Usa, Akasha and Asun

MC0907 Phase 2 Level 7

Good evening everybody and welcome to Akasha and Asun's Miracle Class, Phase Two Level Seven. This comes into a completion, phase one and two, Let's take a deep breath everybody...and let's begin our evening together in adoration of that ever-expanding spiritual centre that abides within each of us as we turn our attention to our Great God Flames within the centre of the chest cavity, resting our attention there, reminding ourselves these Mighty Flames are a Greater Source of Love Wisdom and Power. Let us quietly send our love and adoration and acceptance into those Great Flames within.

"I love and bless the Mighty Unfed Flames within me, and I consciously open my mind, the Points of Light in my physical garment, and my feeling side of life, to receive the great expanding activity of Christ Light and Love from out of my own Unfed Flames within." Deep breath.

And visualize and feel the golden radiance of your Mighty Unfed Flames expanding, that radiance filling every place and space of our minds, our garments and feeling side. And let us enter into our opening invocation, communing inwardly and quietly,

"Through my Great God Flames within I enter the throne room of my Divinity; I greet my Essential Self I AM whose Magic Presence abides within me and above me.

"My Beloved Great Cosmic Self as we stand before you we say 'yes' to you in saying 'yes' to Life, and from out of the Great Love Flame, your Love Flame in our hearts we call forth hundreds of thousands of Rhythmic Waves of Divine Love up to you our Beloved I AM Presence and to our Higher Mental Body our Christ Selves that we have come to embody in the Resurrection of our lives on Earth, and we are so grateful. We just love and bless you our Beloved I AM, Source of all Light and Love, all joy beauty intelligence and perfection expressing more and more through our lives on Earth. We love you.

“And through you our Beloved Presence we extend our love to Akasha and Asun and their dispensation of the Rose Pink Ray to the Earth; we extend our love to the Mighty Saint Germain and his dispensation of the Violet Ray to the Earth, and we extend our gratitude and our love to Emanuel Jesus Christ and his dispensation of the All Christ Ray of Divine Illumination to the Earth, and we open our hearts, our minds, our physical garments to the great blessing of these three mighty rays, their flames, into our lives on Earth and we are so grateful, so grateful, so grateful.” Deep breath.

“Our Beloved Great God Self, Infinite I AM from out the Great Central Sun, we gather today in Akasha and Asun’s Miracle Class and we open to gain a greater understanding of the nature of miracles and we come and use our free will to receive the great blessings that are offered in these Miracle Classes and we are so grateful for the great outpouring of the Ascended Jesus Christ and the outpouring of love that he draws forth from the Great Causal Body of his disciple Peter.

“And as we gather together Beloved I AM, Beloved Akasha and Asun, we welcome Angelic Presence into our gathering, our own Guardian Angels, Angels of the Rose Pink Flames, Violet Flames, Cosmic Blue Flames, Angels of Healing, Angels of Higher Purpose and Illumination, the Great Love Angels the Cherubim, and Light Angels the Seraphim, Angels of the Music of the Higher Spheres, and Great Central Sun’s Angels of the Immortal Flames of Cosmic Christ Love. Blessed Angels descend, descend, descend into our gathering. We thank you for your Presence and your great service to Life. We bless you for your Presence with us and we command our Earthly lives open and receive all the blessings you offer in to our lives. We are so grateful. Deep breath everyone.

“And so too we love to call upon our Beloved I AM Presence and the Ascended Host to continue to enfold us each day in our Mighty Magic Tube of Ascended Masters’ Light Substance drawn down and around us and below us; seal us in thy Great Cosmic Armour of Light that offers us all the protection we should ever require in this world, a Great Tube of Light Substance that makes us invisible, invincible, invulnerable to the discord that yet remains in this world, an Armour of Light that makes us more sensitive to the perfection of our own Mighty I AM Presence finding greater expression in us and through us and as us; we thank you. Deep breath.

“Our Beloved Mighty I AM Presence, Beloved Saint Germain we welcome you into our Miracle Class too today and we call upon you and the Presence of your Angels to intensify the Violet Flame that rises up in through and around us from our own Great God Presence, and for enough concentration of those Violet Flames blazing through our minds our physical garments and feeling side of life that creates the environment within us and around us in which all the miracles, all; the blessings that are offered can be fully realized in our lives’ experience that we too in the days to come may go forth a Miracle Presence to all life on Earth. We thank you, we thank you, we thank you.

“Into our class today we welcome the Great Redeeming Christ Presence of Emanuel, we welcome Beloved Quan Yin and the great gift she came to offer each of us that makes each one such a Redeeming Presence of Sacred Fire Love Mercy and Forgiveness. We welcome into our class and into our consciousness the Presence of the World Teacher the Lord Kuthumi who continues to speak into our consciousness in his great desire that we understand the nature of miracles, and we are so grateful.

“And as we enter the silence for a few moments we welcome the Presence of our Beloved Akasha and Asun into our Miracle Class today.” Deep breath everyone.

Disciple Peter:

Beloved of Akasha and Asun’s Eternal Family of the Rose, I am a voice that speaks to you from out the Causal Body of one you have come to love as Messenger Number One in the authority of the Ascended Jesus Christ who calls forth my voice as Peter to come to you in this last Miracle Class of Phase Two, and as I come to you this day I greet you and I understand it may seem to be quite an accomplishment for the voice of Peter who actually in modern times stands before you in physical embodiment of the messenger Usa, yet I say to you when you have the assistance of the Great I AM Presence who came to the Earth as Emanuel Ascended Jesus Christ, there is just nothing that cannot be accomplished.

Christ and Akasha and Asun have asked me to come to you and to explain a few things. In the recording of our Master’s life and those of us who grew a great love for him and his family, some of the details of our pilgrimage, some of the details of what happened in the lands of Judea are written, yet much of the more intimate details if you will of the great life that all of us, the disciples and our families enjoyed with Christ and his family are not recorded in what you have come to understand are the writings of Jesus Christ’s life and his disciples.

We are all aware that there are some writings and I am aware that those of you who have studied Christianity may know something of what you think happened to my life in the years after Emanuel’s ascension in which we went forth to spread his church, both Paul and myself and the others. And of course there is that upon which you have come to understand happened to my own physical body at the end of my embodiment in which I came to love the one that you have all come to love in which there is the record of my own crucifixion with my physical embodiment being turned upside-down. And I wish you to say dear hearts that all of these records have been cleansed.

