Akasha and Asun

1 – A time of Destiny:

Musical interlude...Good evening everybody (Good evening Usa) and welcome to a beautiful evening, the weekly transmissions of our Beloved Akasha and Asun who come to us ascended and free, and I just feel prompted, for I haven't shared it, when you hear the beautiful music that is playing in the background we are listening to the music that is provided to us by one of the world leading artists of meditation music, Paul Armitage. I just wish to – nice to acknowledge him once in awhile yes? (Yes) Indeed.

So let's take a deep breath...and come together in an opening meditation on the Great Presence that abides within us and above us and the Ascended Host. Closing our eyelids and beginning a gentle journey of turning our attention inwards...dropping our attention into the chest cavity where there abides three Sacred and Holy flames that are called The Unfed Flames of Love, Wisdom and Power, pink, gold and blue. Visualize those three flames in the centre of the chest cavity out of which a Golden Sun's Presence unfolds and surrounds those flames. Visualize and feel this great spiritual centre that abides within you...and through visualization as you acknowledge those Mighty God Flames let us acknowledge too the Source of those flames, the first flame the Sacred Fire that abides within our hearts a tiny flame of Divine Love.

And with all of our attention within does our Beloved Presence expand those flames and Love pours out from our hearts into our earthly garments, our mind, feelings, and out into our world. The Great Golden Sun's Presence of our Unfed Flames expands releasing waves of their golden radiance throughout our physical garments, up into our minds and out into the feeling side of life; visualize and feel it. And imagine those golden waves of that Inner Sun's Presence continuing to release passing through your physical garment forming a golden halo all around you; visualize and feel it. Invocation to Life, communing inwardly and quietly....

“Through this ever-expanding spiritual centre that abides within I enter the throne room of my Divinity and I greet my Essential Self I AM formed of the Infinite I AM Presence Mother/Father God of our universe. My Beloved I AM Presence the higher aspect of the One Self I AM that I AM, as I place my attention upon thy Magic Presence that abides within me and above me I pour my love up to you and I thank you for the Gift of Life; you are the Source, the Greater Source of my Life on Earth and all life on Earth and I say 'yes' to Life and 'yes' to you my Beloved I AM Presence my True Self and all your glory all your grace all your light all your love all your wisdom all your Presence all your beauty and all your perfection expressing through my feelings, my mind, my thoughts, my physical garment and out into my world of manifestation; I just pour my love to you.

And in these days that I may live and experience my True Self on Earth do I call upon you my Beloved Presence and the Great Beings who direct the Sacred Fire to the Earth especially the Violet Flames, the Mighty Saint Germain and his Angels of Violet Flame to blaze up in through and around me the great Violet Consuming Flames of Divine Love in all their dynamic activity, and as you pass those Violet flames through my feelings my mind my physical garment my being and world, I call upon those Violet Flames to silence and consume any fear or doubt or discord that is yet registered in my being and world and all mistakes that I have been responsible for in this or any other embodiment past present and future, cause effect record and memory, and I love and bless those Violet Flames, and I accept their great reality passing through my being and world offering the great cleansing and purification that I may go forth and embody the fullness of my Mighty I AM Presence on Earth. I thank you." Visualize and feel the great pillar of Violet Flame Love Mercy and Forgiveness passing up in through and around you. Deep breath.

"My Beloved Great God Presence I AM and to the Ascended Masters, I welcome the greater protection that you offer us as we make this call; enfold us now in your Mighty Magic Tube of Ascended Masters' Light Substance drawn down and around and below us; seal us in thy Great Cosmic Armour of Light that makes us invisible invincible invulnerable to the discord that yet exists in this world, an Armour of Light that makes us more sensitive to thy Golden Voice that speaks through our hearts each day. We thank you." Visualize and feel the Great Tube of Light enfolding you.

"Our Beloved Mighty I AM Presence we take this moment to acknowledge the Ascended Master Elect of 2010 the Great Archangel Michael and we call to him to produce the most wondrous manifestations of the Sacred Fire upon the Earth that awakens the mass of the people to that great activity of the Sacred Fire and to their own great awakening, and Beloved Michael we are grateful for the added protection you offer us as we call upon you to continue to strengthen, to build and strengthen a wall of Cosmic Blue Flames outside our Tube of Light until we are free in the Resurrection and the Ascension, we thank you.

Now our Beloved Mighty I AM Presence we call upon you to expand and expand and expand thy Great Unfed Flames within us; make us such an outpouring of Divine Love, make us such a Golden Sun's Presence that raises us and makes us a blessing a healing and raising activity to all life on Earth. We thank you.

And into our gathering today and into the homes of all who consciously turn towards the Light Beloved Angels come, we love to give the Angelic Host recognition. To our Guardian Angels, the Healing Angels, the Angels of the Sacred Fire, the Great Cherubim the Love Angels, the Seraphim the Great Cosmic Light Angels, Angels of the Music of the Higher Spheres and the Great Central Sun's Angels of the Immortal Flames of Cosmic Christ Love. Beloved Angels come, we thank you and bless you for your great service to life, and pour forth thy great blessings of your own heart flames in through and around all to assist each one to fulfill the higher purpose and divine plan their own Presence has for them. We thank you beloved Angels." Let's take a deep breath.

"And now we come to that time that our Beloved Akasha asks us to hold a higher vision for some friends or family in our lives in which we are calling forth continuously unfolding miracle-making moments into their lives. Bring to mind the names or images of four to five people in your life, just hold your attention upon them a few moments and know that we as one are calling forth to their Mighty I AM Presence, the Ascended and Angelic Host to bring about the most wondrous miracle-making moments into their lives that is the perfect and Divine assistance they most require at this time, and we are so grateful to be of service in this way. And then hold the silence as we open our hearts to the love our Beloved Mother Akasha offers us this day.

