all other dispensations on the Earth to assist humanity and the Earth and to offset what we have always known is planned against human kind, more of which each of you ought to recognize is happening before your eyes on the Earth this day. The Freedom Classes are intended to allow more of my sisters and brothers in our realms to make contact with you so that each of you will accept their Presence, and by accepting their Presence open the way for all the gifts and the activities that they specialize in, Yes? So that these things can be handed to you for your own wonderful assistance in life.

These classes are intended to continue to advance your acceptance and your use of the two great activities of the Ascended Masters Realms and you know what they are, they are the Cosmic Light Substance and the magnificent activities of the Sacred Fire, and within these two mightiest activities in the Ascended Master Realms are all the activities of the Light Rays, the Sound Rays, the Music of the Higher Spheres and those things that are formed that can be turned over to you to your use if you so desire to use them, Yes?

You know, dear hearts, over this summer there has been a great outpouring of love to the planet and that which is the sinister force in your world has done nothing more than what it has always done since all of you came out of the second golden age, and that is to seek to do everything to distract you, to fragment your consciousness and bring about some imbalance activity in your lives, in your affairs, in your activities due to what is happening in your lives, to try to turn your attention away from the great outpouring of Love that we stated clearly would come this summer and did come this summer.

And so I would encourage you to just welcome, welcome, welcome when you feel those forces upon you, when there are those situations that happen in your life and your attention is required to fix things and balance things, please dear hearts try not to do any of these things without the great dispensation that my Rose Pink Ray offers to each of you which is Divine Love, Divine Will and Grace. And that Grace too is the Grace that Jesus spoke of which is the Sacred Fire that has the trinity of the Golden Ray, the Violet Ray and the Rose Pink Ray.

You have come so far in your own great raising activity and your ability to stop for a moment several times a day, just stop for even a minute several times a day in which sixty seconds you can turn to your Presence, the entire Ascended and Angelic Host and call forth the balancing and harmonizing activity of the Great Sacred Fire and my Rose Pink Ray within yourselves to keep you from moving into any state of imbalance, then you will receive the assistance yes dear hearts? Because it is so imperative that your attention be available to experience the great outpouring of love and certainly from a world advantage or disadvantage perhaps, you can see that there are plenty enough things at the world stage that seek to take your attention and cause one to ask what is really happening on the Earth at this time, Yes?

And so because of this I urge you to remember the purpose of these great Freedom Classes. To at least keep in front of you once a month the great activities of the Ascended Host that work alongside the I AM Presence and the Higher Mental Body of each of you perfectly. And how much more improvement in your lives if each of us could work along with your earthly outer self as perfectly as we do work with your Higher Mental Body and your own Mighty I AM Presence, Yes?

So dear hearts remember the love, the great love that is pouring to the Earth is the greatest activity, and it is an activity that has not been on your Earth for millions of years. This is the undiluted Love of the Mother's Presence, this is not Life that pours to the Earth which is the unity of Light and Love, this is the purity and the wholeness, the nourishment, the revealing and the fulfilling Presence that comes from the Divine Mother's Presence of our universe that must find a welcoming Presence within yourselves and your lives. And certainly there have been much that has been spoken in the weekly transmissions, in the conclaves, in the workshops. Warnings came to you all throughout the spring and all throughout the summer that this love that is coming in the world that has not known this love, the world will reject this love, your own feeling body and heart that on one hand is seeking to open the chambers of your heart so more of this love can come from your Soul, would bring up ancient, ancient emotions that have been reflected in the mothers and daughters relationships of the world in which resentments and guilts and all sorts of emotions would try and rise and stop what is coming.

You cannot stop what is coming. However you can delay the great joy and nourishing, uniting and balancing activity of this great love, you can set it aside because your attention seems to be so required to fix everything in your lives and worlds. There's nothing wrong with desiring to fix everything because that is coming from a deeper level and that's a level where your life loves perfection. Yet to fix things or to address things, and because of the demands on your life there is less entering into the Sacred Fire, is the absolutely wrong way to do it. The more things need fixing and correcting and balancing, the more you want to stop even just for two minutes as long as you are still embracing your spiritual calls and you've got that time of dedicated time in which you're giving your life.

How do you ever feel that you are going to accomplish these three great activities that I have asked beloved Quan Yin because of her mighty expertise, and because she passed her notes to me, I have asked her to expand on some of those things into the three great activities of your life. There is just no way, and I have been asked by the Great Saint Germain, Asun and I had a visit with him, I think you heard about that recently. Again Saint Germain placed an emphasis saying, "Akasha you must tell your beloved of your heart there is just not enough Sacred Fire in their lives to keep things balanced, to keep things moving in the direction that they want to have."

Now Saint Germain discovered this too, he discovered in 1956 that some of his own students had waned in their use of the Violet Flame, and of course you know the Mighty Saint Germain had some fairly powerful beings lining up with him, such as the Great Arcturus and the Mighty Victory. And in 1956 was such a dangerous year in terms of many advances that the I AM Students had made. Many of the students had begun to not embrace the time that they had used to, to enter into their Violet Flames, and all of a sudden about five to six months passed and everything began to start fragmenting again.

So dear hearts you've heard all of us say it in many ways and you know I'm telling you the truth; there is not a time until you have achieved your ascension that you do not embrace the purity, the peace, the balance, the harmonizing activity of the Violet Flame in total concentration for a minimum of fifteen minutes. And if you do this then throughout the other parts of the day when you feel that there is that which is seeking to create imbalance, then the return to the Violet Flame or any other great activity for two minutes brings a rush of that to you and you find yourself balanced and harmonized again.