And I come to you for this reason, that in those that I knew would be my last days as I was seized upon and held captive by those who were bent on drawing a shadow over the Master’s teachings, in those days of captivity I supposed I baited my own prisoners and said to them, “You can hang this body upside-down, you can crucify it in the way that you have done to my great teacher, yet I will not feel even the pain that he felt, for in those moments Christ will stand with me and will forbid that I ever feel the pain that he experienced in his own crucifixion.

Well when those who were in charge of things back then heard that I indeed had baited them, then they said, “Then so be it Peter, you shall be hung upside-down.” And I say to you as I knew in my own conviction, that moment in which my feet were strung in the top part of that wooden cross and the moment that a very large instrument was to be slammed into my ankles, I felt not a moment of pain. The Ascended Jesus Christ my great teacher stood before me his Great Heart Presence and did not allow my physical body and its senses to experience what you might imagine be the pain of not only crucifixion, but the most brutal forms of very primitive kinds of iron in that day, do you understand?

In the final moment that my physical heart had experienced its last moment of life, in the next moment I stood with Christ and in that moment he said,

“Now Peter I cannot take you through your resurrection, and as I said to you in the days that I left you only moments before my own ascension, I cannot take you unto your ascension. These are my days and these are your end of being a great fisher of my great truth upon which I have so desired that the heart of man and woman would find my Light. You have served me and I myself will escort you to not the place where most go when they have lost their embodiment, I will use my authority and I will escort you unto the Great Lord Kadon and his twin flame the High Priestess of Shamballa and there I shall use my authority for you to be taken into Shamballa where you may rest, where you may review all that must unfold in the years ahead where you must study how the sinister force will seek to wreck havoc with my light I have given to the Earth and there you will remain until you are called back into a series of embodiments out of which a new teacher will come to you, that teacher being Beloved Asun who will prepare you for the next great dispensation that you will serve that will take you to your freedom, the Ascension Dispensation of the Rose Pink Ray.”

And so there I lived, I Peter, there I lived in Shamballa one of the few human beings who were given that wonderful opportunity. And yet even there I was given command, I was given duties. And I'd like you to know something; as the record has been written in many of the early witness that followed the teachings of Christ, and there are the records of those who gave up their lives believing in his Great Presence, there are the record of those who were thrown into lions' dens and such terrible things of the early witness who lost their life believing in his name. I would like you to know that the great service that Emmanuel provided me that I would not feel the burden nor the pain of my own crucifixion, that as I lived in Shamballa for 700 years after Christ's ascension, and after my last embodiment as Peter, there Christ gave me the authority to project a shield of his great love to the early witnesses they were called, they weren't called Christians back then, to the early witnesses and then what came as the early Christians whose lives were thrown into dens of such fierce kinds of destruction. It was there that I was able to provide an armour of protection so that when they too lost their physical lives due to their great belief in Christ, I was able to put to sleep their senses of their physical bodies just seconds before death was upon them.

And there is a reason that I am asked to tell this story to you, there is a reason that Christ has touched and elevated the great record of my embodiment that today stands as part of the attainment of the messenger Usa and that is to come to you, to be that frequency of resurrection that as you open your lives and you have found great faith and trust in the messenger, and with your teachers your beloved Akasha and Asun, and those great teachings and fellowship of Emanuel and Saint Germain, and with the understanding that Messenger Number Two is being groomed.

And along with this the understanding that you are completing phase one fifteen years with your Beloved Mother Akasha and her Rose Pink Ray, and with the understanding that your own fiery furnace shall bring about such a mighty burst that will create a Sun's Presence in each of you; with the understanding that you have gained the opening of six chambers and what can be achieved for each of you in the days soon. And with the understanding of the records that I, Peter, studied very closely of what you might consider many greats, Grandfather Solomon. Yes, we are all of one great family, as he too passed through the Door of Everything.

With all the things that are truly a part to be considered of great understandings that include a backdrop of background activities that I ask all of you to remind yourself as ongoing all the time now, all the time. Christ calls forth the attainment of Usa as Peter to come to you and to say to you and all you who will hear my authority that what Christ did for me and what I did for the early witness and Christians, I now stand an armour between you and a world that would try and crucify you. But I come not as an armour that puts to sleep the senses of your physical body that you would lose, for you have not come to lose these physical bodies; you have not come to suffer the crucifixion. All that is left of the crucifixion are the moments of human consciousness that you ought to use your authority and make yourselves forget so that that cannot show up as often as it does.

I do not come to shield you from the pain of crucifixion as it is registered in the physical garment, I come to shield you from crucifixion itself, for liberty and resurrection and Christ and the Eternal Beauty of the Soul, the Rose is your future. You and ones like you around the world are the ones my Master spoke of. You are the souls that must now not suffer the fools of the world and draw forth as much courage as you can, and as much illumination that the Ascended Master Teachings of this new time can offer you. And while you do this and its great continuance of these very important years, then I say to you Christ has loosened the attainment of Usa in his life as Peter Christ has loosened that attainment and taken it in to the Eternal Heart of the I AM Presence of us and drawn forth that as a voice that can come to you today. I do not know if I will ever speak to you in this way again. It will be up to Christ, it will be up to his mother, it will be up to his I AM Presence as to whether this authority that I am as Peter is ever required again in such way. Yet I say to you what I extend to you and you make sure the messenger knows this, that I extend to him the same Shield of Resurrection that none of the monstrosities and evil of crucifixion shall ever touch him or shall ever touch your lives. (Applause) Indeed.

You know dear hearts you can know it to your tippy toes that even though my faith was great and as my body was laid down upon that cross and then the cross was lifted, you can be certain that I myself was quietly praying inside me, "Master I know you will not fail me!" So even in those last moments in which I knew there was no doubt, I knew I had to stand my victory and decree those words so that in the last seconds that doubt would not move in. I knew I had to let my Master be my victory in those moments, and I knew it was not about him, I knew it was about myself that my Master would not fail me if I did not fail him, and I knew I would fail him if I doubted. And so as they bound my body by rope and then bound the bones of my garment by the primitive steel or rather iron nails of that day, did I grit my teeth and did I inside me, "Master, I know you will not fail me." And so he did not.

And so as that attainment of Peter that has long time rested in the causal body after I rested in Shamballa that has been made active by Emanuel, know that where Usa travels and where his presence is, so too is Peter's authority to be that shield drawn around each of you. And I apologize to no thing on Earth that I do it in the name of Christ Emanuel King of Kings because I know the power of his name, I know the power of his voice, I know the power of his Unfed Flame to Life, for I know that the entire universe itself would bow before his Presence and the puny intellectual opinions of people of this world will not turn aside the power of Emanuel.