Akasha:

And let us take a deep breath together...and when you are ready return your awareness into the outer room. A glorious day of Grace upon each of you this day dear hearts; I am Akasha and I greet you in the fullness of your own Great God Presence and enfold you in the outpouring of my Love to Life that is known as the Mother's Presence, the great Rose Pink Flames of Divine Love, Will and Grace. May the Great Glorious God of your being find its liberating expression in your minds, your thoughts, your feelings and the physical garments that all of you one day must prepare to offer up to the One Great Presence I AM that each of you are as the Temple of the Most High. I greet you.

My sharing this evening; "A Time of Destiny." To all of you who are my beloved family, to all of those awakening around the world and to those who will soon be part of the next great wave of awakened ones upon the Earth, for this great wave of all humanity that has come through the awakening that started in the early 1900's, that great wave if you will, that wave, the door that opened the way to make possible for all to complete their awakening will close in 2012 and open the way for the next great awakening; the next great wave of humankind to awaken. And while the Great Cosmic Law draws forth activities that are perfect for the next great wave, then it is the first wave of awakened ones who must begin the next great journey on Earth, it is a journey that you have heard us speak about, it is the journey of becoming, the journey of Resurrection.

In this great journey and in the times ahead all of us, you my family, Asun and I and those Ascended Beings working with my dispensation and others of other dispensations, we are all ready. We are all ready to take the various classes, the workshops, the conclaves of this mighty activity that is registered in your world as the Radiant Rose Academy to that level in which the Wednesdays will continue to be an open door, in which not only dear hearts, do we have the opportunity to greet you every week, we also have the opportunity to greet others who are awakened who have not yet discovered our dispensation, and to greet those in the days ahead that will be part of the next great awakening.

Therefore I say to all of you those of you who have become versed in the understanding of the next great journey that is Becoming, it is the Miracle Classes, the Freedom Classes, the workshops, the conclaves and a new class that is coming in 2011, it is all these classes that will have what you might come to understand as that advanced knowledge that assists and supports each of you to the great journey of Resurrection that is your destiny to fulfill. The Wednesdays will continue to offer us the opportunity to examine, examine and re-examine the laws of metaphysics, the fundamentals of the Tree of Life, the laws of manifestation, understanding the aspects of your self, and all these things.

There is a thing that occurs in the human octave from time to time and I will use, I will not speak my own words I will speak the words of the Mighty Saint Germain in which he said, "Woe to the one who criticizes the words, the discourses, the transmissions of an Ascended Being; they know not the debt and the karmic encumbrance of suffering they bring unto themselves." You would not want to know the amount of individuals in the 1900's who criticized some of the transmissions of the Mighty Saint Germain or the numbers who have criticized my own transmission for that which I have brought to your attention before, and that is the necessity to repeat ourselves. There are many who have walked away and said, "We've heard this before," and you already know blessed hearts, you already know my response, don't you? (Yes)

And my response is, when you are all living it and making it real and experiencing it and actualizing these things, I will silence myself in bringing those things to your attention. Until that time, and for all you blessed advanced students as we turn the other classes to the next great journey, I would urge you to not walk away from the Wednesday transmissions; they offer you the fundamentals, they offer you a re-examination of the great universal laws, they bring your attention back to the foundation of which life unfolds. And of course, in the wonderful way that even general humankind are awakening and are in a different place than they were 25 to 50 years ago, so if we return your attention to something that we brought forth say 15 years ago, encouraging all of you as you embraced your great awakening again to choose peace, yet we will turn your attention in a way that hopefully brings about a new approach with it, you understand?

So dear hearts, as I speak to you I speak to all humankind awakened and those who are about to enter the great awakening. You all have a destiny and a time of destiny is upon this planet. This planet since the great renaissance period that was initiated by great events that unfolded on this planet over the last 3000 years, it is in the great renaissance period that the way was found for the modernization of the human race. Out of that renaissance period came forth the great engineering age, the industrial age, the electrical age, the digital age and what is beginning to unfold now with scientists working behind the scenes; their discoveries so amazing to themselves that they are hiding their results in working with the new crystal age that will unfold when we get into the year 2013 and onwards.

In all of these various ages has been the coming of destiny, a destiny to be fulfilled. Long ago humankind cried out for help and assistance and long ago, more than 50,000 years ago the assistance came, not in a way that was quickly or directly experienced. The assistance came in terms of a Divine Plan that would draw visionaries, great beings from the universe to your world to bring about a passage of events that would ready humankind for their awakening, open the way for the Light to come back onto this planet, open the way for the Great Flames of Life Eternal that had all but completely been removed from human consciousness, to find an understanding in some of the people.

A destiny calls the entire human race, a destiny that seeks to fulfill itself. A destiny that brings about first of all, through the great sufferance and the great dissatisfaction and the insanity that is on this planet, that which through circumstance brings about awakening to your True Nature. It brings about a path of self-realization, a path in which you're drawn to spiritual books; spiritual understandings and sort through all of those to try to find one that ultimately will serve you and support you in that which ultimately allows you to come back to your True Self. Your True Self that was never intended to live in limitation, a Self that was never intended to live in imperfection.

The great destiny of all the human race is to rediscover the Sacred Fire. One can become very interested in the laws of metaphysics, the laws of this universe, laws of manifestation, yet if any of these laws or study of these things excludes the knowledge of the Sacred Fire, that knowledge is incomplete and the ability to work with those laws in a way to produce perfect results is handicapped, yes dear hearts?