All throughout our Fundamentals and all throughout the Fundamentals of the Great "I AM" Activity the message has never changed once. What has changed is the human that runs in and gives you those feelings that, "I don't feel like doing my calls," or this or that or the other thing. That's the only thing that changes and that hasn't changed for millions of years when there has been a small or great activity to bring this mighty knowledge to a group of students.

So again I promised the Great Saint Germain that I would speak into this, especially as we move in these three and a half years to 2012. You know, Saint Germain is decreeing with Mighty Victory and he is decreeing that enough of you could be raised temporarily so that you could see for yourself the sinister force how it seeks to come in once you have an achievement and you've been enjoying that achievement for awhile and then inadvertently open to a weak moment. how the sinister force just waits and lurks to jump into your feeling body, and before long its not long before you don't feel the joy and the peace and the harmony that you had last week. And who hasn't had that experience? Yes?

So the proof dear hearts, because you are awakened, because you've said yes to your Life, because you've said yes to your Presence and the great activity of magnificent friends in the Ascended and Angelic Realms who just offer unlimited assistance. The proof is before you that you just must make your mind up that when it comes to the Fundamentals, the Violet Flame, to hold the peace and the harmony and enough purity and the balance necessary for you to continue your resurrection and the three main activities of your life, and that magnificent Tube of Light so that you are protected from the many tragic things that happen to human beings on Earth, Yes? So I have fulfilled my part Beloved Saint Germain, and as I've spoken I've called the intensity of Divine Will into my words. And may you welcome the Divine Will of the Rose Pink Ray to just make you wilful to embrace the fullness of the Violet Flame in fifteen minutes of intensity. Now that means there's nothing else getting your attention; when you are entering the Violet Flames.

And I offer you this with my will to offset any human will, "Oh I don't feel like doing that today." Yes? Because, certainly you all deserve to live in as much joy, in as much happiness and harmony and you all deserve to experience the great balancing activity that allows all the affairs of your lives to run as smoothly as possible. And I would remind you blessed Canadians that you have in your own nation the Great Goddess of Justice, and Justice is Divine Balance, yes? Well, deep breath...

You know dear hearts, when you look at the outer world and what is happening in financial markets, when you see what is happening in the horrific action that is taking place in the powers of nature and the forces of the elements, there is one word that comes to my mind that is desirable to call forth, not only if you look into the outer world, you can see how this is required in your own lives, and that is – I will make it two words so that I give it purpose and that is Divine Stability. Stability is what the world requires and stability is what your own lives require because the sinister force cannot wreck havoc, cannot wreck havoc with that which is stable in the Light, and that which is stable in the Love, that which is stable in the affairs of your lives yes?

Now, quite often again you know dear hearts, those of you who've been with me for a long time, I will only use those words, 'the sinister force,' when there seems to be a great need, and you know and I will take no nonsense from anyone who suggests that I speak of the sinister force too often because I am prompted by Saint Germain to speak of it ten times more than I do, Yes? Let it just be known dear heart any time there are changes and that which is the offices of my own dispensation in Vancouver has gone through horrific changes, and I am very aware of the instability that exists there and all of you will help if you call forth Ascended Master Stability to work through those individuals to bring everything back into that stable place.

Horrific changes have taken place in the office and there are those individuals involved who are trying to bring efficient change amidst the desire to stabilize. Well you know dear hearts, when you're trying to stabilize and introduce change at the same time that is quite a feat and it's not something I'm sure that I would try if I was on the earth. Before I brought through too much change I would want to stabilize what is, and that might be a little hint to some of you, Yes? Yet we understand.

Yet to us this is just one more example and I can reach into the lives of several million people around the world who are awakening just like you and I can show you where in their own lives there are those situations in which there is an opportunity that the sinister force just lurks to try to jump in there and create instability. Because in instability there is the old temptation to fall back into stress and strain and struggle and if one can do that then there's the opportunity to feel overwhelmed, and of course if you feel overwhelmed, well dear hearts, I'm going to say it the way it ought to be said; if you feel overwhelmed and you remain in that place for any length of time you become an open door, and let me just say, to the wrong energy, Yes? Every Ascended Being sees what's coming, because there are no new tricks that the sinister force can come up with, nothing. So we can anticipate at all times and when that force finds more and more pawns and begins to increase its effort to destabilize, then it is necessary to once again bring your attention to those things that will help you to quickly harmonize yourself and move into that peace and harmony and divine inspiration that you all require.

I will say this dear hearts with absolute certainty; no matter what you seem to face in that which is termed a challenge in your personal life, a challenge in relationships, a challenge in career activity, do not be fooled by the appearance; your ability to greet any challenge and to stay in your own peace and your own harmony where the unity of Light and Love in you and the Sacred Fire Presence to meet these challenges fairly and in a way that brings about solutions, is greater than you are realizing. I can assure you dear hearts that that which opposes the Light on this Earth does not want you to do the very thing that Asun and I spoke into this weekend in The Conceptual Matrix.

I can assure you that the sinister force wants to do everything to keep you from doing what both of us encouraged this weekend, and that was, do not be afraid to go deeper inside your being, because as you do you will not find chaos, you will not find fragmentation, you will find a peace and a joy that has been building in the very bedrock of your humanity; you will find if faced with the challenges, if you dialogue with yourself,

“Now just go inside, just return to the centre of your being; this is where you will find your peace, this is where you will find the wisdom you require in this moment, this is where you will find that joy that you have passed your Soul Initiation. Just go within; don’t get pulled out, just go deeper within and live from the centre of your Being. Ah, that feels better!”