And you can know that in my days when he left me and said, "I must leave now, and I send you forth to build my church," I knew that my faith would be tested, I knew that Paul's faith would be tested, I knew as much as I desired to escort his Mother, I knew I had to leave the Beloved Mary in the hands of our Beloved Brother John and to go with those in another caravan in another direction.

And there is one more piece that I would like to give to you today. Over the years you are putting together with some of the information that has been given you as to the life of Christ before his ministry began and how we all gathered, and into the lives of those of us who were left behind at that time, you have heard that some went in different directions in different caravans, for you heard what was true that the hatred that existed at that time was acting out through many human beings and the order of the day was death, death to his disciples, death to his mother, death to his brothers and sisters, death to all who dared to love him. This was the order of the day and we knew that the veil of invisibility drawn around all the families, we knew that this veil would begin to wane and we knew if you will that we had to get out of town, we knew we had to get out of Jerusalem.

And you've heard stories and you know today that the Beloved Mother went with our Beloved John and you know today that the Princess Mary and the twins went with them. What you don't know is what happened to the rest of Mary's children and when I'm speaking to you I am speaking of Mother Mary's children, of Christ Emanuel's brothers and two sisters; four brothers and two sisters, yes? The sisters went with Paul and the boys came with me and the others who were appointed to our caravan. Again, we all went in different directions and the direction that I was given to travel to, of course these were temporary directions to save the lives of the families and I was given to go into the land that has been treasured and loved, the land of Delphi, and you can see today the connection, the land of Greece.

And when we and my family and Christ's brothers arrived and very close to what you know is the ruins of Delphi that remain today, very close, in fact in the same place where your Beloved Mother Akasha gained her freedom long before any of us came to the Earth, when we arrived did an amazing magical power appear before us and did take us all into the mountain there. And it is there that we lived, it is there that we came under the food and protection of Emanuel and others. It was there that Christ came to us and gave his brothers new identities and changed their physical appearances somewhat so that it was safe for us to leave this sacred place and for us all to go forth and to scatter and to do what Emanuel had commissioned us do to be fishers of men and spread the word and build the church. And so that is a little bit more information for you.

With the authority that Christ has used in drawing forth this attainment of the messenger I again wish to reinforce that what I gave in my life as Peter is an authority of the Resurrection of Protection that draws around all of you and those like you who have been courageous enough to find the most sacred of all knowledge, the knowledge of the Unfed Flame the last flame of which existed in the Temple Jerusalem not so long ago. Christ knew of the courage, Christ knew of the amount of Light the amount of illumination it would require to find the knowledge of the Unfed Flame, to find the knowledge of the Sacred Fire out of which all life unfolds. He knew the courage it would take, he knew the Light that would be required within your minds for this knowledge has been covered over and covered over and covered over.

And so now so many great achievements have been made and as I say these things to you let yourselves forget any ideas that crucifixion could ever touch you, let yourselves know that the Resurrection and the Ascension is your victory, let yourselves know that no one in the hierarchy that has so loved human kind will ever tolerate the pain of crucifixion that a number of us experienced in opening the way for the Light and then the Love to return to human kind.

I am Peter, my own attainment, my own time in Shamballa and then being called forth from there to enter into the causal body of the I AM Presence so that the collective life stream that I am that stands before you as Usa today could come back into physical embodiment and these great times of Christ has been successful.

And so now we enter into a great time, time that requires the end of doubt, time that invites forgetfulness of all that has been the misery and the difficulty and the hardship of life, a time that invites the resurrection of your Whole Mind to greet the resurrection of your Whole Hearts, a time that stands before you as I leave you and issue this decree that your Beloved Akasha and Asun will take up in this Miracle Class as I use my voice as Peter one last time and do I call forth the Unfed Flame of a Thousand Suns to come forth and to expand the points of light within your flesh garment and to those points of light within your physical garments do I say,

“Light, Light, Light, expand, expand, expand;

Light, Light, Light; I AM, I AM, I AM.

Unfed Flames of a thousand suns come forth into what has been the closed points of Light within these physical garments.

Arise oh points of light; expand and be the Light I AM, I AM, I AM.”

And may each of you in the days to come, may you love to rise into all the new Ascended Master Activities, the Ascended Master Authorities, for you are only beginning to understand what it really means to access the Ascended Masters’ Consciousness where there abides every perfected pattern of manifestation ready for you to embrace into your lives. And therefore again I decree, “Mighty Unfed Flame within each of you arise as in the Light of a thousand suns and expand the great awakening of the thousands of points of Light within these physical garments. And to those points of Light within your physical garments I say,

“Light, expand, Light I AM, be the Unfed Flame of a thousand suns and then multiply ten billion fold a Light’s Presence from out of each one that is a blazing Sun’s Presence that is the great undoing of all that has been the discord and the duality of the human theatre. Rise and meet the Great Sun's Presence in her Holy Mother's Authority."

I am Peter, and the Authority I AM that rests in the causal body of the I AM Presence Christ now transfers as an authority in the causal body of the I AM Presence of each of you.

I am Peter and although it has been written that I doubted my Master I say to you in the most greatest pain that drew unto my being never again did I doubt him, never again did I deny knowing him; from that moment that led to his crucifixion to the moment that I speak to you now, I never denied him again and it is his Presence that caused me never to lose my faith.

Arise, for I decree that like Christ and like others who came to open the way and pave the way before you, you will never know except as the story is revealed to you that the beating of a human body and the throwing of that human body to the ground as if it was a useless rag, lifted upon worn pieces of wood likened to be a cross, bound by rope and pounded by iron, is a memory that I have received my freedom from, and it is a memory that I seal from ever being experienced in the garden of your consciousness. And now these are my parting words;

May you in what you have come to understand is the mental and feeling side of life that is your own consciousness, may you create the greatest miracle, may you open the way for the greatest miracles, may each of you build the most towering golden cross within the garden of your consciousness and may that cross of pure golden light rise from the earth of your consciousness, may its wings extend its love into the atmosphere of your garden and may that cross, may it reach into the heavens to the very Source I AM itself. May each of you use your free will, may each of you build the greatest sacred geometry, the cross, in the garden of your own consciousness. May you by our will give it the greatest illumination of such Golden Light and Love that the King of Kings would even come and adorn your cross with diamonds that he has formed from his own heart flame that you as I have come to know what it is to be those of the Diamond Heart I AM. And I am so grateful.