So I say that one of the great destinies that all of you have fulfilled and those awakening around the world who know not yet the Sacred Fire, is to discover the Sacred Fire and to realize deeply that the Sacred Fire is ultimately the source of any great perfecting activity. Now let's just breathe into that dear hearts. The Sacred Fire is the ultimate source of any great perfecting activity, whether that is the perfecting of your thoughts, your minds, your feelings, your feeling side of life, or the perfecting of substance, vibration and form that becomes the outer physical manifestations of your world, yes? And so a time of destiny does bring everyone ultimately to those circumstances where they discover the Sacred Fire, and you try dear hearts, and you may be able to do it, to go back to the moment in which those catalysts, those circumstances in your life guided you to that place where you heard about the Sacred Fire the first time. And I say to all of you dear hearts, whether you felt it or not the super electron in your heart leaped for joy the moment the awareness of the Sacred Fire came to you.

In the health and wellness workshop we will study how the super and secondary electrons, that is the next hierarchy beyond what is known as the electrons that are part of an awakening atomic physical garment. We are speaking of the next level of electrons, the secondary electrons, the super electrons in which the student of Life realizes it is these themselves, secondary or superior, super, it is these electrons that have the ability to be so quickened that ultimately they become alive, a living flame.

For millions of years human beings lived with no flames alive and burning within their physical garments. Human beings depended, as the mass of them yet do, depended upon the incoming life force from the higher aspect of their Self known as the I AM Presence. The I AM Presence in which once a biological form has been born into this world, and the moment that biological form is no longer dependent upon the life of the biological mother, in the next moment the life in the biological form is supported by the life that enters into the super electron in the middle of the heart. This has sometimes been called the great spark of Love, the Adam Cadman Cell; many different names and different times of occult study. And as all of you have come to understand and those of you just awakening, as you hear the good news about the Sacred Fire there are many sources of study that are now available. Any time that your attention is upon the Sacred Fire with the ultimately conscious awareness that any flame of the Sacred Fire is an ultimate source of the great perfecting activity that can unfold in your minds, your feelings, your physical bodies and all outer physical form, and if you all keep that in your consciousness, your own inner guidance system will guide you to that unique knowledge of the Sacred Fire that you can begin to assimilate, understand, comprehend, and then work with.

For the mass of the people that have not yet awakened their life in their physical forms is dependent upon the life force coming in from the higher aspect of themselves. That life enters through the pineal gland at the top of the head and makes its way ultimately into the physical heart where it anchors into that great super electron. As you have heard us say before it is the desire to be the desire to become. It is constructive desire to be more than what exists in this world. It is desire itself that fans and quickens that electron in the heart and when the quickening, ratio, and the frequency of that electron reaches a certain state, it bursts into a living flame and that flame is the great flame of the heart. It is the heart's Love to Life, it is the first flame out of which all Light, all Love and future flames can be born in the earthly garment.

How can one possibly in studying occult, studying spirituality, hear the good news, hear what prophets and Christs and Buddhas have achieved, hear about those who've been raised from the dead, hear about those who've resurrected themselves and have demonstrated the Resurrection before humankind and raised again a luminous body such as Christ demonstrated in his time. How could that possibly be accomplished without some great correcting, some great restoring, some great perfecting activity being directed and unleashing its great expression through some substance, form and vibration? How is it possible that the biological form, that in these days the sinister force is trying to do everything to poison, through the conscious attempt to poison the water and the food of the lands, how is it possible with all the changes that the biological forms, forgive me, with all the challenges the biological forms of today with today's modern appearances of disease and toxins, how is it possible that biological forms, physical bodies could be raised into a frequency where there is such Light, where there is such Love, where there is powerful forces of will, where there is such power, and an intelligence acting behind all of those activities?

How can it happen? By the thriving awakening of the Sacred Fire and their Great God Flames within the biological form. There must be something dear hearts, that changes the rates of vibration and substance because I say to you in some of you yet there is some fear and doubt. In the mass of the people it has so charged their feeling bodies, their emotional bodies are so charged with fear and doubt. But to understand that these are rates of vibration that are acting in the emotional body, and as those rates of vibration find expression through the mental through the physical, they become substance, and that substance of course will be substance of great imperfection.

What is it that can possibly...when individuals and whole races of people have rates of vibration such as fear, doubt, even hatred or some of the terrible qualities of fear such as jealousy and all these things, and selfishness...if those things are acting and then there is some catalyst in their life that brings about, that triggers a wakeup call and an awakening, then that individual must have something that will remove those rates of vibration; that doubt, that fear and other human qualities. Those individuals must have something that will lift those things up and out of the mind, body and feelings. As long as they are there, they will be an obstacle to what the individual, through some great catalyst, has triggered them unto their great awakening. Those things will be an obstacle to the full realization of their awakening. Yet there is a Divine Plan that as you awaken you discover these things, and to fulfill the destiny that is before all of you is the necessity to discover the Sacred Fire and use it.

Now dear hearts, for all of you who've had this knowledge for some time, and to all of you who are just awakening to this knowledge, I'm going to share something with you. That spark of Love, that super electron which ultimately becomes the Great Love Flame in your heart, every time you turn your attention to its Presence within your heart, your own higher aspect of your Self, your Higher Discerning Intelligence, your Mighty I AM Presence, as we call it in our octave, increases the life force it is pouring into that Love Flame; it is your love, your acknowledgement, your attention.