That which hates the Light and Love knows that there are achievements you have made inside you, it does not know what those achievements are it just knows that whatever they are it is in opposition to the sinister force. So the sinister force does not want you – everything that fragments, everything that creates problems, everything that destabilizes that is the human force of good and evil out in the world, it wants to do everything to get you out, ‘come out, come back out into the outer rings of your humanity, stay out here,’ because they know that the achievements you have made in your resurrection is that there is a very crowning, peaceful place of greater glory and greater grace within yourself and what is out in the world cannot deal with that.

So dear hearts this is not a time to be afraid of going into the innermost centre of your being and living from that place. you have successfully cleared perceptions against the Father side of our Beloved Creator and against the Mother side of our Beloved Creator; this is one of the greatest accomplishments in resurrection that you have made, the clearing of perceptions against God the Father and God the Mother. So deep inside you there is so much serenity, so much peace and so much joy and happiness and harmony, and all you have to do is give yourself the gentle dialogue to just return to the centre of your being where no matter what seems to need your attention, no matter what seems to need to be fixed out in the world, you can enter back into the interior of your being and realize everything that we have said in the last three, four years where we’ve kept trying to keep you up, keep you positive by coming to you in every transmission almost, and reminding you, you are more illumined, you are more awakened, you have more peace, you have more joy than you are presently aware of, and where that is building is most important – inside of you.

So I leave you at this time with this message; what is out in the world will do everything to take you out of your centre because your centre is more affirmative in the Presence of Peace and Joy Happiness and Harmony and a certain amount of Wisdom that is coming through from your Christ Self now, that the sinister force just cannot touch you, destabilize you, if you live from that centre place. And I am confident, I am 100% confident, and if you must use my confidence for awhile you have it. And what is it that I am confident about? If you feel imbalanced, you feel yourself being pulled out then if you just take a moment and just say to yourself,

“Now all of you, just go back into the centre; live from the centre of your Being. There you will find your calmness, your peace, your happiness, harmony and joy; just enter back into the centre of your being and live well from that place.”

I am confident that with that dialogue you give yourself, in the next moment you will feel better, you will be back into the centre of your being, because I know with absolute certainty that the Great Love

Angel that is your Guardian Angel that hears your thoughts, that hears you give yourself this direction, and the Radiant Rose Angel that I have sent each of you hearing this direction that you give yourself, those two blessed Angels will make sure that if this is the directive you give yourself that this will be the fulfillment of that experience, Yes?

So God bless you dear hearts and you know, please don't feel that I am getting after you today; I made a promise to the Great Master Saint Germain and if he says there is just not enough Sacred Fire to keep you balanced and to keep you from experiencing instability in your outer world activities, I will not question him. And of course I am also aware that is he referring to certain world events, and yet I will leave this to our Beloved Quan Yin to speak into today. So I thank each of you.

Just love, just take time to consider the great gifts that your Ascended Master friends are always offering to each of you and especially through my dispensation this year, the great trinity of the three mighty rays, the unity of Light and Love through the great dispensation of the Rose Pink Ray. You all are moving towards the first manifestation of a group of souls who have come to accomplish something no other group of souls has achieved. Now there are individuals who have achieved this from time to time. Never in the history of the Earth is there a group of individuals who have achieved what you have set forth as the destiny of your lives, and that is to stay in the Earth embodiment giving your magnificent souls the opportunity to evolve you into the full Radiant Rose Soul. No group of individuals have achieved this in the past; an individual here, an individual there, with tremendous service has achieved this from time to time such as our beloved Lady Quan Yin who comes to you today. Yet I will say to you of the thousands of Ascended Beings in the Great Realms of Life there are only thirty-three who remained in embodiment prior to ascension long enough for the Soul to evolve them through all the activities, all the way up to the Radiant Rose Soul. Yet never has there been a group of individuals to achieve this great, great achievement of Life.

And soon you will understand come the year 2013 if you continue the advancement that is happening and you rise into the first degree of the Radiant Rose Soul, my dear the change this is going to impact upon the planet! You will have moved into a place of Divine Surrogacy in which never again will the Mother's Presence be denied on this Earth. With the Radiant Rose Souls walking upon the face of the Earth, this is the divine insurance that the Great Cosmic Love that fulfills never for eternity will leave this Earth again.

So dear hearts in the seeming challenges that you have, let not the personal life let you forget the great choices and the divine destiny that you have chosen for these lives on Earth. And this is just one more reason that even though you seem to face some challenges and sometimes those challenges touch your physical bodies, well, you have a destiny to fulfill. So it is very important that you welcome your Ascended Master friends to assist you living in your body because if you are going to fulfill the destiny, you have chosen to be part of the Group Soul of the Radiant Rose Souls on the Earth, then it seems to be you require a physical body yes? And if you need some help to stay in these bodies as comfortable as possible for you to achieve your evolution into the Radiant Rose Soul, then you know what to do; ask! And you shall receive.

God bless you; may my Rose Pink Ray enfold you and fill you each and every day dear hearts. Namaste.

Lady Quan Yin:

Beloved of Akasha's Family of the Eternal Rose of beauty beyond beauty, I Quan Yin am grateful to return to each of you this day and extend my gratitude to your Divine Mother Akasha's Presence for her welcoming invitation to be with you today. As I come to you I desire you to know that we, no matter whether we live in the fifth reality of life, or the thirty-third dimension of life, we stand as one, and we are called to stand as one to address the great concerns that are on the Earth at this time, Yes? And we stand as one and continue to offer the gifts that we can to assist each of you, and those gifts ultimately as your Mother Akasha has already spoken are two major accomplishments, and it is out of these two great accomplishments that we create other gifts. Yet those two mighty gifts that you are always asked to welcome the unlimited and unaccountable legions of the Angelic Host to bring to you; the Cosmic Light Substance and the great activities of the Sacred Fire to protect your lives and your worlds, Yes? And I will get to that in a moment.