And now I will leave you and you will have a record, a record of the voice of Peter, and through your natural transmissions of audio recording you have a recording of Peter. Savour this recording, put it on a disc, put this disc away, make sure this master recording is secured for there will be a day in your future that you will stand before Emanuel again as I stood before him and you will see step out of his heart flame, you will see me, you will see his mother, you will see his Beloved John, you will see his children, you'll see his brothers, you'll see his sisters, you will see us all step out and you will know why I have asked you savour this recording for it is the last word of Peter.

For when I was dragged from that cell outdoors and as they threw my body to the ground as a rag, I said to those at that time, "You have not heard the last word from Peter." And now you my beloved, I have fulfilled Christ's command of me, I have fulfilled Mother Akasha's desire, and I have spoken now my last word, and I thank you. You have brave hearts, you've been called upon to act, you've been called upon to do things and sometimes all you could do was trust and hope that you were making the right decision. You always have made the right decision. There are times that you've thought you didn't because it might have put you through something, but you've always made the right decision, because you are his children as well as Her Grace's children. And I leave you, Peter I AM.

Asun:

(Musical interlude) God bless you dear hearts; thought you could use a few moments to just be with that, indeed. And what I'm going to do is leave it to our Beloved Akasha if she so desires to speak into Peter's transmission in some future moment. And our Beloved Akasha is back into conference that is going on right now in the heart of Shasta that Beloved Saint Germain has called a conference earlier this week.

So alright, its Miracle Class is it not, indeed. Miracles, miracles do not just happen, if an atheist says to me, "I don't believe in miracles," I'll say, good, neither do I", in the human context of understanding miracles, for miracles and understanding the true nature of a miracle then, there I would have to say I still don't believe in miracles, because I know miracles are a natural manifestation of a whole mind and whole heart, a higher intelligence that is behind them that is using the great powers of the universe that already exist, yes?

You know something dear heart that you might want to tell yourself, because you've had quite a few days in the altered ego, you've had quite a few days – well Asun's being easy on you, you actually had quite a few lifetimes. That's not true either; you actually had hundreds of lifetimes in which the altered ego was governing the intellect, correct? Indeed, so you really didn't see things the whole way that they are. And what does the altered ego do? It's constantly trying to reinvent the wheel.

Now let's back up, what is Asun saying? The altered ego, realizing that humanity had disconnected itself from Source and therefore was not enjoying all the perfect manifestations already brought forth in this universe, the altered ego had to set out to reinvent everything. The very first two things that the altered ego invented to bring about a continuation of this sub-reality was time and space. Now more recently you have gained an understanding that consciousness is the non-physical universe and also that consciousness is the non-physical universe, it is the backdrop to the physical universe. That consciousness has within it - the Infinite Consciousness is the consciousness of Mother/Father God; the non-physical universe is the consciousness of the Infinite I AM Presence Mother/Father God as you understand, yes? In that infinite consciousness, in the atmosphere of that which is infinite, you've come to understand is the architecture of the universe out of which all future life can spring forth, that architecture being the Flower of Life design. We say 'blueprint' because it's something you can look at, you can get a print of it, right? But it's an actualized design in which the mind's decree, "Let there be Light, Light, Light," that decree was fulfilled by the heart by clothing that decree of mind; the Father's mind decreed, "Let there be Light, Light, Light," that decree went out as a projected thought pattern, a pattern of energy. The heart came along and fulfilled it as a magnificent design that filled their consciousness, everywhere, from every angle imaginable, the Flower of Life Design, magnificent arcs and interface and conjoining points.

And now the heart was quite brilliant in creating this, because in all those conjoining points of the Flower of Life design, every future thought the mind could conceive would have a place to anchor into out of which it was fed and nurtured by the Mother's Presence, Love, into manifestation. The altered ego could not create that so the altered ego knew in order to sustain this sub-reality it had to constantly try and reinvent something, and time and space and the continuity of time and space is what the altered ego invented.

What is being offered out of “Birthing the Star Matrix” workshops, the bits and pieces of information that expanded ideas of Merkabah Vehicles, Sacred Geometries, Tetrahedrons, Star of David designs, Merkabah Cubes; out of all of this came the place that is readying each of you for that which is nothing short of a miracle, restoring the Flower of Life Blueprint, the actual design back into the garden of your consciousness, for albeit that that exists in the larger consciousness, in the individualized consciousness it has deflated due to the fall from Grace.

Now on Wednesday I spoke into this and asked for a 28 day plan in which for 28 days you will send the call for that Flower of Life design to be restored in the interior, to be restored in the atmosphere of your consciousness. You see as long as the tree of life of good and evil is growing in the garden of your consciousness you cannot ever fully awaken and that consciousness of believing in two powers will follow you everywhere until finally it’s removed and then the effects of having it there are removed and the Tree of Life is planted there again.

In your Ascended Master studies you hear things about telepathy, instant knowingness, precipitation, amazing powers of the whole mind and the whole heart, yes? You hear of amazing powers that do not take into consideration time or space. When do you realize that, when do you begin precipitating? When does your manifestation not be influenced by time and space, rather, your manifestation or accomplishment is influenced by your will, by your intensity of qualifying, by your ability to use your mind and feelings powerfully and wonderfully. Right now all your manifestations are still highly influenced by time and space. The sooner you get the Flower of Life design inflated in the Garden of your Consciousness then remind yourself time and space is what the ego invented to sustain a sub-reality.

You are doing an amazing thing, you’re not leaving a world governed by a sub reality, you’re staying in it because you are a part of the solution in correcting it, and yet you are taking the steps of which you are no longer of, your nature is no longer of the duality, the sub reality. So you have an opportunity in your awakening to free yourself of the heretic belief in two powers which included believing in the necessity of what the ego – the ego knows of a space between planets, spaces that exist, gaps between thoughts, and it took this and twisted it, and twisted what are measurements of space travel, all of this, twisted the whole thing up so it would be such a mess, it’s like a mess of wires, just all messed up so badly. And that just locks you in to that time-space belief which is constantly affecting your ability to change a condition. All of that comes tumbling down by your continued use of the Sacred Fire and by opening more powerfully to the Ascended Masters’ Consciousness of which you really haven’t even begun to appreciate the blessings that are involved.