If you have a trained ability to focus and hold your attention upon some great activity even without the use of thoughts, for this you would have to know that some great activity exists yes? You all dear heart, have the ability now to turn your attention into your physical heart and you know and you accept that there abides the Great Love Flame. Just holding your attention, just connecting to it will automatically cause your Beloved Great God Self I AM to release more life force into that flame, expanding its great activities into your mind, earthly garment and feeling side of life. You might ask, "Under what great authority, under what great intelligence does this occur?" Even without words, as long as there is the knowing in your being of these things, at this stage of awakening that all of you are at, you can simply place your right hand over your heart and just knowing that there is a Mighty Unfed Flame, a Great God Flame, the First Flame, the Great Heart Flame that is there. And just holding your attention there in loving acceptance and acknowledgement without even thoughts, without even an invocation your attention held there will cause your I AM Presence to increase the life force descending down from the heart of the Presence. It will begin expanding that Great First Flame which releases its Great Divine Activity and produce the opening of Divine Order, Divine Balance and Divine Harmony within your mind, feelings and body. This is necessary for the ultimate of all journeys, making your physical garment a Temple of the Most High. And so I say to you dear hearts, there is a destiny that all of you, my beloved family you have awakened to, and you have fulfilled that destiny, and a destiny yet for the many of who are to awaken will fulfill in their day.

This Great Flame in your heart I say to you dear hearts, how does it all happen, how could that happen? On the crown of the highest aspect of your Self known as the I AM Presence are written the words, "Command Ye Me," and where your attention goes your energy flows naturally; what you place your attention upon you ultimately become. The age of quickening is happening upon the Earth, it doesn't take nearly as long to manifest things or evolve or expand as it used to. Yet I say to you dear hearts, when you realize that when you place your attention upon your heart and you acknowledge the First Flame it lights up within the earthly garment of your Great God Presence. Acknowledge that Flame is your Presence, your Divine Self in its first initial active stage of living its Divine Expression in you, through you and ultimately as you. With that awareness you have the ability to now start calling upon your Beloved Mighty I AM Presence from its own Heart Flame and through your heart flame to now begin to bring about the Sacred Fire's Perfecting Activity in your minds, your feelings, your garments and into all physical outer manifestation of your world. It is your destiny to make this call; it is your destiny as Living Flames of Life to direct the perfecting activity that only the Sacred Fire can produce. That Flame is alive and burning brightly within your hearts; that Flame is the Source of the Threefold

Flame of Love, Wisdom and Power that burns brightly within all of you and one day will unfold in the next wave of awakened humanity.

Next is the coming of the Great Flames within the brain, the Sevenfold Flames of the Seven Mighty Elohim. Now from what I have shared with you, what mighty Flame will ultimately be the Source of awakening seven seeds that are within every human brain and awakening those seeds, open those seeds, so that out of those seeds the very Flames of the Powers of Creation unfold? Which Flame, what place, what source will ultimately bring about the opening and activity of the Great Creator Flames within your brain? The Heart Flame, absolutely dear heart.

And so, for all of you, you have fulfilled and are fulfilling that which are pinnacles of destiny of which there are many. You have reached peaks of great accomplishment and I say to you dear hearts, ready yourselves, prepare yourselves for perfection. As you gain control of your minds and your feelings, and as you are the thinker, not some altered ego, and you are managing your minds and feelings perfectly, well dear hearts you have this Great Love Flame that's within your heart and you call upon that:

“Through the Great Love Flame in my heart I greet the Heart Flame of my I AM Presence and it is through these Great Heart Flames I call upon my Beloved Presence to release its great Sacred Fire Perfecting Activity through my feelings, my mind, my physical garment and into all outer physical manifestation. I welcome the Sacred Fire's Perfecting Activity within me and in all outer physical manifestation and activity.”

It is your destiny as each of you are raised to think and feel and visualize perfection and choose what will be in your world, then to turn to the Heart Flame to release its All-Christ Sacred Fire Perfecting Activity into your mind, your feelings, your body and into all manifestation of physical substance. Do you understand? I thank you dear hearts. (I thank you!) This is a gentle reminder and a gentle demonstration how these Wednesdays we must revisit and revisit some of these things and keep the Wednesdays open to the tens of thousands who will discover my dispensation now. And I pray I have served you. Namaste. (Applause)

We love and bless you Akasha and may through the power of our attention we give you every opportunity to just shower us with thy great Rose Pink Rays of Love Will and Grace each and every day as we call upon the Infinite I AM Presence to bless and expand your dispensation to the Earth. We are so grateful. Deep breath.

3 – In All Things Come to Your Presence:

Musical interlude...Welcome back everyone, and deep breath...and let us welcome Asun's Presence by affirming the nine, soon-to-be nine pillars of the Diamond Heart remembering these are a great gift given to us by the Ascended Master Lord Maitreya, and they are nine electronic frequencies that are placed in the upper chest cavity, and ultimately they are fed by our own Mighty Unfed Flames. Together...

“I AM, I AM, I AM, by all God’s Love I know I AM an Authentic Heart, a Courageous Will, a Discerning Mind, a Strong Spine, a Healthy Garment, Herculean Life Force, Conviction of Purpose, Essential Harmlessness and Divine Consciousness.” Deep breath. Visualize and feel those golden pillars across the chest cavity and quietly call upon your Mighty Unfed Flames to expand into them releasing the active quality and activity of those pillars into our earthly embodiments. Deep breath.

Asun:

I Am here, it is Asun, nice to see you all. (Nice to feel you) Which one sounds right to you, in all things go to your Presence, or, in all things come to your Presence; the first or the second, which appeals to you most? The second? There’s only one word that changes, isn’t there? Said again, take a deep breath, in all things go to your Presence, or, in all things come to your Presence. Let’s say, hands up for ‘go to your Presence,” one, two. In all things, come to your Presence, we have a majority. So tonight’s discourse will be, “In all things, come to your Presence.” And for all of you who resonate “go to your Presence,” that’s my discourse too. (Laughter) Nice to see you dear hearts.

(In all things is your Presence) Ultimately in all things is your Presence, yes, so yes a gentle reminder from Beloved Akasha’s incoming message and I say the incoming messages that come to Asun are a million times faster than your electronic messengers that come to you via electronic mail or messaging, I have found that out. She’s very quick when she wants to get a message to me, it’s usually a poke, it’s usually a little lightning when she really wants to be obnoxious. Can you imagine, my Beloved Akasha obnoxious? (No, no) Well...no I’m not going to go there. Stop right there or I’m really going to get poked.