You know dear hearts in the past ascension was a little different in terms of attainment. In the past one could gain their great freedom through states of enlightenment and the denial of the world. Others could achieve their great ascension through service work such as my own activity was. And individuals who are direct examples of this is one who left your world recently such as the Mother Theresa yes? And there are others in the past who achieved their ascension through how their life on Earth would make a difference for thousands of years to come into the future such as the example left by your great master and our great brother, that which is the Mighty Jesus the Christ yes? So it is; it was through the path of enlightenment, the path of service, or the path of difference that your life created that could give you the rights to ascension.

Now you know through Saint Germain's activity, through the great activity of Melchizedek and through Akasha's activity that today there are new ways that one can achieve the ascension even without taking the physical body with them, as long as there are certain things in place including the use of the Sacred Fire. Now in order to make these great achievements in which the old occult law was set aside so that human beings who were making some effort could make the ascension in one of the new great activities, then of course there is that which is asked in return for this; if there is that which is given which makes it easier to make the ascension then there is that which is equally asked.

And therefore I do feel that it is important to bring to your attention today that the three former paths to ascension, one in which you would leave the world, you would deny the fruits of the world and you would go off seeking enlightenment, or that which is a path in which your entire life is dedicated to service, or that which is a life that you lead in which the activity of your life, and this mostly would come through career, would bring about those things in the world that would create a lasting difference, and improvement to the rest of humanity. Here dear you might not realize that not all, but many of the renaissance masters are those who chose the third path in which through their career activity and with some intervention – because no matter what path you chose there was always a certain allotted amount of intervention, Yes? And so for those who chose the path of difference through career, some of them, the great renaissance masters did gain their ascension and especially those in art and music because of the great importance to have some from your world in these two areas in the Ascended Master Realms, Yes?

Now here is what had to change. There are no longer the three paths to ascension; there is only one path to ascension now. However, there are three great means and ways one can achieve the ascension, and after 2012 if all things go as planned, there is the opportunity for the Ascended Host under the authority of the Mighty Saint Germain to introduce a fourth and fifth means to ascension, yet the three paths one could choose no longer exist as three paths they are one path, and you might just upon contemplation realize, well of course, because the great mystery schools are closed, you can contemplate this and see how because the awakening is taking place in the outer life rather than inside the protection that some mountain can give you. It is that the one path to ascension is a path of enlightenment service and the difference your life makes, and the All Seeing Eye of God reveals that your life will make once you leave the world in the Ascension, Yes?

So it is here that I bring this to your attention. It is not only your quest for the Holy Grail that brings you back to the full I AM Presence expressing through your earthly garments, it is also that service that each of you are willing to give and offer as well as allowing your career, your creative outer activity be that which ultimately for eons of time into the future makes a lasting impression and difference for those who are left behind as once your own ascension is complete. And I feel that if you will welcome this idea that there is only one path that leads to the ascension now, it is your willingness to continue your evolution in enlightenment, illumination, and becoming the great I AM Presence as much as you can on Earth. It is identifying that which is most satisfying for you in terms of offering service some form of service of giving back, Yes?

And third, allowing that which is the four commands to life that you have become aware of and what is coming for each of you, the great, great arrival of your Soul's Love expressing through your humanity. And it is this, may I say, that is going to give each of you so much assistance in allowing all that is the creativity of your life to give resurrection and rise to all your work, your careers and the things that you are interested in the outer world activity, which will, once your Soul is a part of this, once all the nine chambers of your heart are opened, well dear hearts it is here that your works will carry that which is that lasting difference that will leave an impression and influence upon future humanity after your ascension.

Therefore can you not see that it is not the middle, the right or the left, but rather the whole path that each of you are walking towards your ascension? And I will unite with Akasha in inviting each of you to welcome, because you have each reached a place where the gentle activity of welcoming rather than commanding and forcing, you have all reached a place by what we see as the inner activity of each of you where it is the welcoming feeling that you can enter into that can bring you every good thing in life. Would you like to breathe?

As I look at this and realize that you may not have fully appreciated that there are no longer the three great roads to ascension; that these paths have united. As I realized that you did not have the full awareness and scope of this, I felt it important to bring this to your attention in this way and follow this through with this understanding; on the Earth there are a number of divine activities and that are a dispensation from the fifth dimension which include the great dispensation of Mighty Saint Germain, the longstanding dispensation of resurrection of Beloved Master Jesus, and Akasha's dispensation of the Rose Pink Ray. And then there are the smaller activities that are held under ancient dispensations that are continued to be held very quietly and very secretly and very guarded because of the importance of their return in the year 2015, and the only one that I will speak into is the Ancient Order of Melchizedek.

So in light of this may I bring to your attention that that which allows you to continue your fulfillment in enlightening yourselves, bringing forth the illumination of Light and Love within yourselves is necessary, this you have put into place by choosing Akasha's dispensation of your Rose Pink Ray. Because her dispensation is suited to the evolution of your soul and because her dispensation has the quality of the three great activities of the Mother's Presence, Love, Will and Grace in a divine state, must you ultimately realize that these three great activities and we stress the use of the word "divine".

When your own inner achievements of the great qualities of love have been resurrected within yourself then there comes a place in which whatever human friction and resistance yet remains in the feeling side of life, much like what happens to the perceptual mind, once you have truly gained in having her Mighty Rose Ray become such a part of you, just as the perceptual mind ultimately collapses, so too do those qualities in the feeling body that hold friction and resistance to the divine qualities ultimately collapse under the pressure of the love, will and grace that is at a divine activity in her Rose Pink Ray. So it seems to me dear hearts that her dispensation each of you have chosen, you have chosen this to ensure your enlightenment and the illumination that must take place in that one of the three paths that have united, Yes?