So it’s really important; we’re not going to initiate day one of the restoration of the Flower of Life design in the garden of your consciousness, I’m leaving that up to you and some of you may have already started that. What I do wish to do is use the authority behind this Miracle Class in moving each one into that place where you are allowing, because from a human point of view it would be a miracle to have restored within the garden of your consciousness the Flower of Life Design. From an ascended point of view it would be restoring something that is simply broken, but you could not do it, you could not do it on your own without an Ascended Master's intervention. But I have to also be fair; an Ascended Master could not intervene and do this in the Garden of your Consciousness if it was not your will to have it done. So the two work together here yes?

So what I am calling forth is the accepting of this miracle, the first miracle that you accept an understanding of, that the Flower of Life Design is actually the architecture of the non-physical universe out of which the physical universe unfolds, and that you are accepting that this miracle of twenty-eight days calling forth that Flower of Life Design be restored into the Garden of your Consciousness, that this can be accomplished for you, yes? Do you accept it, do you welcome this miracle? From a human point of view you can concede how the human would think of this as nothing short of a miracle because it requires an Ascended Master's intervention. Yes? Accept it, get it, good it, got it, good God. Indeed.

Now, for some time we've all been talking about the Ascended Masters' Consciousness and really opening and inviting that in, so now in preparation for phase three, for the levels of phase three of this miracle class we start to get into some substantive stuff. Everything up to now has been kind of fluffy, yet very important foundation of restoration, reclaiming lost will, the miracle of the Violet Flame, a number of things that have come in, in the various levels of the first two phases, all fundamental and needs to be part of that foundation yes?

Yet I've got a question before I introduce the second miracle here which has to do with Ascended Master Consciousness. That question is the following;

Whom of you would be interested in proving the difference the Ascended Masters can make in your life in the most profound and dramatic way that is full of awe, full of grace, full of excellence, full of fulfillment, whom amongst you might be interested in entering into a conscious application that's not too difficult, that will open the way for you to prove how including the Ascended Masters in your life can make a dramatic difference to you and open the way to such great freedom, such great fulfillment, such great coming into your True and Whole Self out of which then you can live all that you have discovered is the true spiritual nature of your I AM Being-ness, Light, Love, Beauty, Joy, Intelligence and Perfection. Have you got the question? Oh, I've got all hands up, have I got 100% here? Ron's hand is not up. Okay, we've got 100% participation, excellent, excellent.

Now the next thing is we've got to get past this human condition where if it's not high tech, if it's not complicated, if it doesn't have big scientific words, it can't be the truth. We've got to get past what even the prophet said to you, the truth is simple when you find it and you've got to really open your heart to some really simple applications that could win for you some very powerful results if you understand what's behind those applications, alright? So that's something too? Okay.

So the idea here is miracle number two is a miracle of approaching the Ascended Masters' Consciousness in your life in a whole new way that allows you to prove including the Ascended Masters in your daily life can make a profound and beautiful difference in your life, alright? Okay, based on that here is the instruction, really easy; Three times a day you're going to stop for maybe about three minutes,

“And I am going to invite Ascended Master Consciousness into my being and my world, and in doing so I realize I am going to remind myself I am inviting the Ascended Master’s thoughts, I’m inviting the Ascended Master’s designs, Ascended Master’s pictures, Ascended Master’s feelings, Ascended Master’s activities, Ascended Master powers, I’m inviting all of that to come into my being and my world, all the atmosphere of my world, so when I take a moment three times a day and I pour my love to my beloved Mighty I AM Presence, and through my Presence I pour my love up into the Ascended Master Realms, into the Ascended Master Consciousness and there I say,

“To all the Ascended Ones, Great Cosmic Beings and Legions of Light, in the name of the Mighty I AM Presence you all have been offering your Ascended Master Consciousness into the lives of all who will awaken that we may benefit using your consciousness. It’s going to be easier for us to embody our Presence if we accept your guiding hand and I understand.

“In a moment now I’m going to be calling your Ascended Master Consciousness into my being, into my consciousness, my mind, my feeling,, my physical garment, all the energy of my world, and I am calling that my entire being, my entire world be flooded, be charged, be filled overflowing with Ascended Master Consciousness which includes every perfection that has ever been created in the Ascended Master Realms, the Ascended Master Mind, the Ascended Master thinking, Ascended Master thoughts, Ascended Master conversations, Ascended Master images, designs, pictures, feelings, powers.”

You see, everything that has ever been in the Ascended Masters’ Octave, it’s all there, it’s all available, it’s all on record, it’s all real and it’s all available to one who turns their attention there, if, if they are using the Sacred Fire. You see, the big ‘if’ is not that we’re trying to ply you and convince you to use the Sacred Fire, it’s just that our consciousness will not register and become something you can use unless you’re using the Sacred Fire, because the Sacred Fire produces enough purity, enough harmonics, enough environment that the Light and Love can expand so that when the Ascended Master pictures, Ascended Master thoughts, Ascended Master designs start flowing in to your mind you can start seeing them, you can start picking them up. And when Ascended Master feelings start pouring into your feeling you are sensitive enough to feel that Ascended Master joy, or that Ascended Master victory, or whatever Ascended Master quality is important to you so that when you’re working on the various tasks that are before you and you know that Ascended Master consciousness must include Ascended Master solutions, Ascended Master way of living life...

You see what this is I’m doing? You can’t leave the term “Ascended Master Consciousness” flat. It’s like Akasha invited you on Wednesday night past; if you don’t know what something means to you, if it doesn’t have meaning to you you’re not going to be able to use it. And it’s a lovely powerful phrase, “Ascended Master Consciousness,” and everything that that phrase suggests is within it is available to your use, but if you don’t think about it, if you don’t ask yourself, “What’s in the Ascended Masters’ Consciousness?” if you don’t ask yourself, “What does it mean to me?” then you’re not going to be very useful in actually embracing that gift and making it real, making it so real inside your mind.

If you open to the Ascended Master Consciousness, if you really understand, just take a moment because you've been in the human so long you can understand all the various things that can be in a human consciousness, you've got human beings who are basically good, you've met human beings who are basically real bad asses, and sorry, I don't apologize for using that word because they are. You've met human beings that are just downright destructive. You've met human beings that just – you know – they're just lollypopping around, they're just not willing to do the work and make the difference in their life. You've met all sorts of human beings, you could actually write essays for days and days and days of the various different and quite unique human consciousnesses that exist down here right?