You know, yes when you desire something you know dear heart make the call to your Presence, but after you make the call you have to be one, there’s no particle of your being that can go into doubt, none. One, not one particle of doubt! You make the call to your Presence and as I introduced last week as very much a part of the path of resurrection, your calls will be quickened into results if after you make the call you then speak it out, “I command and I demand and I AM manifesting...” and then fill in the rest of the statement. So you’re taking the call for the release of something and then you’re putting it into an affirmation, right? And as the Mighty Saint Germain once said when you say, “I command,” you are using the right of your ability to use your free will. When you say “I demand,” you are stirring the ethers. In other words when you speak, Life is coming out from you, yes? And when you say, “I demand” you are stirring the ethers to do what? To record the command you are making.

Now dear hearts you beloved ones are probably the only ones on the Earth to get something straight, to get something corrected and this error was placed by the sinister force in the new age community. When there are those, and sometimes we even have students who will still make the error, so let’s get it right one more time. The Akashic Records are not the records of the past, they are not, not the records of the past, the Akashic Record is the record of the Divine Plan of Perfection your Presence has for you, once the way is opened for you to live that Divine Plan. The past, the past, the past is the etheric record dear heart and next, ether is everywhere in this universe, throughout all interstellar space there is ether in every atmosphere. We have it in our realms, and some refer to it as the fifth element, and it is the ether that perfectly records everything and when an Ascended Being can manipulate time and space or take you back through time, that Ascended Being is manipulating and activating the etheric record, alright, (Yes) alright? You got it?

Good, so all atmospheres have an etheric record and when you say, "I demand," that life that is coming forth, that intent imprints itself in the etheric record, its everywhere about you. So the record has been made and when you do this the etheric record which perfectly records the demand you have made then actually is helpful because your own Higher Mental Body and Mighty I AM Presence can use the etheric record of that command, cause, effect, record and memory. You are initiating cause by the call and the affirmation that you are making so when you make a call in the path of Resurrection it's so important to now transform it into a transformation.

"My Beloved Mighty I AM Presence, I so desire and I have made the decision to attend this upcoming Conclave. My Beloved Mighty I AM Presence you are the source of my life in all good, you are the treasure house of my life on Earth. I have made the decision, I will not waffle on this decision, I am going to Conclave. Now my Mighty I AM Presence for this to happen there are a number of things that must be coordinated, time off work, airplane tickets, money for attending the event. And my Beloved I AM Presence I am going and I look to you to provide everything that is required for me to attend this event." Yes? And then to transform that statement, "And I command, and I demand, and I am manifesting all that is required for my attendance at this Conclave." Yes? Indeed dear hearts.

So, again Akasha wishes that none of you put any stress or anxiety just because the circumstances may not be there for you to attend a Conclave. Ultimately your own life works with you in seeking to demonstrate where there might require some correcting activity in yourself so that your Presence can fulfill all your commands and all your demands, yes?

In all things go to your Presence, in all things come to your Presence. I feel that I may serve you today dear hearts by encouraging you, by encouraging you to have a contemplation once in awhile, "Who is my I AM Presence?" or, "What is my I AM Presence?" to keep before your consciousness, to keep in your awareness, because if you remember who and what your I AM Presence is to you, and you're remembering that consciously, that might just encourage you to come to your Presence or go to your Presence more often, Yes? Are you with me? (Yes)

So I encourage you to ask yourself, "Who and what is my Beloved I AM Presence? Well, where to start, what comes to me?" And we'll talk about it for a moment but only long enough to hopefully stir some encouragement for you to take this contemplation, to stay conscious. "Well what have I discovered? My Beloved Mighty I AM Presence is the perfect individualization of Mother/Father God, the Infinite I AM Creators of this universe." When it is said in scriptural and religious material that man is made in the image and similitude of God what that scripture is really referring to is not the human man. What it's really referring to is that the True Self is made in the image and similitude, an absolute replication, but not a replication like a robot. A replication in which that perfect individualized replication of Mother/Father God has its own thinking mind, feeling side of life endowed with the ability to make its own decision and choice and to draw forth into self evolution and outer manifestation all that that one desires and requires.

“My I AM Presence is my True Self, my I AM Presence is a dazzling mind, a whole heart, it is a pure being. My I AM Presence is a source of perfection. It is when I first came forth into creation this is the Self and the only Self that I knew myself as. Long before I entered into any physical world I existed as the Great Individualized Presence, the offspring of the Infinite I AM Mother/Father God. As I made the choice, because at that time I lived in the non-physical universe.”

Every universe has at its centre a non-physical universe which is also called a Great Central Sun. The Great Central Sun where Mother/Father God and the individualizations of their Presence exist is so great that our own galaxy known as the Milky Way could be placed inside the Great Central Sun and probably a thousand more galaxies; this is how big the centre of the universe is.

“There I existed in a spiritual electronic garment, an individualized Presence of Mother/Father God Being of absolute perfection, and when the invitation came to enter into the outer universe, the physical universe, a planet did I choose, a race of beings did I choose to become part of, and the opportunity was given me to take on a physical embodiment, to enter into the physical universe of form. And so as the I AM Presence that I AM, a Being of such Glory, Cosmic Light, Infinite Love, endowed also with the Soul of the Mother’s Presence, the mind of the Father.

The biological forms created for us as the I AM Presence were created in such a way that those biological forms, their molecules, their chromosomes, the cells and even the atoms, all could be imbued with the Light, the Love, the Presence, the Spirit I AM, and these biological forms of the I AM Race could be so raised as mortal forms into being immortal forms. Physical forms that would be perfect for that which is my destiny and that is to become one of the Great Gods or Goddesses of this universe.