In speaking of the second of what is now the one path, and that is to assist your great road through resurrection to ascension, and that is to be of service, here you may approach this through career, through creativity. However we encourage each of you because the need is so great, that the service that you provide fulfilling that aspect of the requirements of ascension, be willing to make yourself that servant of Ascended Master Consciousness in which you are willing to steadfastly with whole and pure determination to sit down for ten minutes a day and be of service to your nation, to the Three Americas, and ultimately the world, to help roll back the advance of the sinister force that is trying to destabilize many activities in the Earth as well as the elements of the Earth itself.

Now, of course. I cannot make this decision for you, I can only bring back into your awareness that today there are three great ways that you can achieve the ascension, In a short-term future there will be five, yet there is only one road to ascension and that is dear hearts enlightenment, service, and the purpose of your life that makes a difference to this world after you leave, Yes? Seems to me you've taken care of the first part, and the second part you can choose, and as long as you choose from your heart it will be the right form of service for you. yet I can say to you we do not have enough who are choosing the service, that service to do world work by connecting to the I AM Presence of all humanity and to us and be making yourself an open door in which through your will we can deliver more of the Cosmic Light Substance and the Sacred Fire that your Earth so sorely needs and requires at this time. so of course I truly encourage you to, as you become aware that service is a part of the journey to ascension, I would encourage you if it interests you to say yes to ten to fifteen minutes of world work, and that world work making yourself an open door through your contact with your I AM Presence and the I AM Presence of every human being and all the Ascended and Angelic Host and all the Great Cosmic Beings, that you are offering your will and making yourself an open door in which through your call we can bring forth the Cosmic Light Substance and the Sacred Fire.

You know dear hearts; you do not yet fully understand the Cosmic Light Substance and what it can do. I do feel that each of you are gaining in your awareness of what the Sacred Fire can do and if you chose this kind of your world work, that this is your way of being of service of sitting down for ten to fifteen minutes and connecting with your Presence and the I AM Presence of every human being and then through the Ascended and Angelic Realms and make that call, that I say to you any calls for the Great Sacred Fire that is accompanied by visualizations in which you see rolling waves of the Violet Flames coming down from the great mountains of your planet and those rolling, rolling waves of Violet Flame love and purity rolling across the lands, the prairies, the cities, the water ways, this visualization will be very helpful. And I understand that you do know of the consuming nature of the Violet Flame that as it passes through anything takes out all the discord, yes?

Now, the Cosmic Light Substance is that shimmering cosmic light that cannot be re-qualified even if it comes into a realm that is under the free will of the species that have taken residence there. If it is invited in nothing can change it, and it is important in using the Cosmic Light Substance to get this idea; the Cosmic Light Substance which can be called from millions of Suns and Sources is that which comes in and covers over, covers over all discord and stops discord in its tracks. Now just as the fire can become the light, the light in great concentration can burst back into the fire, Yes? You've heard this? Yes. So, this is something that is so needed in your world, and if I was you and chose to do this I would call upon the I AM Presence of every human being embodied on the Earth to take up your call, and all the Ascended and Angelic Host and Great Cosmic Beings to project the Cosmic Light Substance on to the Earth from millions of Sun Presences that are on standby.

You know, I have heard that our Great Lord, the Mighty Ra had audience with you recently and you may not realize, although I am sure that he spoke into the great reality that he has been in involved in activities of such cosmic heights of this universe. I have not checked the records of what he shared, I am sure that he shared that he has been involved in great activities of the universe. What you might not have known is he has been setting up the contact with millions of Suns in our universe that upon the call of the Cosmic Hierarchy of this solar system, and that call of course goes out by the solar logos and you may or may not remember that the solar logos is no longer Sanat Kumara but the Great Master that was with you two thousand years ago. So when he gives the call, because all has been set into motion, when he gives the call the work that the Great Mighty Ra has accomplished, millions of suns of our universe are in place ready to release upon the great electronic lines of force that Ra and his legions have created. These are like mighty electronic pathways; they are like channels if you will in which great forces of Cosmic Light Substance will journey from millions of suns, millions of times greater than the speed of light when the solar logos of our system gives the authority for its release.

Now as far as we are concerned, this release ought to have happened in the year 2000, so our attitude is the sooner this Cosmic Light Substance of a million suns is released to the Earth then sooner will we be able to unite our light with your light, and this is something we have waited for since the Great Saint Germain appeared in Mount Shasta California. We have waited, and I am not sure that you've heard it this way, for that moment in which in your atmosphere we can unite our Light with your Light, because then dear heart it is not a matter of days and weeks and years of effort towards your accomplishment in which the Higher Mental Body has joined with you in the fulfillment of the Resurrection. Once our Light joins and unites with your Light we can in that moment do what the Great Divine Director has let human beings know what we desire to do, and that is raise you instantly by the hand of your Divinity and bring you through the last motions of your resurrection where you truly can make a magnificent difference on Earth, fulfilling the third activity of what is required to walk the journey to ascension, Yes?

Now, we know that the sooner that the Great Emanuel gives the authority for millions of Suns to release their Cosmic Light Substance to the Earth, on to the Earth, covering over everything, we know this is going to stop in its tracks the final plans of the sinister force to try to wreak havoc. You know dear hearts it has not been shared with you I see, so I will say this to you, the sinister force in its limited intelligence already knows that its plans will fail and that has just made it a little angrier if you will, and so its attitude is, 'Well if our plans are going to fail let's make sure that we leave as much chaos behind,' Yes? Well that's the attitude of insanity isn't it! So dear heart we have considered that attitude as well.