Alright, so if you're really going to use the Ascended Master Consciousness, if you're really going to be able to take three minutes, three times a day and you're going to come into this group with Asun. This group of students within Akasha's student body is coming into a group that Asun invites anyone who wants to be in it, and that is I am interested in proving, in proving, in proving what a great difference it makes in life of the spiritual aspirant, one who is awakening, if they include the Ascended Masters.

I say to you there's a lot of people out there on various spiritual paths; they don't like the attention on the Ascended Masters, they think and they'll tell you, "No, the attention should be on us, the attention should be on the human, the attention should be processing all the stuff I'm going through. The attention shouldn't be up on the Ascended Masters." There's plenty, at least 70% of the spiritual evolutionary groups out there will come at you and go, "I'm not interested in the Ascended Masters, I'm interesting in going and finding some life coach that can process me through my stuff, or blah, blah, blah, or help me face the dark side of my being because somebody told me I'll never know the Light, I'll never know the bright side of my being if I'm not willing to face the dark side."

My goodness, dear hearts, you know, don't waste my time, get out of here if that is what you believe because you have had hundreds of lifetimes of facing the dark side, actually you're excellent at it and you don't need to ever do it again, dear hearts. So there's lots of various specialized so-called spiritual groups out there that will say, "I don't like hearing this Ascended Master stuff, it doesn't seem real to me; what's real is bringing my Spirit and bringing my Presence." Well guess what dear hearts you don't have enough time. If you exclude us, you don't have enough time to bring your Spirit, to bring your Presence, to bring all that humans have denied, you don't have enough time, there's not enough will left if you don't include the Ascended Masters. It would take you probably another ten million years and there's no guarantee even then you'd come out of it.

Now the Ascended Masters, if you are in contact with the real voice of an Ascended Master, an Ascended Master never comes along and tells you what to do with your life, we're just interested in getting you to remember, this is who you are, this is what happened and it made you something else and this something else that it made you is not as real as you think. You can undo it; you can get back to your Self. And there are powers in this universe; you don't have to reinvent power. There are powers in this universe and we can extend the help just like the elders in your own communities can extend help because they've been through things before you went through things.

So I just really want you to approach this with – put some meat on the bones here, be substantive, be able to say, "What does it mean?" Because I'm about to give you a technique that if you use this technique three times a day in which you pour your love to your Presence, you pour your love into the Ascended Master Octave, the Ascended Master Realms, and then you have a dialogue,

“I imagine up there in the Ascended Master Realms Ascended Beings, Goddesses, Gods, Angelics, Great Cosmic Beings in their beautiful Cities of Light attending their errands, attending their business just as we all are attending our business down here, except everything that’s going on up there in the Ascended Master Realms is in a state of such beauty, a state of endless joy, a state of perfection, not one thing out of place, not even – you will not ever find one speck of dust in the Ascended Master Octave.”

Sorry dear, we got tired of cleaning up dust, the Violet Flame does it for us and we love and bless the Violet Flame for doing it as well. Just take a moment and make it real to you, there’s a realm, there’s an octave of Ascended Beings, they’re living up there, they’re resting, they have beautiful homes and the Ascended Masters have minds and hearts just like we have minds and hearts. They conceive; they speak to each other; they design whatever’s in their octave. The Ascended Master Architects and Designers and beauticians and everything, all came together and created the beauties of their Cities of Light. And they have much higher laws of science than your present understanding of physics and so forth. So when I say, “Ascended Master Consciousness,” what is that? That’s everything that exists in the Ascended Master Realms including trillions of perfect manifestations.

So if I’m about to take some time and pour my love through my Presence to the Ascended Masters, into their octave, and say, “Fill me, charge me, in fact fill me overflowing with your Ascended Master Consciousness, your Ascended Master thoughts, your Ascended Master images that you as Ascended Beings hold in your mind, your Ascended Master designs that create nothing but perfection, your Ascended Master music, Ascended Master melodies, Ascended Master feelings, your Ascended Master powers, your Ascended Master sciences, your Ascended Master technologies...

“...fill my mind, my feelings, my being, my world, charge me with your Ascended Master Designs, your Ascended Master Consciousness, your Ascended Master Light that makes me such a Sun’s Presence of Light that all that is the dark side cannot even look in my direction.”

So there you know I’ve pretty well used up your three minutes. What if you did that three times, however, the thing is you do this knowing what Ascended Master Consciousness means to you, because if you haven’t taken a little walk with yourself and asked yourself,

“What does it mean, what does Ascended Master Consciousness that they are willing to share their consciousness with us, they’re actually asking us to give them permission to start using the Great Light Rays, Love Rays, Sound Rays and Sacred Fire to transfer into our minds, to transfer into our physical garments, to transfer into our feelings and world all they've created up there, all the perfection they've created which includes Ascended Master solutions, Ascended Master ways of doing things, Ascended Master state of mind."

Imagine your mind being charged with a state of mind that knows only abundance. You see an Ascended Master's mind does not know how – now follow this – an Ascended Master's mind does not know how to conceive limitation, lack. First of all conception is to bring forth from an infinite wellspring of energy all that you desire, conception. Conception is the nature of the whole mind; perception is the nature of the broken mind, right? It is impossible for an Ascended Being who must have a whole mind to conceive lack, you can't. So if you're asking that your mind be charged with Ascended Master mind, Ascended Master thoughts - you only have to remind yourself,

"Then an Ascended Master's mind can only conceive abundance, perfection, right, and that's what I'm charging into my own consciousness, meaning I'm charging into my mind, my feelings, the very physical consciousness of my physical body, Ascended Master Light, Ascended Master Love, Ascended Master activity, Ascended Master solutions. What about an Ascended Master voice? It's unlimited!

Why is it unlimited? Because an Ascended Master's consciousness is infinite in nature because it becomes the consciousness of the I AM Presence. The Ascended Master is the individual who has entered into a physical reality and has drawn a physical vessel out of that reality and has drawn its Light, its Spirit, its Presence into that physical body, raised it up into the Electronic Body of its Unfed Flame and achieved the Ascension, and is the embodiment of the I AM Presence. So therefore, the consciousness of the Ascended Master must be the consciousness of the I AM Presence, the I AM Presence being a source of perfection then its consciousness replicated and individualized of the Infinite must be the Infinite Consciousness. So you see what you begin to draw on?

So the key is here you sense where I'm going with this, (Yes)Unbelievable as it sounds here's the challenge, the challenge is getting all of you who are committing to be this 100% group to remember three times a day, three minutes – so that's nine minutes to remember to stop what you're doing, remember the Ascended Master Consciousness;

"This is that time to place my attention through my Presence upon the Ascended Master Realms and to really start living what they've been offering us for years. They offered this through the I AM Activity."