There it is just not possible that the physical body can hold, can be an instrument of the I AM Presence, wholly and entirely. And so it is, as we come into these biological forms we bring the beginning of our Spirit through the Great Unfed Flame of the Presence and we begin to groom and culture the Light, the Love of our Divinity and grow the Great God Flames within our biological form. In this the multiple body system of the earthly embodiment which originally was to include the Higher Mental Body, the Discerning Intelligence all comes together, all aligned and all governed by the perfect mind and heart of the Beloved I AM that I AM.

And in my days of becoming the density of my biological form will transform and transcend into a higher density, a higher density in which the substance and vibration of the mind-body-feelings and so forth are so raised and so quickened, that that vibration does not register discord, limitation or imperfection any longer. By drawing forth the Beloved I AM Presence that I AM into the earthly embodiments gradually and safely; by growing, cultivating and expanding the Great God Flames, it is here that I can raise the biological form into being a temple of super consciousness, for my I AM Presence is a Super Conscious Being. My I AM Presence is the Source of all good, it is my treasure house.

In the long journey of becoming human we lost our way, we opened our mind to an illusion, we allowed our minds to be encumbered by a hypnotic belief. We all allowed ourselves to be hypnotized. We set aside the Tree of Life of true knowingness and we accepted an illusion, a belief in two powers, and a belief in evil. Over millions of years this caused us to lose sight and knowing of our True Self, and to live only a fraction of our Self. While we were living only a fraction of our Self, meanwhile every embodiment that we took in this world continued to be an embodiment in which the Source of Life in those bodies was the I AM Presence that I AM even though I forgot that I even had an I AM Presence or ultimately that I was that I AM Presence.”

It's amazing. You have a motion picture that's out right now, it is called, Inception.Inception? Inception. Many people are drawn to it yes? Hmmm, a dream, and dreams within dreams. It is said by some in occult and some in the mystical, the idea was originally introduced in India that man lives an illusion and when you wake up you realize you're living only a fraction of your True Self, likened to be a dream. Some have even made other minds crazy by suggesting that this itself that we're living on Earth in the world of form is the dream, but its not. Its just that it can be likened to a dream because the human law, the human consciousness, the fabric, the matrix of believing in two powers has become so entrenched over 10 million years in the human consciousness that it seems that no other consciousness could exist. The proof of this is that the mass of the people live in great controversy, arguments, opinions, no matter how stupid they are, as to whether there is life out there in the universe, proving the arrogance of the human race when it is governed by a closed heart and an altered ego. Absolutely? Um hmmm!

So dear hearts, you know over the 15 years of our dispensation, you know the many years of the dispensation of the I AM Activity while the two messengers were on the Earth in the I AM Activity, over and over and over, discourses by the hundreds and thousands have come forth educating the awakening of their Mighty I AM Presence. Yet even with that education the human awakened or studying these higher laws falls prey to the influences of fear, doubt or a mind that is not absolutely back in their own control. Because of this the Ascended Master Discourses, at least through our dispensation must also be so grounded in helping you to understand the calamity of the human condition and how to correct it. We can't keep bringing your attention to the sublime, we cannot keep bringing your attention to the Ascended Master gifts, qualities and powers without assisting you in understanding the human condition. As well as to how you might become free of the things that cloud your thinking or keep you from maintaining absolute sovereignty in your mind and feelings and not letting your thoughts and feelings run amuck. Now, I love that, I love that phrase, I love it because I know the messenger gets it. I can see it in his consciousness and I wonder, what comes from you when you use that phrase of things running amuck, I mean, what does that bring up for you, like, it's a disaster, is it not? (Yes) if things are running amuck, it's just a mess right?

You know dear hearts we've said it a few times this last few years and the quickening, the Light that's coming into your brain, the Light that's coming into your feeling side of life means your mind is working more powerfully but is it working more powerfully efficient, is it working more powerfully constructive, or is it working more powerfully in a non-constructive way? Your feelings are more powerful so what you're thinking and what you're feeling and the resulting manifestation, all of these processes involved are so quickened.

And so I said last year and I said the year before, and will say again and I ask you to just open yourself and to affirm it inwardly, get the message in:

"I cannot afford to think or see in my mind or feel what I don't want to happen."

You can't! I invited all of you to enter a process of your Acceptance Journals so that you would have the opportunity over a few months to get clear with yourself, "This is what I accept, this is what I don't accept." If you had done this work you would have been in better shape to really understand this guidance. You cannot afford to think about what you don't want.

Now you've got to really watch your thinking and see how that unfolds. "What kind of thinking can I get into where even if something is not the way I'd like it?" but you're thinking about how it is in the way that you don't like it and you'd like it to be different...and you're thinking about the way it is, you are thinking about what you don't want. At this point of elevation of quickening, realize dear heart your Higher Mental Body, in preparation of the great Journey of Becoming is seeking, and you ought to be making the call,

"My Beloved Mighty I AM Presence acting through my Higher Mental Body keep projecting your Cosmic Light Substance into my brain, into my feeling side of life bringing such a quickening."