Now what can you give yourself, when you make a call for such divine intervention, what helps ensure that we have at least a fraction of your will, because if we get a fraction of your will you can be sure that we will take that into our temple because every Ascended Master's temple has the crystal container where the Unfed Flame of the I AM Presence of that ascended being is held. So we only have to receive a fraction of your will and of course we take it into that Mighty Unfed Flame that has the Cosmic Authority to expand whatever passes through it, Yes? So what ensures that we get at least a fraction of your will in your call is when you take a moment to visualize. As your Beloved Akasha has reminded you well, the visualization, the power of visualization is the great bridge between your thinking mind and your feeling nature and allows what you are thinking and calling forth to be given some magnetic force of your feeling side of life, and of course it is the magnetic force of your feeling side of life that carries your will.

So this we feel is so important, important to keep calling the Sacred Fire, yet what the Great Being Ra and the Great House of Melchizedek waiting for the Sacred Fire to advance enough to bring about more of the Cosmic Light Substance which could cover over and silence like a deep freeze the discord on the Earth that is acting. And so when you think of this Cosmic Light Substance from millions of Suns that you are calling in to cover over the Earth and cover over and stop all discord and the sinister force from acting, what image could you bring to mind that works for you? Is it the covering of an almost glassy-like substance over your nations and world and planets, is it a visualization of your planet where the fresh winter snow has covered over the entire planet and your planet is glistening – you know sometimes out on a cool sunny winter's day you can notice the effect of snow as it glistens, Yes? What can you, can you work with the elementals of the Sylphs? The Sylphs are a great gift of nature in your atmosphere and they appear to your physical sight when you do see them, as those silvery sparkling miniature particles or shards of light that are everywhere in your atmosphere supporting the air element yes?

So whatever way that you see this, what you start with is your great connecting to your I AM Presence and the I AM Presence of every human being, and all the entire Ascended Host, the entire Host of Great Cosmic Beings, to call forth the Cosmic Light Substance of millions of suns that Beloved Emanuel will release this to the Earth. Again I remind you it is the authority regardless of the work any Great Cosmic Being such as Ra and the House of Melchizedek have achieved in receiving the cooperation of more than a million suns to create corridors of electronic lines of force where the Cosmic Light Substance can be sent from millions of suns, this is an activity that has been going on since the Great Saint Germain walked alongside the mountain Mount Shasta. So for seventy-some years have these great beings, Cosmic Beings, been building these great electronic corridors from millions of suns so that if necessary and upon the call that Emanuel gives, that Cosmic Light Substance moves thousands of times greater than the speed of light through those corridors as massive volumes of light substance is transmitted and sent to your Earth for a mass covering of the Cosmic Light Substance over the sinister force and all discord that has registered. And just like a deep freeze that has suddenly hit and stopped will this Cosmic Light Substance stop in its tracks all that is of discord.

Now this Cosmic Light Substance that is destined to come from millions of suns under the authority of Jesus the Christ does not stop the positive and the constructive activity of nature and human beings. It only stops in its tracks the sinister force, and now remember, this great Cosmic Light Substance if you will, they are like mighty voluminous platelets that again are made up of magnificent electronic patterns of light and every place that an electronic pattern or an electronic force crosses over, if you have a vertical electronic force and a horizontal electronic force, wherever any two electronic forces cross and you have a connecting point, that is the point where the intensifying of the electronic force causes a flame to burst. Every connecting point is a bursting point of a future flame. It is in this way that the Light can produce the Sacred Fire and of course it is from the Sacred Fire that the Light is drawn as well.

So Beloved of the Rose Pink Ray your world is on high alert of the great assistance that is required from the cosmos, from your own great dimensions, from your Angelic and Ascended Host. Human beings will continue to create solutions to meet the many challenges, yet in all the solutions that are given if they do not have the Cosmic Light Substance and the Sacred Fire and the Ascended Master Consciousness behind them, even great solutions will not survive the onslaught of the sinister force and its plans to stop the success of the divine plan.

Can you not see dear hearts we are only a couple years away from that divine plan moving into that place where no interruption again is allowed, so does it not just make common sense that the sinister force will try to do everything to stop what is coming in its fulfillment in a few years? My goodness to see the great resurrection of America, the three Americas, to see the great accomplishments and then to watch as these accomplishments one after another have been set aside by those individuals who bring about infestation of drugs and abuse against the American people and the Flag of Liberty. If you could just elevate and see what America has opened its door to, well I do feel you would not give fifteen minutes you would probably give an hour to demanding the rolling waves of the Violet flames come off every mountain of America and sweep over her plains and her prairies and her rivers and streams and cities and villages and homes and industry and commerce and everything, to stop the sinister force, because right now dear heart the door is wide open and you are seeing the ramification of this and its impact.

At the same time you are seeing many unique changes in Europe. At this time I work very closely with the Great Master from India, Cha Ara. Cha Ara and myself are working over in the whole area of the Asian nations to bring about the resurrection of the people's will. The Great Ascended Master Kuthumi works very closely with Australia and New Zealand along with the Great God and Goddess of Harmony at this time. Maitreya, El Morya, and others are working with Lady Nada and Mary for a new joint effort for to give freedom to the gains that have been taking place in Europe. The Ascended Host have distributed themselves around the world; we are in every place and we had every concern of your planet addressed if we had greater opportunity to come closer.