This isn't that new dear hearts, it was our Blessed Mary, Mother Mary that offered this through the I AM Activity first, and so for years it's been offered. So you know, “Asun is saying, he’s trying to find a way, Asun is trying to find a way to make this more real in my personal experience.” Why?

Because I know that once you really start experiencing Ascended Master thoughts, Ascended Master ideas, Ascended Master designs and images in your mind, once you start feeling Ascended Master feelings come up in you there’ll be no question where your power resides, there’ll be no question about your mind’s ability to design what you’d like to be and experience and become. There’ll be no question in your heart’s ability to clothe that with the Love that fulfills and there’ll be no question that your feelings, qualities, come with unlimited power. Well you’ll only know that by allowing yourself to be charged with Ascended Master Consciousness;

“Fill me overflowing,” and go through it different ways; “Fill my consciousness, fill my being, fill my mind, body and feelings, fill all the energy around me, fill all the atmosphere of my life and everything that’s inside my life, my work, my relationships, my family, fill all of it with your Ascended Master Consciousness, your Ascended Master activities, Ascended Master thoughts, images, pictures, feelings, designs, solutions, abundance. Fill me overwhelmingly with your Ascended Master Light, Ascended Master Love, Joy, Beauty and Perfection that leaves no room for the old duality or discord of the human to exist in me or my world any longer; Ascended Master assistance, Ascended Master help.”

Just sit with this, do some notes around this and really pour your love and make the call, get on with your day. Do this three times a day. Use your free will; add in continuity, continuity – every day, every day! Remind yourself,

“I am reaching up to a realm where only perfection exists. The Beings in that realms are actually saying as long as I use and embrace the Sacred Fire they can fill me and charge me and send to me their Ascended Master Consciousness which can then begin to unfold in my consciousness. And why would I be interested in doing that? Well it’s going to bring everything into balance in my mind, physical garment and feelings, it’s going to expand, it’s going to open the way, it’s going to create the ideal environment inside me and outside me that I can embody the True Divine Nature of my own Great God Presence.”

You see the Ascended Masters don’t come to be your Presence, the Ascended Master comes to give you the gifts that are going to create an environment inside you where you can then step forth the Mighty I AM Presence, because with Ascended Master consciousness and help and activities going on inside you and charged into all your world, environment, for the fulfillment of your hopes, your dreams, the environment for your Resurrection, the union with your Christ Self and Soul, comes into manifestation much more easily.

So, do you understand this commitment, three times a day. So do you understand this is a commitment, the best of your ability, and if you have an 'oops' and, "I only did it twice yesterday," then pick up the next day and do it four times, just do your best, that's what I'm asking you.

But the thing is if you know yourself, if you know yourself well enough and you know that chances are five, six weeks from now you'll go in there and you'll try to evaluate as to whether it's making a difference and if you don't think it is five, six weeks from now you'll drop out. I'm encouraging you to go into that place because if there's a chance that you might drop out five, six, seven weeks from now, I don't want you part of this group. I would rather you stay out of the group until you go and talk to yourself and say,

"Look, I understand what Asun's trying to do. He's also trying to get a group of people that will work together so that we have the power of five, six, seven working together. I also understand that he's trying to get me to prove to myself that if I don't give up, if I don't come in and try to evaluate and judge how well I'm doing, if I'll just keep doing it and doing it and doing it, not for three months four months, no, I do it until I see the results, and when I see the results and I like the results I'm going to keep doing it, right?" So ask yourself,

"Is there a chance that five, six weeks from now that this is going to be one of those things that I put on the shelf; I tried it for awhile, I didn't notice really any change and it's one of those things that I put on the shelf and then forgot about it." Is there a chance that that could happen? Ask yourself that and if there is say,

"Okay, then I'm not going to start this until I give this attention. Why would I try something that is so promising that only requires three minutes of my time three times a day?"

So I want you to talk yourself into doing it, and I want you to actually say to yourself,

"If I think that maybe two months into this that I might go, 'uh this isn't really working,' and put it on the shelf, then I don't want to start this. I don't want to start this until I've convinced myself, but I'm also going to remind myself that I am delaying."

I'll go back to the beginning words, who here might be interested in proving to yourselves the profound difference that it can make in your life if you include the Ascended Masters more in your daily life? Who would be interested, who would be interested in experiencing that and having that freedom absolutely. So you know, go back, go back, remember what this is about; this is about you using your free will with the knowledge. You have gained a great knowledge. Now it's time to put this knowledge to work for you and you say,

"Alright I'm going to use my free will here and if that's what it takes I am, yes I'm very interested in proving to myself and to others who might then care to listen when they see the difference. "You know, what's going on with you in your life, you look great these days. You know it's like how come everything's going so awesome for you in your life?" "Well, you really want to know?"

And then you can share with them. But it's just an amazing space to come in to dear heart. But you know, there's another place that you have to visit very carefully, and that's where –

"Am I holding out on myself?" what would be the side effects of me having this miracle experience of the Ascended Masters' Consciousness in my life, would that put a big responsibility on me, would that draw attention to me?"

You see the altered ego will be really sneaky here; it'll come up and say, "Do you really want to do this? You know its going to create a lot of miracles, it might even produce some phenomena in your life, this might draw some attention to you, are you really ready for having attention, are you ready to explain to the world how you created that phenomena, are you really ready to explain to the world how you manipulated that outcome to be a different outcome rather than the pending disaster it could have been?"

You've got to say 'yes' to all of that, because your grace, your prominence, your glory will never bring you into a place in which you're doing something you never want to do, that's not how Life works! The more you become your Presence the easier it is to be everything you desire. There are lots of Ascended Beings who once in their evolution, in their resurrection quietly moved around the world and did their things behind the scenes, and kept their blouse over their Light. And there are other Ascended Beings like me who were very dramatic and flamboyant and well you can go further than that! Yeah, Asun will confess, I had a real 'look at me' kind of attitude but you know what, it was because I just loved what I discovered. When I loved what my true nature could do I just loved it because I realized that my true nature could not do what it was doing without me showing up, so I just loved me all the more for showing up! Yes dear hearts? Indeed. So you know, you can't do any of this without loving yourself and so that's it!