It is the Cosmic Light Substance in the brain, as your brain is quickened, and more of it is being used, then dear heart when you go into the Violet Flame and you ask for Violet Flame purification of your mind, your feeling and your body, you are coming to a place of building tremendous efficiency in the use of your mind, whether you use that quickened mind in negative thinking or positive thinking. I have tried in various ways and will continue to remind yourselves dear heart, if you make something an issue, you will be a magnet for its manifestation in your life. I urge all of you, stop using some of the current phrases where, "I take issue with what you're saying, I have an issue here." Don't have issues because if you're going to have issues you will require tissues. (Laughter)

It's just because, and you've got to find your own approach because sometimes what's going on in your mind and what's going on in your feelings can become such a mess. So do any of you remember the old cassette tapes, and can you remember when that tape it pulled out of the wheels of the cassette and you just had all this tape and its just all over the place, and its twisted and you're just like, "I'm not going to try and lay all this out again, I'm just going to put the thing in the garbage. (Yes) Well sometimes you can get yourself in a place in your mind, in your feelings where its just like your thoughts and your feelings have become confused and boy, is that a magnet to draw that confusion into your life.

I say to you dear hearts you have all done what you've been asked to in using the Violet Flame and understanding the importance of the Violet Flame, but its just not acceptable – you ought to be saying to yourself,

“It is not acceptable for me to have any fear about anything, it is not acceptable for me to have any doubt, and it is not acceptable for this earthly embodiment to enter into any kind of anxiety, or stress, or concern that is associated with worry.”

There’s constructive concern, we have concern but we don’t connect it to the worry vibration, you understand? Indeed. So dear hearts the thing is you are all drawing in so much Light by your calls. The power of your attention is getting more results. The Sacred Fire is producing the purification. Now I’ve said to you before, your ego may be balanced but its precarious balance, its just looking for a moment for something to trigger you into a human moment where it can jump back out of its cage and can just start ranting in your mind and getting you to go all over the place, hmmm? It’s a wonderful thing, the mind is a beautiful thing, and when you can make a choice in your mind that’s filled with so much feeling, and when you can stay true to that dear heart, it’s just the most beautiful part of the manifestation process.

You know, we encourage you to have in all these years in Saint Germain’s activity and our own activity we’ve encouraged you to set aside time to enter into your spiritual work, come to your Presence, do your calls, enter the Violet Flame, identify the Ascended Master gifts that you feel drawn to, call them forth. You might as well start using the new phrase. In the path of Resurrection that’s coming for all of you we refer to this as your spiritual protocol, it’s the spiritual protocol of what is necessary to take you from the awakened state into the becoming state. The spiritual protocol is the things that you engage in what you formally refer to as that time you set aside to meditate, do your calls, blah, blah, blah, yes?

Yet beyond your spiritual protocol it is to ask yourself, “How often do I really come to my Presence?” I would like to see yourselves, now I could say this two different ways; I would like to see you challenge your I AM Presence; okay, I said it that way, okay? Now I’m going to say to you, you can’t, you cannot challenge your I AM Presence.

So now I’ll say it another way; I would like to see you challenge yourself in opening the way for your Presence, your great treasure house of God’s great supply to find ample opportunity to express itself in your life. I would just love to see any of you choose a manifestation, how shall I say this, that is beyond your current means, beyond your current present-day means of supply, alright? Don’t be challenging me now Lidia, the challenge is for yourself, just find different words if you want. The whole idea, pick a manifestation, you might say,

“Okay, I’ll challenge myself, I’d like to manifest a new home. Knowing the prices of homes, where I am and you know I’m renting an apartment and I have a certain income that I live on and I know, I know Asun, I’ve heard it before, kick my butt! My Mighty I AM Presence is my Infinite Source of Good.”

And you’re not expected dear heart to instantly manifest it, you’re expected to move towards it, keep moving towards that knowing, keep moving towards that accepting, but eventually you’ve got to start touching the door. So who wants to work with Asun and don’t say ‘yes’ yet, in choosing to challenge yourself in manifesting something, knowing your Beloved I AM Presence is your Source of Infinite Good that you would say, in human context, is beyond my current means. Is that fair to say? We’re qualifying it in human context right? You got me? So who would like to do this?...

“Alright, alright, the idea here is we’re not going to challenge the Presence, the challenge is for me to make a decision, this is something I’m going to manifest.”

You know dear hearts you don’t quite yet understand Christ’s words for those who ultimately would become The Untouchables, because they sure apply to this time.

“Give unto Caesar that which belongs to Caesar. Give unto me, the I AM Presence, that which belongs to me. What belongs to me is you giving me your attention and you looking to me to fulfill everything in your mind.”

Your Presence has no choice at this time but to fulfill everything in your mind and feelings because your Presence gives you Life and you have free will to use that Life constructively, destructively or in a limiting way, so in a way strange as it sounds, every human compels their Presence to produce all the limitation in their lives even though their Presence is there to produce all the perfection they desire, because the Life that you’re using in creating limitation belongs to whom? The I AM Presence. Are we in agreement here? (Yes) Excellent.

So, the challenge here is to pick a manifestation, something that you say in human context is currently beyond my means at this time, something I’m going to make a decision on,

“This is not what I want, this is what I desire to manifest,”

And then begin to go to your I AM Presence to release into your hands and use all that is required, all things considered for its full manifestation. Give it a higher purpose, give it a cause.

“I would love to live in a beautiful new home that I can glorify your Presence, a home that is filled with your Love, a home that supports me in my great path of becoming, a home that is a wonderful place to my family and friends,” right?

Whatever it is dear hearts, a journey, a trip, whatever it is. The challenge is to yourself to make the call and to stay true to yourself in your being, in your mind your images your feeling,

“This is what’s going to happen, this is what is going to take place In the Name, Love, Wisdom and Power of my Mighty I AM Presence, this is what I call forth the full manifestation. My I AM Presence does not sit up there and say, hmmm, you know you were a good little girl on these days, you were a naughty little girl on these days, you were a bad little boy on these days but you were a good little, oh, I’ll give you a partial manifestation.”