Now I wish to reinforce one thing if it gives you some encouragement. Because we wait for those moments in which our radiance, our words and message has impact, so I will say again when that moment has come in which our Ascended Master Light can unite with your Light, that is the moment every Ascended Master dreams of, that is the moment every Ascended Master decrees, that is the moment that the Great Decree of the Great Divine Director is fulfilled, "Children of the Diamond Heart I raise you by the hand of your Divinity." So let me say very clearly when the opportunity is given that our Light can come into your octave and blend and unite with your Light, if that occurred and you were existing in the twenty-eighth activity of resurrection we could in the next moment raise you into the thirty-third activity. That is what could be set aside; so much could be set aside if our Light had the opportunity to unite with your Light, if the Ascended Masters' Light had the opportunity to unite with your Light.

Now there are times that you have successfully left your bodies in putting them to sleep and your Higher Mental Body has brought you to us, but it doesn't work that way. You can come in your Light Bodies if you know how to enter in to your Violet Soul Body and leave your physical body and come and see us; it still doesn't count. It only counts in your octave in your world in your atmosphere where you live. Yet I will say to you what fulfills the promise, the covenant and decree that every Ascended Being has ever made for any of you, because it is time that you know this and of course because you are part of America, being North America, you can be certain that I brought this to the Mighty Saint Germain and he concurred that you know it with this clarity, that all that has been promised, all that is said that is the great opportunity, covenants, invocations, to be raised by your hand of divinity in which so much could be set aside.

Let me make it as clear as I can make it today; this all happens, this all fulfills and is revealed in the moment an Ascended Master's Light can join with your Light in your world in your octave in your atmosphere. And that joining is a blending and when that happens it matters not what activity of resurrection that you are involved in, when our Light joins with your Light you are raised into the full state of Gethsemane, therefore your resurrection is complete.

Well is there anything that is unclear about that? Yes dear?... Dear heart it is not the ascension that is complete, it is the resurrection that is complete. And of course, you remain on the Earth. As a fully resurrected Master you do have the opportunity to commune with us consciously. There are many meetings in which you discuss with us and we discuss with you the relevance of staying on the Earth, the service that you can achieve. We compare that because you are a fully resurrected being. We can move you in being transference into the Ascended Realms in a split of a second and we can watch the difference you would make there without taking you there so that you can see yourself the difference you can make as a resurrected being or an ascended being. So these are choices that ultimately are in your own hands yet are always guided. And of course that guidance comes to you from your sponsor. Do you understand who your sponsor is? Yes.

So again what I am saying, when the Ascended Masters' Light can join with your Light in your world that is the moment in which the great journey through resurrection, all initiations, all trials, all challenges, and even what you have discovered is the means to overcome appearances, all of this is set aside and the decree of the Great Divine Director is fulfilled; you are raised by the hand of your Divinity into the fullness of a Resurrected Master on Earth.

Yes beloved of the heart?...what conditions must be fulfilled in order for that to occur on your part? Well of course, of course, of course! All that is required of this is coming, and I come to you today to release this into your consciousness and of course I know that others will speak volumes into it, Akasha will speak into it now, yet where does it start? You already have been given the answer many times. So the question is what condition, what is required to make that happen, and you are correct dear heart, it starts with desire. Speaking clearly with yourself, your Christed Self, your Presence and all of us that it is your deepest desire that an Ascended Master's Light comes and unites with your Light in your world. You must not seek to come out of your world, you must seek to let us come into your world and let our Light unite with your Light. And when that merging happens you know I sense there is a few in the room here who are students of the Great I AM Activity, yes, you are one dear son? Yes, you are one dear son? Yes. So then there are a few of you who know the covenant of the Great Divine Director; "Children of the Diamond Heart I raise you by the hand of your Divinity," Yes?

The fulfillment of the Great Divine Director's promise is at hand, occurs when we are given the opportunity, when we need not delay, when we, because of what has been accomplished, your desire is great enough, we can step through the ethers of your octave and we can unite our Light with your Light. Now notice dear hearts, please remember the words; I did not say where you unite your Light with our Light. The work is done by an Ascended Being; the condition that must be met is done by you. Once you've achieved the condition it is us, one of us that steps into your world and unites our Light with your Light because you have done your part. And of course yes, it starts with the desire that there be unlimited Ascended Master friends and friends of the Angelic Host, and dear hearts you must include the Great Cosmic Beings because their authority to use the smallest amount of human will is greater than my own.

So this is why we encourage you to call upon those who are the Elders amongst the Ascended Masters, and they are what we refer to as our Great Cosmic Beings. Make sure you include them when you invoke the expanding desire that an Ascended Master's Light come to you and into your world, your atmosphere and join with your Light, because when that happens, everything is changed, in a moment you are changed, and many of the great challenges that you seem to have to go through alone, which you actually don't but it seems that way.

The opening – you don't, my dear, we have an individual in albeit his love of Christ was great and it was sixty-eight years after the ascension of the Great Master in your Earth plain, and this young man, his love of the Master was so great and you know he was a solar ray soul, was not even a diamond heart or an indigo or a violet ray or radiant rose soul; he was a solar ray soul, had one chamber, one chamber of the heart open yet his love of the Christ and what Christ demonstrated, his love of the Christ and what Christ demonstrated was so great and he would feed that desire, he would feed, he discovered how to feed that desire. So ultimately that desire was greater than all other desires put together, that compelled the Master Jesus to come into the Earth's atmosphere and join the Master's Light with his Light. And in the joining of that Light that young lad instantly moved through all his soul evolutions, all other eight chambers of the heart opened, the great, great golden tower raised through his spine, the great wings of the phoenix spread out over him protecting his embodiment, the dove of transfiguration appeared, the great Archangel Gabriel was at his side and the voice of the I AM Presence spoke, "This is my Son in whom I am well pleased," and his full resurrection. And in that moment that young lad said to the Great Master, "Don't stop," and he continued all the way through to his ascension. So I just say this to you dear hearts. Of course that was another time, but not so long ago in the great understanding of time; so much can be set aside,