We're really going to open the way here, for the miracle of the Ascended Master Consciousness has been presented before, but the real miracle is providing the space within yourself that you will show up three times a day and call this in. And don't you know, don't do it three times in one hour and then say, "I got my three times in!" that's not what it's about, it's about some time in the early part of the day and maybe some time more in the later afternoon towards supper time and then maybe later in the evening doing this so that your consciousness is again returning to the Ascended Master Activities. Just really try to get that feeling of charging into the atmosphere and filling yourself overflowing with that Ascended Master Consciousness which includes Ascended Master images, Ascended Master thoughts, Ascended Master mind, Ascended Master design, Ascended Master music, Ascended Master powers, Ascended Master feelings and whatever else you can think of, Ascended Master solutions, the Ascended Masters' way of living life, the Ascended Masters' way of response. How about the Ascended Masters' ability that helps me to easily forget my days in the human?

Ah dear hearts all I say is God help you in the Wednesday class because I know all the moments that you all have human moments and you yourselves are the authors, you are the originators and you yourselves are the cause of those human moments because your attention is constantly upon things that are not working out, and if your attention is upon things that are not working out don't expect them to work out.

Everything you entertain in your mind will become a reality, you cannot afford to think about what you don't want, you're too powerful! And, if the feeling comes up before the thought you know that feeling, you know that feeling of anxiety, you know that feeling of concern; breathe, use your spiritual tools yes?

You know because eventually you're called to the wall, you're called to the wall of your own Divine Self because you've heard so many wonderful spiritual truths and yet so often there can be situations that you haven't moved beyond and I can point you out to one very strong spiritual application; 1996, 1997 four times, 1998 sixteen times, 1999 three times, year 2000 seven times – what am I doing? I'm viewing all the times that we gave this simple application, very simple application over and over. And the proof that you don't let yourself remember these simple applications means there's a part of you that's quite okay with whatever limitation is going on, otherwise you would have taken up this application because it doesn't get easier. Would you want me to remind you what this application is now?

Well you get an image, you get an image and for now we recommended that the image you use of Jesus Christ Emanuel is the image that was presented in the I AM Activity. You get that image, you see him in his beautiful golden robes, beautiful white light all around him. Use it for everything; we even challenged you, you don't even have to think, just use the image, just use the image! Got a headache? Visualize a miniature of him where you have the headache, put it there. Got a tummy ache? He won't mind, put a miniature image of him in your tummy. Want your Unfed Flames to expand so you start to enjoy the deep involuntary breaths? See him standing in your golden flames. You desire to have an easier time of it, to have some new opportunities with money and supply? Visualize him standing over something that represents that to you. Know something that you'd like to create? Bring the image to mind and see him standing giant-sized inside the image. You have no idea the power of his name, never mind his Presence dear hearts, yes?

It's just amazing and yet the students will spend ten, fifteen, twenty minutes going over their problems, blah, blah, blah, blah, blah. Well you know, Asun's not offering any apology because now that you understand nature better and if you choose to place your attention for ten, twenty minutes talking about your problem, when you could get to work and use your spirituality; okay, bring your problem to your mind for three, four seconds, and then in its place see the Ascended Jesus Christ standing over your problem. You don't even have to say "Jesus, fix my problem." But no, sometimes it's easier just to stay in the old familiar way, the old familiar energy because that's what you're familiar with hmmm? Isn't that amazing? It's just his Power, his Grace, his Glory and the fact that he is who he is as the Great I AM is endless. You want a beautiful physical garment? Visualize that, close your eyes, see that garment and then see him standing larger than life, giant over that garment. Why? Because he is Perfection, he is Ascended Master Solution, Ascended Master Consciousness, yes?

So last year was a great year for a lot of the students, last year was also a challenging year for some of the students. This year will get more challenging and more difficult if you do not see the signs and see the reflections because you worked hard for this awakening and you know, confidence, faith and having a little less tolerance with your human self that is willing to complain, or place the attention upon things that just don't deserve attention. Your own life is going to call you on it, and I mean it is really painful to create more suffering when that suffering is a result of you not remembering your highest truths.

In these days ahead as valuable as the art of decreeing will be your art of qualifying and for you to understand that the art of qualifying, said in a different way, your art of qualifying is your art of knowing. You see there are some big pieces that you're just on the verge of but you just keep letting the ball just whiz right past you, you hear so many important parts,

"I can have everything I want, I can create everything I want, I can create that house, I can qualify to have a new home." But then you bring the old human in, the old human that has to,

"Yeah I can have a new home, now what do it have to do, I've got to go out and work for it, I've got to go out and do this, I've got to go out and take care of all the details." That's the old human, that's the closed consciousness. Yes you do!

But the new human the awakened human you don't, the awakened human you make a choice and if you want to be involved financially in the coming together of all the money and everything you can qualify it, or, you can quality that it's all going to be taken care of and it's going to be there. And then, you've got to move it into your knowing so there's no part of the doubt vibration.

So you're going to hear a lot of things over these next weeks that prepare you for the autumn curriculum because, dear hearts, we're getting in to, well just let me say that Asun will be infinitely patient with that aspect of you that's trying your best, but that aspect of you that's just so willing to go back to the old way of thinking and talking and approaching, you will find very little tolerance, you will find Asun won't look; my attention's somewhere else.

Don't bring your past to Asun. You want to hang around there? That's your business. But don't bring your past to me. Bring your present and your future and I will see you there, I will join you there. Akasha has a great curriculum for this autumn; don't hold it up by being willing to not forget duality, by not being willing to forget how you created all the limitations in your life.

Be open, wonderful new time is coming and that also means a little bit of discipline in the mind and feelings when it's necessary. We love you so much, and my patience is infinite but I get to choose where I give that patience. God bless you dear hearts.

Three minutes a day, three times a day; you do your best and I will show up. And what's the game plan?

"The game plan – I am part of a group and we are committed to prove what a difference the Ascended Masters make in our lives when we include them and the way we include the Ascended Masters is we invite their consciousness into our consciousness." And we've covered all the ways that we do that, yes?

Namaste, God bless you dear hearts, indeed, indeed, absolutely, and you know, perhaps school will find a way for the recording of Peter to be available on the internet to whomever would like to enjoy it. These are not my ways, I do not use this technology so all I'm saying is a recommendation, understand? Namaste dear hearts, let your Light be Glory, let your Love be Grace.

We love and bless you Asun, we thank you thank you, thank you for your Presence and we are so grateful that our Beloved Emanuel drew forth the attainment of Peter to be with us this day, we are so grateful to You Beloved Emanuel. Deep breath everybody.