That’s not the way it works dear heart, you’ve got to think and it actually would be good for you to think more in terms of scientific terms, its energy, its energy acting, its vibration, its substance. Think more in terms of science, your Presence doesn’t say, “Well should I respond?” Your Presence always says, “Yes.” Always! The process of you turning to your Presence, make the call and then move into a sovereign place of,

“I command and I demand and I am manifesting,”

All of that opens the way for the I AM Presence and its Divine Consciousness to come into your world and begin to work with all the events necessary that must unfold that all things considered that are required come into manifestation.

It's your thoughts – the challenge is going to come after in which you move this into qualification each day, you qualify that this is what's coming forth, you visit it in your mind with beautiful images, you ask yourself,

“What action can I take that supports me staying true to this?”

We knew a couple that manifested a beautiful new home, beautiful new home, did not pay one penny for it, and one of the things they did in wanting to support themselves in staying true to the desire for a new home, they started looking in catalogues, they started looking at beautiful homes, they started registering the images in their minds, they saw themselves in their new home and left it to their I AM Presence to find the means and the way, yes?

“Who and what is I my I AM Presence? My I AM Presence is my Source of Infinite Supply.”

And Lidia today messaged the messenger number one and shared with him that she had been reading something in the wonderful I AM Books that was just a different approach, but the same approach in realizing that My Mighty I AM Presence is... Lydia? Go ahead, microphone is coming.

“That before we came into embodiment in the Great Central Sun there is a storehouse of supply and energy only for us, no other entity in infinity can touch it, it's ours.”

And so what you're saying was that in the Great Central Sun where you were all created each of you were given a Divine Endowment and that endowment was your own infinite storehouse of supply that you could use. Carry on.

“Well that's it and it was just an amazing ahahhh”

Yes, but you also had another ahahhh that Oh my God! Oh my Good God, I have my own Infinite Swiss Bank Account!

“ My own Bank account and no-one has the account but me!.”

That's right, no one has that account but me. Here's my point; Lidia studied something in a book of truth. When she studied this, something that the book of truth that happened to be an I AM Book, it resonated with her and she had her wowsy moment and then she put it in her(own way), she personalized it in a way that was real for her. Hearing that every individualized life stream as you are all created the I AM Presences, you were all endowed with an Infinite Source of money and supply and all good things that you could draw upon for infinity. This lit up Lidia and she came up with the awareness, “Oh my God I have my own Swiss Bank Account!” So this was Lidia's way of taking in her own wonderful creative way and embracing this great truth so that what? So that she could work with it.

And it's the truth; all of you have your own Infinite Storehouse of supply. And call upon your Great I AM Presence,

"This is what I desire, this is what I require."

And finish it with sealing off the human by saying to yourself, and to the cosmos,

"And by the way, I don't need anything. Need is not in my consciousness and I am erasing the use of that word from my mind and being. I am given the right, in fact I am endowed with the ability to desire, I am endowed with the ability to require. In the fullness of the Presence are the things that I desire, in the fullness of the Presence is the Love that I require."

So it seems to me its time to start drawing on this great endowment, is that a good word? (Yes) endowment. (Yes) that the Infinite I AM Presence has given to all its individualizations an infinite source of supply because how does something become an infinite source of supply? You know how it works dear hearts? Once you start drawing upon it, everything you draw from it, the Infinite I AM Presence keeps replacing, that well can never dry out, isn't that wonderful? (Yes) Inheritance, yes, it's your divine inheritance, absolutely!

So, make a decision you are going to draw from the great treasure house of your life that which is....and to call to your I AM Presence to bring about this manifestation all things considered. When you think about the thing that you're going to draw forth into manifestation, think about the things that might need to be considered, think about it so monkey mind doesn't come in later. Maybe you wish to have a beautiful new home, all things considered,

"Oh yes, if I have this new home, hmmm there may be taxes that have to be paid, especially if it's a beautiful home in a beautiful area, so I'll require money for the taxes. Oh yes, that new home is on a one-acre estate, its going to require gardening, I'm going to have to bring in a gardener." (Comments and laughter)

And if you're Lidia you've got a housekeeper, you've got a cook, all things considered dear hearts, all things considered including the money and supply to maintain this beautiful and perfect manifestation, yes? So your mind doesn't go off.

Would you like to do this? Would you like to challenge yourself to draw forth some great manifestation directly from your Mighty I AM Presence or the result is your Mighty I AM Presence acting in your life that in human context is beyond your current means at this particular time, alright? Good. Did you have a question Margarita? Excellent, don't you love it when you answer your own questions? Of course to do that you have to ask the right question and as I've said before sometimes before you ask yourself questions, ask the question, "What is the right question for me to ask?".....yes? So when you call to your Presence, call to Akasha and I and all the Ascended and Angelic Ones to assist you in this manifestation.

“One of the great causes, now it is so important, if I am to embody my Presence there must be no doubt in my being about my ability to connect with my Presence, to call to my Presence, there must be nothing in my consciousness, there mustn’t be any feelings of unworthiness or I don’t deserve or God is a withholding God. All these stupid ideas have got to be cleared and therefore I say to my Mighty I AM Presence here is an opportunity, one of the greatest causes that I’ll call forth is that I know, I know that never again will I doubt you, but more importantly, doubt myself in my ability to unfold the riches of Life that are stored for me.”

God bless you dear hearts, (God bless you – applause) Over and out! On my way; she has cookies coming out of the warm oven for me. God bless you dear hearts. Namaste.

And we just love and bless you Asun, we call upon our Mighty I AM Presence to bless you for eternity and to expand Akasha and Asun’s dispensation of the Rose Pink Flames of Divine Love Will and Grace to the Earth. And from out of our heart we call forth from the Great Love Flame hundreds of thousands of Rhythmic Waves of Divine Love to each other, to our Mighty I AM Presence, to the larger student body, to our Beloved Akasha and Asun. We are so grateful. Deep breath.