And you also know your Beloved Akasha has let you know your planet is in peril, your planet needs you as much as it needs us. And so it is very important that as many of you who can stay through your resurrection and be the ones that are on this side using the full will, can you imagine how powerful your will is as a resurrected human being? Millions of times greater than the will of human kind in their crucifixion. So it's so important that we have you remain behind as long as possible after your resurrection because you are the ones that are on this side, and everything changes as to how much can come from the Ascended Masters' Octave into your dimension that assists the raising of Life on the Earth, its great restoration, the resurrection, and the great necessity to stabilize your Earth, and the tremendous work that now must be done. It's going to take some time to restore nature to what it was, because even when our love and all our great activities are on the Earth we can restore in an instant, but we must restore according to the time continuum that is still measured in your atmosphere. And even though that will be well raised, yet it will take some time.

I see, and I wish to add my voice to it. We're very aware of all good activities that are taking place on the Earth, and some times we seek every advantage to add our voice to them. So let me be the second amongst you this weekend that says to you we are aware and because the Maha Chohan has brought it to our awareness that that nation Ecuador is in the throes of adding to their constitution the constitutional rights of the powers of nature and the forces of the elements. We are aware that five other nations are watching the development of these new constitutional rights for the planet in which those who love the planet will be given a legal voice that the kingdoms of the Earth have a right to co-exist with human beings and human beings must have the understanding that they, in being given this Earth and all her kingdoms, human beings must be understanding that they are given the seeds to all the kingdoms of nature. So until human beings know how to harvest the energy of the Earth and how to work with new forms of agriculture, then human beings must at least use the process of reseeded so that there is the great continuity of the Evergreens who are a group of Ascended Nature Beings who oversee the powers of nature and the forces of the elements.

This is the first success that we have seen because the Evergreens, a group of Ascended Beings, have had no voice on the Earth in any former council whether that be a dispensation, the Ascended Master Wisdom Schools, the Oracles, the great Evergreens have not had a voice since the second golden age because the Evergreens are a group of Ascended Beings; they are wholly feminine in nature and they are the Ascended Servants of Beloved Vesta and the Infinite Mother Presence of the Great Central Sun. Since humanity has denied the Mother's Presence, their voice has been silenced and denied since the second golden age.

Now we watch things very closely and the Maha Chohan called a great conference, oh, twenty-two days ago and announced when he marched into that hall, and you know dear hearts when these Great Cosmic Beings call a meeting we make sure we're on time, and maybe you could be a little bit more tidy in being on time especially in these events dear hearts, because that speaks of respect and honour.

So now that I snuck that one in at Akasha's request, I will also say that when a Great Cosmic Being announces a meeting. We are there, some of us are there – well of course in your context of time sometimes we are in the auditorium two, three hours ahead, waiting, because we desire to have a perfect chair to sit in and to observe. Well when the Maha Chohan called and announced that there were a few nations on the Earth that were preparing to give constitutional rights to the powers of nature and the forces of the elements, when he announced that we jumped to our feet and applauded. Now we are transmitting through a group of human beings some things that we wish, and of course we understand that this process is underway in which this nation Ecuador and others who are watching are writing into their constitution the rights of the powers of nature and the forces of the elements, and the rights of certain individuals to speak on their behalf for their right to coexist with humanity and humanity's obligation to preserve those great kingdoms that nature produces.

Now of course as this comes to our attention there are things that are not considered because even those who are behind such a great cause are not aware of some things, like I just made you aware of, that the seeds of Mother Nature all her seeds of everything she grows, these seeds were placed in the authority of humankind to protect. So humanity has a great responsibility to seed its planet again with the great powers of nature and the forces of the elements. When the Evergreens, and when you think of the Evergreens, these are in human context they are the oldest, when you think of the Ancient of Days, that Great Cosmic Being, these are Great Ascended Master Ladies and they do not come from your planet, they come from Jupiter and they are wholly feminine, they are Great Goddesses. To experience that countenance, their radiance of Love is a rapturing Presence that is so magnificent, the full exaltation of glory, grace and beauty. And well, I feel with this great change that has happened that if more nations take up the constitutional rights of the powers of nature and the forces of the elements that recognizes this magnificent feminine being that is your Earth, well, if you desire maybe it is and maybe it is fitting that the Mother's Ray to the Earth which your beloved Akasha has been given the authority to return, because I have used the Rose Pink Ray in my own evolution, maybe her Rose Pink Ray is the dispensation that will allow the Evergreens, every human heart will open more if the Evergreens were given an opportunity to speak; every ascended heart would applaud the opportunity if the Evergreens were ever given the opportunity to speak through Akasha's dispensation.

Well dear hearts I have held you long enough and I thank you, thank you, thank you for your presence here today, and may you hear because all that Akasha shared and reminded you of today, and all that I have spoken of, of course we are going to tell you that we feel has great importance to it. And so what you do with that if you feel that it is important too, then I would encourage you to review the recordings of our words and just welcome what has been offered and really open your consciousness for what is greatly possible by what we have shared with you today.

May the authority of Christ in you open the way for the Light minded and the Love hearted to allow one of us to come into your life, into your world where your desire for our Light to unite and join with your Light is a desire that outweighs the totality of all other desires. It won't take you out of this world dear heart; it'll just raise you to that place where you can make such a difference in the years that you're here. May the compassion of my heart's flame be a sacred anointing upon your own open hearts.

We love and bless you Beloved Quan Yin; we thank you for all that you have offered into our awareness, the gifts that you have presented. We love and bless you our beloved Mother Akasha and thank you for your Presence with us today. From out of our hearts we release a wave of love and respect to each other.
